J. L. FERGUSON, Sargent, Nebr.

The Argosy is pleased to announce that Geo. E. Porter has announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for register of deeds.

A. J. VanAntwerp has announced that he will be a candidate for the nomination, for county surveyor on the Republican ticket.

For Surveyor. A. J. Van Antwerp, of Broken Bow, requests us to announce him as a candidate for county surveyor subject to the decision of the voters at the Republican primary.

universal satisfaction. He is well qualified for the place he seeks, having taken a course in engineering at Fremont and also at the State University, in Lincoln.

Osborn Well Liked.

As the time for the primaries is approaching the crop of candidates for county offices are springing up like mushrooms in June.

For the office of County Clerk, the present deputy, W. H. Osborn, is the only Republican candidate, though he has not publicly announced that fact, yet it is known that he is in the race.

The following clipping from the Omaha Bee indicates that Senator Burkett is taking an active part in the discussion of the tariff legislation in Congress: "Persistent hammering on the part of the progressive senators brought an admission from Senator Aldrich that the schedule relating to window glass ought to be re-constructed, and at the end of Senator Burkett's speech the schedule was passed over for purposes of revision."

Practice What You Preach.

The Beacon for last week contains the following pointed paragraph: "Now, Herbert, if you believe in 'honest, straightforward journalism,' come out and admit the truth of what these men say."

Just what the Republican congress now in session will do towards the revision of the tariff cannot be determined at this time. We must await their final action on the bill.

Why, Brother Beal, don't you get after the thirty-eight Democrats who voted in the House of Representatives for a protective tariff on lumber in defiance of the Democratic platform declaration for free lumber?

Stock Market Report.

South Omaha, May 12, '09

Cattle: Receipts this week have been moderate. Monday's and Tuesday's trade was quite a repetition of the market during the closing days of last week.

Hogs have changed little in the last two days. Today we had more heavy hogs than for some time past and these sold readily to both local and outside buyers.

Trading in this department has been on the sensational order for sometime past and values have gone above all previous records. Woolled lambs have sold as high as 9.35 with shorn lambs up to 8.20.

ZUMBROTA ZEPHYRS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bishop are expected home from Illinois in a few days, where they went to attend the funeral of Mr. Bishop's father.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson has been enjoying a visit from her sister and husband and little daughter, who spent the winter in California, and are on their way home to New York.

Mrs. M. D. Stone is improving.

Mr. Williams is ill and one of his sons has the mumps.

Arthur Cole planted corn for Mr. Small and for Mr. Williams.

Chas. Sands spent Saturday night with Chas. Koozer.

Mr. Peden is doing some more fencing with woven wire.

Mr. Sharp has been fencing a pasture.

Oren Cole is employed with the telephone company.

Mrs. Maud Holcomb, of Broken Bow, is assisting Mrs. Callen with house cleaning.

Windgate Foster is helping with the farm work at J. T. Cole's.

Fierce for a time and quite a little hail fell, but the rain ceased falling too soon to give us much moisture.

A terrible misfortune befell Walter Cole on Friday evening, May 14, which all sincerely hope will not prove fatal. He and his sister, Olive, had started out for a horse back ride.

and Drs. Pennington and Mullins were there in a very short time to set the broken bone, but it was Monday morning before the suffering boy could rest easy.
