

Letter from Kinkaid.

mined by "insurgents" to be hopeless, I cite that the "insurgents" who participated in the House caucus did not try to concentrate their votes upon any one member, but scattered them indiscriminately upon several, neither of whom had been, or was, a candidate. Likewise, the twelve republicans, who, at the last, did not vote for Cannon neither did they concentrate upon one candidate, but scattered their vote upon four. In their justification, it had been determined that very morning, in caucus by "insurgents," the defeat of Cannon legitimately being regarded as impossible, that "insurgents" exercise their individual choice as to whether they would vote for Cannon, without the propriety of their course being questioned. I, with a majority of the 27 "insurgents," kept out of the caucus to avoid being held by its action as to Rules, a non-partisan question, but held myself as much bound by its action as to nominations, a partisan question, as if I had actually participated therein. For whom should I vote? Insurgents had gone to the limit, in co-operation with the democrats, for rules reformation, this is a non-partisan question. Here was a partisan question of the highest order, the speakership. Nothing could be gained by way of the consideration of the speaker for committee assignments, as he knew he did not need my vote, and I had opposed him as to rules. But here was the president, with his cabinet officers, here the Republican organization, numbering seven for every one "insurgent". Was I to throw overboard the important interests of my district, involved in both the Executive and Legislative branches, for naught but the idle expression of a protest or resentment against what had already been determined by so overwhelming a majority of the republican membership? Of the three alternatives, to vote for Cannon, Clark, or one of the four voted for by the twelve "insurgents" or even a fifth to be chosen by myself, I chose to take an affirmative rather than a negative or neutral position, by voting for Mr. Cannon. As a republican, I thought then, and think now, that I did morally and politically right.

In conclusion, I call attention to the fact that my vote cast as to rules accords in every instance with those of the 27 "insurgents" universally regarded as loyal adherents to the cause, and that my vote upon the speakership was also in accord with a majority of the 27, and a much greater majority of the "insurgents" in general; that the great magazines, conspicuous among which are Colliers, Success and La Follette's, unstintingly praise the action of the 27 "insurgents," and that the two latter include my name and picture with those of the other 26 under the headings, respectively; "The Roll of Honor," and "On the Nation's Roll of Honor." If "insurgents" themselves, and these great magazines, besides many scholars and statesmen of distinction and the thousands of constituents, who have written "insurgents" in the most complimentary terms, are not qualified to determine whether an "insurgent" faithfully discharged his trust, then I am at a loss to know to what higher authority the question may properly be submitted.

Again thanking you for the space, I remain,

Very truly yours, M. P. KINKAID.

New Hope Items.

The farmers are all busy planting corn.

A terrible wind storm and dust visited this vicinity on Wednesday evening of last week.

The Week Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Gaimms last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Sharp went to Broken Bow last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield daughter, Iva, who was married in Kansas Wednesday to Mr. Baker returned home last Saturday on their wedding trip for a short visit with her parents. They will make their home in Coffeewille, Kansas.

The wind storm last Wednesday evening blew Mr. Clines buggy shed all to pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huffaker spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield gave a supper and reception for the bride and groom last Saturday evening. The evening was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Cline, who has been sick for some time, is reported not much better.

Emory Cline experienced a runaway Monday while discing. No serious damage was done.

RECEPTION FOR BRIDE AND GROOM

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield, who live nine miles southeast of Broken Bow, gave a supper and reception for their daughter, Iva, who was married in Kansas Wednesday to Mr. Baker and who arrived in Broken Bow Friday night for a short visit with her parents. Mrs. Baker has been teaching in a Business college at Coffeewille, Kansas, and Mr. Baker has a position there also. There were about thirty guests present at the 8 o'clock supper. A bounteous supper was served by Mrs. Sheffield and daughter, Corda. After supper the evening was spent in social chat and music. The bride and groom received quite a number of useful and beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home in Coffeewille, Kansas.

PRAIRIE HILL

The Ladies' sewing circle has changed the order of their meeting. They will only meet every two weeks in the afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clara Weesner Thursday, May 27.

Mrs. Bay has gone to Missouri to visit her sister who is very ill.

Roy Huffman and Miss Mildred Headley, of the Loup, visited Sunday at Mr. Neth's.

Judge Reese and Mr. Gramlich, of the state university, and the Misses Robertson and Mildred Sholtz went to Arnold last Monday, returning by the way of Merna. Miss Sholtz visited a few days in Broken Bow before returning home.

