

The Custer County Republican

D. M. AMSBERRY, Editor

BROKEN BOW, NEBRASKA

PUT INTO A PARAGRAPH

Washington, Congressional, Political and Other Events Briefly Told

Foreign.

The government of San Domingo is not paying serious attention to the border uprising of the Haitian frontier, but is leaving the situation there to be handled by the local police, according to a dispatch received from Dominican foreign office by Senator Raillo, the charge d'affaires at Washington.

A bomb exploded in a suburb of St. Petersburg, killing one of the two men who had it in their possession and wounding the other. Before his arrest the wounded man attempted to conceal a second bomb and a revolver. The men were dressed as laborers, but it is believed they were disguised revolutionists.

Ralph Wilner of New York, an engineer, was expelled from his hotel by the police today upon the expiration of his permit of sojourn in the country. Wilner, who is traveling in Russia as a representative of an American firm, got into trouble through his misapprehension of the intent of his passport.

The recall from Persia of General Snarski, the Russian commander, and the bulk of his forces, as reported a few days ago from Tabriz, was announced on the 12th.

Lady Constance Lytton and Mrs. H. N. Brailsford, who were arrested at Newcastle following a suffragettes' demonstration against David Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, were sentenced each to a month's imprisonment.

A revolution has broken out in Santo Domingo. The insurgents, headed by General Andre Navarro, attacked Dajabon, a town near the Haitian frontier, but were repulsed by the government troops.

Edgar W. Mix, victor in the international race for the Gordon Bennett balloon cup, was accorded a warm reception on his arrival in Paris.

General.

The National Paint, Oil and Varnish association went on record favoring a parcels post. The report was adopted unanimously.

David H. Jones, identified with lumber interests in Chicago, New York, St. Louis and California for many years, died suddenly in Chicago.

The national capital is planning a great pageant of international scope for the next fourth of July. At a meeting of officials and business men of the District of Columbia, held in the office of Commissioner McFarland, it was decided to invite, through their diplomatic representatives each of the twenty-one Central and South American republics to join in a great international parade, in which the marines of the various governments will participate.

A recommendation that the navy yards be divided into four departments, each in charge of a general manager, is said to be the most important result of the investigation by a special board of naval officers, headed by Rear Admiral Swift, whose report reached Washington.

Plans for the fortification of the Panama canal are going forward. Pension Commissioner Warner says the list of civil war veterans is rapidly growing smaller.

Frank E. Hanscome, cashier of the failed bank at Mineral Point, Wis., committed suicide.

The Japanese-American bank of San Francisco was closed.

Governor Hughes will take no part in the New York municipal campaign. United States Treasurer Treat is an advocate of a central bank.

In an address before 500 doctors, members of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association, Dr. W. C. Stiles, of the federal marine hospital service, at Washington, says that 2,000,000 persons in southern states are afflicted with "hookworm," the lazy man's disease.

Dr. Ira Remsen, president of Johns Hopkins university national academy of sciences, will appoint a committee to examine the Arctic records of Commander Peary and Dr. Cook if the council of the scientific body decides it will be proper for him to accept the invitation to do so.

Federal Judge Anderson ruled for the Indianapolis editors in the Panama libel case.

Whether he intends to be a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the Third Nebraska district next year is a subject on which ex-Congressman Boyd is non-committal at this time.

The Harvard university corporation has received from Mrs. Edith F. Perkins of Burlington, Ia., widow of Charles Elliott Perkins, for many years president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, a gift of $20,000, to be held in trust for the establishment of scholarships at the institution in memory of her husband.

Candidate Bannard believes he has a chance to win the New York mayoralty.

At midnight June 16 the 15,000 electric light of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition were put out, closing the World's fair of 1909.

Copies of circulars issued in north China by a body of Chinese, calling themselves the popular association of the three eastern provinces, have been received in Japan, after having been spread broadcast among Chinese of the lower classes.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Lawshe announced to the heads of the bureaus in his division that he intended to resign from the postoffice department.

Seventy thousand acres of land under the Carey act were opened for entry in Montana. Number one was drawn by R. A. Carpenter of Oak Park, Ill.

Governor Hughes was the central figure in the Hudson, N. Y., celebration.

Wilbur Wright received $12,500 from the Hudson-Fulton commission for the spectacular flights he made over New York bay and up the Hudson during the celebration. Wright put in his bill for that amount and it was paid by the commission.

Solution of the "shortage of beef" problem is to have a large place in the scheme of education promulgated by the domestic science department of the National Corn exposition in Omaha in December. How to treat cattle and how to treat meat so as to improve and perpetuate the breed and increase the production and domestic utility of the beef are the principles to be fostered.

An amended petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the board of review to tax stock owned by Chicago millionaires whose total holdings are valued by the petitioner at $236,650,000, was filed in the circuit court by an attorney for the Illinois Tax Reform league.

Congressman J. A. T. Hull, who was the guest of honor at a banquet given by 200 business men of Des Moines defended the rules of the house of representatives as necessary for the transaction of business.

Senator Pat McCarran, leader of the New York democracy, is very low and not expected to live.

Henry R. Frankland, whose home is in Chicago, was found dying under the Tenth street viaduct in Omaha, his throat cut and his pockets turned inside out. His companion, a negro, is under arrest.

The town of Denmark, Tenn., has been wrecked, two persons were killed, several are known to have been injured and others are missing as a result of the storm.

Earl Bullock, formerly of South Omaha and now of Omaha, rises to remark that he is not the real Earl Bullock whom the Kansas police and posses are hunting for the robbery of a bank.

The constitutionality of the Illinois 2-cent rate law is attacked in an action brought in the federal circuit court by the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railroad company.

