At the Gothenburg, July 4th celebration, the Jackson, Model H pulled a half mile a hook and ladder truck, two hose trucks, 1000 feet of hose and FORTY-FIVE MEN.

A crowd of 12,000 saw it. Ask any man there.

ZUMBROTA ZEPHYRS.

Ed White and Oscar Tappan have returned from Colorado and think that Custer county is the place to live.

J. T. Cole has returned home from his trip to Monroe. Miss Olive is staying to make a longer visit with old friends and schoolmates.

M. D. Stone has erected a new granary.

Mrs. Smalley and daughter, Millie, and Grandma White spent one day last week with Mrs. O. Tappan.

The Lanterman boy's threshing outfit expected to get moved to our Valley this week and commence work at Anselmo.

Miss Lulu Williams, of the Bow, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her brother N. N. Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackman and daughter, have gone to the exposition, after paying a visit to Ralph Johnson's.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson is enjoying a visit from her aunt, Mrs. Jackson and son, of Green, N. Y. The young man went with the Blackman's to the Seattle exposition.

Mr. Small has been in the eastern part of the state on a business trip.

The new barn is to be started soon on the school grounds.

The last report from Geo. Barber's brother was that he wasn't expected to live.

Chas. Hall, of Callaway, was ran home. Rob Roy was bruised quite bad.

Mr. and Mrs. Morford were called to the Loup Sunday by the illness of a niece, who was better when they arrived.

ELTON.

Plenty rain, but no hail so far.

The recent storms have rendered the telephones in this vicinity almost useless.

Miss Ella Shaddon is visiting her uncle at Hastings.

Ada and Jack Bence attended the picnic at Mr. Rapp's grove last Saturday.

Wesley Mottinger, who has been attending the State Normal at Peru this summer, is expected home this week.

We are pleased to see that Avolo Vannice is running for nomination for county superintendent and we hope he will be successful.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Carl and Roy Leck on last Tuesday evening. About twenty guests were present. The evening was spent in playing games and music. Ice cream and cake were served and the guests departed at a late hour, all having had a fine time.

OBITUARY.

Little William Bartholomew Govier was born on November 6th, 1908, and died July 17th, 1909, at Oconto. He was eight months and eleven days old when he died.

Fold the little hands so waxen
O'er the little pulseless breast,
For our little boy is sleeping
In Death's long and dreamy rest.
Press the gold-fringed eyelids gently
O'er the sunny, bright to gray eyes—
Eyes that closed on earth forever,
Opened up in paradise.

Vainly we questioned why it happened—
How can it be for the best?
Asking why those feet so early
On their journey needed rest.
But though mother's heart is aching
With a dull, increasing pain,
Though the light seems vanished
Never to come back again.

But would mother wish to call him
From his home of light above?
Would you ask that God had left him
Here to cheer you with his love?
Even with your love to guide him
In paths of good and right,
Would he still have entered heaven
With a soul so pure and white?

Chautauqua Boosters

Are you Talking for Chautauqua?

Boosters make things go. Big boosting makes big things go easily. Lend your assistance to the Chautauqua Booster Club.

The program is the strongest to be found.

Tell your friends you are boosting for the Chautauqua, and get them to buy a season ticket.

HELEN MAY BUTLER

One of the greatest band directors in the United States is a woman. This Chautauqua is fortunate in obtaining for preludes in four programs, Helen May Butler and her famous band.

The band concerts will delight the Chautauquans in three preludes and one grand concert.

The New York Herald says this is one of the best bands ever appearing at Madison Square Garden.

ERNEST HAROLD BAYNES

Secretary of the American Bison Association and the greatest living authority on the American Bison. Ernest Harold Baynes comes to us an intense champion for the wild animals and birds of our country. His beautifully colored views, accompanied by his fascinating story of the wild, will make Mr. Baynes' lecture one long remembered.

Compare this program with any you know of and see how few are as good. With this great array of talent, none could be better. Attend the Chautauqua, remember the dates.

GEORGETOWN ITEMS.

Several fine showers visited this section the first of the week.

Mrs. Herman Pierce spent Monday and Tuesday with her sister at Eddyville.

C. C. Smith marketed hogs at Oconto Wednesday.

Wm. and Frank Spry transacted business in Kearney Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. Wheeler and family, of Sumner, are spending the week camping near Georgetown.

The rain on Saturday afternoon interfered with the ball game at Arthur Thompson's between Oconto and Deer Creek.

On account of the rain Sunday morning there was not a very large attendance at the grove meeting in the morning or afternoon. In the evening services were held in the school house and a good crowd was present. Evangelist Wheeler, who is conducting these meetings, will continue them every night this week. On Sunday there will be services again morning, afternoon and night. Come out to these services they will do you good.

members of the faculty and do hereby sincerely thank them individually and as a faculty, and further that we wish especially to commend each of them—Miss Alice M. Burley for her most commendable work in drawing, reading, orthography, and model school.

Miss Emily Wood for her excellent work in geography, geology, literature, agriculture and music. Every class period spent with her has been especially helpful and enjoyable as have been the delightful hours of bird study spent in her company.

Prof. L. A. Cornett for his very practical work in arithmetic, physics, bookkeeping and penmanship.

Prof. J. G. W. Lewis for his most able instruction in history, civics, physiology and algebra.

Prof. J. M. McIndoo for his meritorious work in methodology, botany, grammar and chemistry.

Prof. R. I. Elliott for his most valuable work in geometry, algebra, trigonometry and school management.

Fourth. That in Supt. Etta Brooks, of Blaine County, and Supt. H. M. Pinckney of Custer County, we recognize two of the best county superintendents in Nebraska, and we hereby tender to them our sincere thanks for the able instruction and valuable advice they have given us.

Fifth. That we thank Mr. Andrus for his many courtesies and helpful suggestions, especially in agriculture. His presence has been an inspiration to us and we take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation.

Sixth. We wish to commend the able administration of State Supt. E. C. Bishop and his efficient deputy, F. S. Perdue. That we most heartily endorse their plans for the more practical education of our boys and girls as exemplified in the greater prominence given to agriculture, domestic science and kindred subjects.

Seventh. We wish to express our appreciation of the services of the ministers of the city, members of the Board of Education, musicians and all others who have, in any way, added to the pleasure and profit of this session of the Broken Bow Junior Normal.

We will always remember this session as particularly enjoyable and profitable and we hope all succeeding sessions may come up to the standard set by this one.