Walter Haefele, of McKinley, visited Sunday night with Jesse Price.

Last Sunday about forty-five of Mr. and Mrs. Tanver's friends gathered at their home to surprise them, but they had suspicioned it and Mrs. Tanver was prepared for them. She had prepared a dinner such as only a good cook like Mrs. Tanver can prepare. In the afternoon they were served with ice cream and cake.

Chas. Coulter was kicked on his hand one day last week by a horse. Two bones were broken in his hand.

ELTON ITEMS.

Jack Frost is still visiting us. Carl Kleeb is marketing his corn in Broken Bow

Sam Tompson, our assessor, is around calling on the farmers this week.

Charley Killmore, of Lincoln County, preached at the church of God Sunday.

Sadie and Charley Cooksley visited with their sister, Mrs.

Albert Powell, Sunday.

William McIntosh secured the lucky number which drew the fine $300 piano at Sargent last week.

The farmers of this vicinity are thinking of patronizing the Catalogue houses since there are so many accidents caused by the automobiles that it is dangerous to go to Broken Bow.

Zumbrotta Zephyrs.

Mrs. M. Stone received a sad message last Saturday night. It brought word that a brother had died very suddenly of heart failure. This was quite a shock to Mrs. Stone and as she has been in very poor health for some time she was unable to attend the funeral.

Harriet Johnson is afflicted with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Heap spent Sunday with the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dewey, in the next neighborhood north of us.

Ralph Johnson's are expecting company from New York.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity are through planting corn.

Mr. Peden has not been out to his ranch for several days, as he has been having the mumps.

Mrs. N. N. Bishop is running Mrs. Callen's incubator at present.

Frank Callen, of Calloway, was in these parts recently.

Harry Ash's brother, who has been helping him for a couple of weeks, has returned to the city.

The roads have been greatly improved by being graded east from the school house for nearly two miles.

This community now boasts of a rural free delivery.

Walter Cole is now the owner of a fine new driving team.

Mr. N. N. Bishop's father remains in about the same condition, which is very poorly.

A. J. Routh, B. B. Sands and Fred Pershall, have all purchased new corn planters.

E. B. Barber has been doing some "noble" work along the line of putting fences across the roads.

Roscoe Callen arrived here last week from St. Louis after an absence of four months. He made a business trip to Calloway on Friday and returned Saturday, leaving Monday afternoon for Seneca to work and live on his claim this year.

17 CTS. A DAY
BUYS AN OLIVER
This amazing offer—the New Model Oliver Typewriter No. 5 at 17 cents a day—is open to everybody, everywhere.
It's our new and immensely popular plan of selling Oliver Typewriters on little easy payments. The abandonment of longhand in favor of clean, legible, beautiful typewriting is the next great step in human progress. A ready—in all lines of business and in all professions—the use of pen and ink is largely restricted to the writing of signatures.
Business Colleges and High Schools, watchful of the trend of public sentiment, are training a vast army of young people in the use of Oliver Typewriters.
The prompt and generous response of the Oliver Typewriter Company to the world-wide demand for uni-versal typewriting gives tremendous impetus to the movement. The Oliver, with the largest sale of any typewriter in existence, was the logical machine to take the initiative in bringing about the universal use of typewriters. It always leads!
Save your Pennies and Own
The OLIVER Typewriter
The Standard Visible writer
This "17 cents a day" selling plan make the Oliver as low as to rent. It places the machine within easy reach of every home—every individual. A man's "cigar money"—a woman's "pin money"—will buy it.
Clerks on small salaries can now afford to own Olivers. By utilizing spare moments for practice they may fit themselves for more important positions.
School boys and school girls can buy Olivers by saving their pennies.
You can buy an Oliver on this plan at the regular catalogue price—$100. A small first payment brings the machine. Then you save 17 cents a day and pay monthly.
And the possession of an Oliver Typewriter enables you to earn money to finish paying for the machine.
The Oliver is the most highly perfected typewriter on the market—hence it's 100 per cent efficiency.
Among its scores of conveniences are:
—the Balance Shift
—the Ruling device
—the Double Release
—the Locomotive Base
—the Automatic Tabulator
—the Automatic Spacer
—the Automatic Follow-up System
—the Disappearing Indicator
—the Adjustable Paper Finger
—the Scientific Condensed Key-board
Can you spend 17 cents a day to better advantage than in the purchase of this wonderful machine?
