

NORMAL ROOM

Custer College Begins September 20, 1909

A HALL IN CUSTER COLLEGE

COURSES OF STUDY

- Normal
- Business
- Agricultural
- Practical Farmers Course
- Vocal, Piano, Violin Music
- Education
- Oratory

Write for catalogue.
LOREN CORNETT, - President

SHORTHAND ROOM

BUSINESS STUDY ROOM

Grand Market Day Sale, September 25, 1909

Horses, cattle, hogs, farm machinery and house hold goods will be sold on commission. List your property early. Sale begins at 2 o'clock sharp.

H. A. TINDER, Auct. and Mgr.

Jas. Clinebell is in Lincoln attending the state fair this week.

Miss Nettie Holcomb returned last Friday from a visit with friends in Seattle.

Homer Rupert and Lynn Sullivan went to Lincoln Tuesday evening to take in the state fair.

Miss Pearl Cox, who has been visiting relatives in this city, left Tuesday evening for her home in Wichita, Kansas.

Fred Brueggemann, John Steinway and John Campbell, went to Grand Island Saturday evening and returned Monday morning.

John Cadwell, who has been visiting with relatives in Illinois for the past three months returned home last Friday evening.

Miss Edna Wright, of the "hello" office visited in Merna Sunday.

Judge Wall, of Loup City, is in the city this week on business in the district court.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Amsberry went to Anselmo Saturday evening to visit with relatives.

Harvey Cook, who has been at Linscott this summer on the ranch, came down last week in order to begin school Monday morning.

Ray Perry, of Anselmo, was arrested last Friday by Sheriff Kennedy, charged with having set out a prairie fire last May in the vicinity of Anselmo. The fire which he is charged with setting burned up considerable hay and some live stock.

John Dixon, who has been in the employ of Anderson & Forney, left Sunday for Denver.

The W. L. Caldwell farm located 6 miles east of this city was sold this week by the real estate firm of Mullen Bros. to Messrs. Arnold and Wilde, of Concordia, Kansas. There are 320 acres in the farm and the consideration was $12,000, or $37.50 per acre.

Manager Groat has been making some extensive repairs on his opera house. He has put in a steel lining on the wall and ceiling and repainted the interior. Everything is in readiness for the opening week with the popular Benjamin Stock company next week. Tickets on sale at Holcomb's book store.

Remember that the Benjamin Stock company will play all next week at the Groat opera house.

George Vallender, A. E. Anderson's popular jeweler, returned Friday from his vacation trip to Omaha.

K. P. Althage, who has been cooking at the Grand Central hotel plead guilty to assault on A. J. Elliott in Justice Holcomb's court Tuesday and was fined ten dollars and costs. Althage was not satisfied with some of his assistants and called Mr. Elliott into the kitchen and threatened to use a butcher knife on him.

A surprise party was given to Guy Buswell last Monday evening at the U. B. parsonage. After a number of games had been played the guests were served with delicious watermelon. Guy was taken wholly by surprise, but was equal to the occasion and entertained the guests in a royal manner. He will leave in about a week to attend the University at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hagboom went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shinn returned home from their coast trip last Friday morning.

Attorney W. H. Thompson, the "little giant" from Grand Island, is here looking after business in the district court.

Col. H. A. Tinder returned to this city last Thursday and is this week advertising a market day sale in this city for September 25th.

Wayne Soper, who has been visiting in Brown county the past summer, returned home the first of the week to attend school the coming term.

L. Cushman returned Tuesday from a two week's visit with his sister and daughter at Watertown, South Dakota. He had not seen his sister for twenty-eight years and it had been fourteen years since he saw his daughter.

W. B. Eastham went to Lincoln Tuesday evening for the state fair.

Miss Essie Holcomb, secretary to Judge Dean, came up from Lincoln Monday evening and is visiting at home.

H. A. Sherman, E. E. Miller, Landy Wolf and Arnold Krbel, of Sargent, were in the city Tuesday on business in the district court.

Miss Adeline Arnold, of New Lexington, Ohio, arrived in the Bow Sunday evening for an indefinite visit with her cousin, Miss Glea Soper.

School commenced the first of this week in the Dunlap school house with Miss Ruth Kimball as teacher. She will teach a seven months school.

The Benjamin stock company which has been making a hit with the people of Kansas will be at the Groat opera house next week with all new plays.