Judge Dean The Fusion Candidate

Judge Dean fusion candidate for Supreme Court is receiving complimentary notices for the state for the able record he has made on the bench. He is the democratic member of the court that was appointed by Governor Sheldon from Broken Bow a year ago and the citizens of Custer county regardless of political bias take pride in the fact that he has been able to make good. His own church people regardless of politics are warmly supporting him as was evidenced at the Presbyterian Synod held at Minden last week. It is reported that when he entered the church from Broken Bow he was given an enthusiastic ovation by the assembly that lasted five minutes. The Republican takes no stock in the non-partisan Judiciary, being advocating in some quarters as men will carry their personal views on the bench as well as elsewhere and the greatest care should be exercised in selecting Judges safe on all questions. Yet it always has been the case where a candidate for any high office stands well in his own community his friends more or less compliment him with their support regardless of party affiliations and doubtless the vote for Judge Dean in Custer County will be no exception, notwithstanding the fact that such a custom is more or less demoralizing politically.

In speaking of Judge Dean's candidacy Henry C. Richmond of Lincoln says "In discussing the Supreme Judgeship that President Taft's recent reference to the danger of sectionalism applies most strikingly to one phase of the present campaign in which Judge J. R. Dean of Broken Bow is the only western candidate.

In the entire history of Nebraska only one supreme judge ever came from west of the 99th meridian. At present the court is divided into congressional districts, with three members from the first district having a total vote of 37,000, one from the second with 36,000, one from the third with 52,000, one from the fourth with 45,000, one from the fifth with 42,000, one from the sixth with 51,000.

Only by the election of Judge Dean will the western part of the state have a representation on the supreme bench. Politics aside, he is the only western candidate on any ticket. No surprise at the demand that more than 90,000 in the fifth and sixth districts should have representation in the supreme court.

Judge Dean's candidacy is surprisingly popular. He is a magnificent lawyer, temperamentally a judge and personally one of the most upright, honorable and fair minded men Nebraska has ever called into public service. His re-election means dignity, strength and confidence for Nebraska's court of last resort."

A Splendid Opportunity

The people of the Sixth Supervisor district has a most splendid opportunity to elect a representative man in person of George W. Dewey the republican nominee.

There is no other man in that district better qualified to fill the position than George Dewey.

His service for years as County Clerk makes him perfectly familiar with the work of that office and it is an exceptional fine opportunity for the district to take first place on the county board by electing Mr. Dewey for Supervisor.

It Makes A Difference Whose Ox Is Gored.

In the days when the court house was full to overflowing with pops, every fall the entire bunch was out making Rome howl in every school house in the county, and our friend Beal of the Beacon was among the head pushers getting then out.

Referring to the Beacon files of those balmy pop days you will find among the names of the speakers advertised, Hyatt, Painter, Stockham, Jones, Armstrong, Osborne and Lomax etc. But now the Beacon with same editor, Beal tries to censure W. B. Poor the republican candidate for county treasurer for quietly looking after his political chances the past week. Consisting thou art a jewel.

Big Prizes For Nebraska

Some big prizes are offered for Nebraska grains and grasses this fall and the premium list of the National Corn Exposition, which is just out, shows Nebraska has an opportunity to win more than $15,000 in competition against the world while in the state 75 prizes are offered for corn; 35 for wheat; 30 for oats and 10 for barley besides a large number for grains and grasses.

Two hundred and twenty five dollars for twenty ears of corn or $150 for ten ears are good prizes, even for Nebraska corn. These two prizes constitute the sweepstakes and a special prize for Nebraska corn. The prizes for yellow, white and calico corn run from $1 to $75. For the best peck of wheat the Exposition offers $120 and the thirty prizes run from $1 to $120. The 30 prizes for oats from $1 to $40 and the ten for barley from $1 to $30.

All of these prizes are offered to Nebraskans only and no others may enter in competition for them. Last year Nebraska produced the best sample of wheat in the world for bread making and was close to Indian for the best corn. Nebraska produced 205,707,000 bushels of corn last year and Indiana only 173,835,000 bushels. While getting the quantity, Nebraska should get a little better quality and win $1,000 trophy offered for the best ten ears as well as the $1,000 trophy for the best single ear of corn in the world. Exhibits must be in Omaha November 27, the exposition openig December 6 and lasting two weeks.

Democratic Candidate For County Judge.

C. H. Holcomb the democrat candidate for county Judge was out several days recently looking after his political fences with hopes that in the shuffle he might chance to be the lucky man. Charley has always been a loyal democrat and if there is a man in the party in Custer county that is deserving of his party vote from the stand point of party loyalty it is Charley Holcomb. He ever scratched his ticket for a republican it was rare and unfortunately for Charley is strong with the money crowd and the chances are that when the vote is canvassed he will find there were not enough of them.

Election Is Here

The republicans of Custer county are easily in the majority and can elect every man on their ticket if they will stand by their nominees. There is no excuse this fall to vote for a candidate on the opposition ticket in order to vote for the best man.

The republican candidates are all men of clean records. They are men of ability and well qualified to fill the various places for which they were nominated. Vote the ticket straight from the Supreme Judge down to the road overseers. The democrats will all stay by their candidates without any exception and why should not the republicans.
