ADDITIONAL LOCAL

L. W. Wilson of Merna, is a city visitor today.

A. L. Leach, of Kingston, is visiting relatives in this city this week.

Attorneys Sullivan and Johnson made a business trip to Mullen this morning.

Neils Lee spent Wednesday in Merna visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lester Corlett.

Judge Humphrey was a passenger this morning for Dunning. He will drive from Dunning to Brewster.

John Myers, of Georgetown was in the city Saturday to attend the meeting of the board of directors of the Security State Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chittick, of Gothenburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pigman. Mr. Chittick is a former deputy register of deed of this county and is now the manager of the Farmer's elevator at Gothenburg.

W. E. Morrison, of Denver, moved to this city the first of the week. Mr. Morrison took a homestead at Anselmo in 1887 and lived in this county a number of years. He says the altitude is too high at Denver and he expects to locate here permanently.

J. S. Baisch began the excavating work for the erection of his two story building between the Duster National and the Waits store this week. He expects to complete the building in July.

J. B. Stone, who will be the general manager of the new store, states that he expects to have the stock of goods ready to open about August 1st.

F. H. Reed, manager of the Buckeye ranch, was in the city on business the first of the week. Mr. Reed says that it is reported that the mountain lion, which has been making its appearance at different times in the southern part of the county, has killed three or four head of cattle and the cattlemen have gotten together and offered $150 reward for the animal's scalp.

Superintendent Pinckney has received a number of pictures taken by Frank A. Roberson, the popular lecturer, in the Messina before and after the earthquake. These pictures will be displayed for a time in his office and will probably be put in the postoffice later. Mr. Roberson will give an illustrated lecture here during the junior normal using these pictures and others taken by him to show the condition before and after the earthquake.

The REPUBLICAN is in receipt of a copy of the Boston Herald, of Boston, Mass., announcing that a world's exposition will be held in Boston in 1920. The exposition will be given to commemorate the three-hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims and the founding of New England. The Herald announces that the movement is started at this time in order to give ample time for the preparations and to make the exposition the greatest that the world has ever seen.

Tuesday afternoon, May 4th, the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Thosteson. The members were very agreeably surprised by their hostess, the genius of the society, inviting about forty of their neighbors to meet with them. After devotional exercises and a short program the meeting was turned into social chat, chickens and little sweethearts being the principal subjects. Mrs. Thosteson was assisted in serving a delicious three-course luncheon by Mrs. Lomax, Mrs. Ida Palmer and Miss Edith Lomax. A delightful time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Penn the first Tuesday in June.

Notice.

We are desirous of placing with farmers a few more contracts for growing cucumber, musk melon, water melon, squash and pumpkin seed. Also sweet and flint corn. Our prices are the highest in years and the season looks favorable.

We would be pleased to correspond with any one interested.

Respectfully,
THE C. HERBERT COY SEED CO.
