S. J. LONERGAN

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Albert G. Moyer, Plaintiff, vs. James W. Maxson et al. Defendants.

To James W. Maxson, Martha A. Maxson, Francis J. Wilcox, The Standard Printing Co., The Hamilton Loan & Trust Co., W. F. R. Mills, Receiver, William Clark and the Union Trust Co., of New York, trustees non-resident defendants:

You and each of you will take notice that on the 22nd day of July, 1909, Albert G. Moyer, the plaintiff above named, filed his petition in the district court of Custer County, Nebraska, against you and each of you the object and prayer of which said petition are:

To quiet the title in the said plaintiff to the southeast (se¹/₄) quarter of section twenty-six (26) in township sixteen (16) range twenty-five (25) in Custer County, Nebraska, as against a certain mortgage securing the payment of $105.00, which mortgage is dated October 10th, 1887, and appears of record in book 16 of mortgage of page 532 of the Mortgage Records of Custer County, Nebraska, for the reason that said mortgage has become barred by the statutes of limitation and is not a lien upon said land; and also to quiet the title to said land as against any right, title or interest that you or any of you may have in and to said real estate for the reason that said plaintiff and his grantors have been in the open, notorious, exclusive and adverse possession of said land, claiming title and ownership thereto as against you and each and all of you and all persons for more than ten years past.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before Monday the 30th day of August, 1909.

July 1909. ALBERT G. MOYER.

HELLO GIRLS HAVE PICNIC

Spent Sunday at Judge Humphrey's Ranch on South Loup.

Through the kindness of Manager Pickett and Messrs. Hugh Wells, Rumont Pigman, Oren Cole and R. J. Sheppard, who substituted for them, the "central" girls enjoyed a holiday Sunday a week ago. They spent the day picnicking on the Loup at Judge Humphrey's ranch about fifteen miles southwest of town. The day was thoroughly enjoyed by every member of the party; more so, perhaps, because it was the first time the girls had all been off duty at the same time. It being an ideal place to spend a holiday, hammocks and swing ropes formed a pleasant feature on the program. A fine dinner was served in camp and the party lunched while enroute home. Among the party was Misses Merle Lanterman, Dorothy Lee, Dora King, Besse Orr, Edna Wright and Ornelia Lanphear, of the "central" crowd, and Misses Clair Grove and Jennie Wilson on the invitation of the party participated in the festivities of the day, and a pleasant day was spent with a congenial "bunch" who went for a day of pleasure. While Mrs. Oscar Amsberry is a "hello" lady she did not accompany the crowd, but went with her husband to Mason City instead.

The Telephone Girl.

The telephone girl sits still in her chair and listens to voices from everywhere. She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news, she knows who is happy and who has the blues; she knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys, she knows every girl who is chasing the boys; she knows of our troubles, she knows of our strife; she knows every man who talks mean to his wife; she knows every time we are with the boys; she hears the excuses each fellow employs; she knows every woman who has a dark past, she knows every man who is inclined to be fast; in fact, there's a secret 'neath each saucy curl of that quiet, demure looking telephone girl. If the telephone girl told all that she knows it would turn our friends into bitterest foes; she could sow a small wind that would soon be a gale, engulf us in trouble and land us in jail; she could let go a story which, gaining in force, would cause half our wives to sue for divorce; she could get all our churches mixed up in a fight and turn all our days into sorrowing night; in fact she could keep the whole town in a stew if she'd tell a tenth part of the things she knew. Oh, brother, now doesn't it make your head whirl when you think what you owe to the telephone girl?—Vernon (Tex.) Call.

Only an ad-reader can wisely manage

HOUSEHOLD FINANCES

The Ads make "management" of "money matters" in the home POSSIBLE. The wife who always studies the ads is working in business partnership with the husband—who, supposedly, has to "know things" in order to EARN the money. On her part, the wife comes to know values, and prices, and where and when and how to buy—and such knowledge, such education comes chiefly through reading and answering ads.

"Household prosperity" is assured if the wife makes ad-reading a part of her daily routine.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

Ayer's
We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such boys a great deal of good. They keep the liver active. —Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

REFRESHES THE SCALP.

Almost anyone may rid themselves of dandruff and scalp irritation and prevent baldness if they will use Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic. We are so certain of this we guarantee to return every cent paid for it if it doesn't prove satisfactory. Try it at our entire risk. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00.

The Escape from Worry

Give us a winding road, a sky full of white floating clouds, a river and a bridge over which to rumble, a lake, blue and inviting, among green hills, an hour's run to dinner, and the sense of power and control at the wheel of a Rambler—and we will have no thought of business cares.

With the

Rambler

The Car of Steady Service

there is added to the pleasure of touring the satisfaction of freedom from the worries of the road.

The great economy and efficiency of this car is due to such exclusive Rambler features as the offset crank shaft, straight-line-drive, safety spark retarder, Rambler Spare Wheel, etc. Let us prove this to you. Call and we will explain these Rambler features in detail, and by actual demonstration; no obligation on your part whatever.

Seven Passenger Model, forty-five horse power with offset crank shaft, $2500. Other models, $1150 to $2500.