Washington.

Death's invasion of the fast thinking ranks of war veterans caused 48,312 names to be dropped from the pension rolls of the United States last year. Of this number 22,831 were survivors of the civil war. The total loss to the pension roll from all causes was 51,581.

A new minister to China will hardly be appointed until the president returns to Washington.

It is no secret that the Washington government will welcome the overthrow of President Zelaya.

A recommendation that the navy yards be divided into four departments, each in charge of a general manager, is said to be the most important result of the investigation by a special board of naval officers, headed by Rear Admiral Swift, whose report reached Washington. It is understood that there is a supplementary report signed by a minority of the board.

Organized labor, representing many parts of this country, Canada and Cuba, paid a notable tribute to the homecoming from Europe of Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, who arrived from New York. The celebration in honor of his return, after an absence of several months, was probably the most enthusiastic demonstration ever accorded an American labor leader.

There was a monster parade, followed by a big mass meeting at convention hall.

The discovery of alleged forgeries and defalcations aggregating, according to unofficial advices, approximately $210,000, resulted in closing the doors of the First National bank of Mineral Point, Wis., and the appointment of John W. Schofield, of the office of the comptroller of the currency, as receiver.

Personal.

The man who accompanied Dr. Cook on his Mt. McKinley climb declares they did not reach the summit.

John Pearsons, brother-in-law of Senator J. P. Dolliver, has won his case in the United States circuit court of appeals, the suit brought by Ware Leland to recover upon book account and notes.

The illness of Justice Moody is considered serious to the cause of the government lawsuits.

Mrs. Taft is arranging matters at Beverly preparatory to returning to Washington soon.

Harvard university formally opened by installation of President Lowell.

Chinese Minister Wu attended a spiritualistic seance at Washington, and was impressed.

Peary's article is regarded by many as not convincing and composed of evidence which is very weak.

Mrs. Sarah T. McAllister, widow of Ward McAllister, famous in his day as a leader of New York society, died at her home in New York.

It is rumored that Pension Commissioner Warner is about to resign.

Street car strikers in Omaha have determined to go on with the fight

AS TO THE COURTS

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES THE LATE FEDERAL DECISION.

MORE CARE MAKING SELECTION

State Railway Commission Will Not Heed Omaha at Present.—Other Matters at Lincoln.

Gov. Sheldon has filed a statement in reference to the decision of the federal court declaring invalid the Nebraska bank guaranty law on unconstitutional grounds. In the statement the governor calls attention of the public to the need for more care in the selection of dignitaries of the inferior courts, and points out that congress must amend the laws so that laws, resulting from legislation of a state, shall not be carried at once from the control of the state courts and lodged in the federal courts. He says that in such a case as the one under discussion the state supreme court should have had final jurisdiction, with an appeal only directly to the United States supreme court. Governor Shallenberger says that the highest court of the land has the confidence of the people, while very often the inferior courts are presided over by men who have been rewarded for political activity. He charges that in the present instance the inferior court has usurped the prerogative of the supreme court and has passed on a case similar to the one now before the supreme court, which had the lower court waited, would have settled once for all the points in dispute.

State Balks on Valuation.

The State Railway commission will not at this time give heed to the city council of Omaha and place a value upon the physical property of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company. The commission has written a letter to Dan Butler, city clerk, in which it says the legislature appropriated $40,000 for the use of the commission in finding the physical valuation of public utility corporations, and the law specifically provides that the steam railroads shall be valued first. The commission, however, states that complaint has been filed asking for a reduction in fares on the street railway line and that its value will be a proper subject of inquiry, and if the city desires to put engineers to work on the case the commission will give serious consideration to their testimony. This is what the city authorities of Lincoln did in a similar case some time ago.

As to Chaplain Huff.

Governor Shallenberger received a letter from Frederick M. Smith of Independence, Mo., first counselor of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Mr. Smith is a son of President Joseph Smith, who is a son of the Joseph Smith who founded the church. Counselor Smith begs the governor not to be swayed by religious prejudice in case Chaplain Huff of the state penitentiary has been found to be an able Christian man. He says that no effort has been spared to make clear the difference between the reorganized church, which insists upon monogamy, and the Mormon church, which sanctions polygamy. The governor is asked, if he is not satisfied as to the character of the men in the reorganized church, to inquire of Senator Burrows of Michigan or of Senators Dolliver and Cummins of Iowa.

Eight O'clock Closing Law.

The fate of the 8 o'clock closing law now rests with the supreme court. The appeal of Frank Dinuzzo of Omaha, convicted in the lower court of Douglas county of selling liquor after 8 o'clock at night and which resulted in the revocation of his license under the daylight saloon bill was argued to the court. It was argued that the law is unconstitutional.

Showing of Income Wanted.

County Attorney Tyrrel has filed a motion with the railroad commissioners asking the traction company to produce a detailed statement of its gross receipts since the merger and for a year before. He also asks the company to place a valuation upon its heating plant and show its income.

Move in Bond Case.

Attorney General Thompson filed an affidavit in the federal court, signed by John M. Gilchrist, resisting the application of the American Surety company of New York for a temporary injunction to prevent the newly-created State Bonding board from regulating the rates charged by surety companies in Nebraska.

Spinal Disease in Lincoln.

Lincoln has several cases of cerebro spinal meningitis, the disease which caused so much trouble in York and Polk counties and over which the physicians disagreed. Some contended that the disease was poliomyelitis, which, though a longer name, is said not to be as serious as the first named disease.

Row Over Law Enforcement.

The city of Lincoln is certainly up against it over the row between the legal department of the county and the city. As the county attorney could not get the support of the city authorities in his efforts to clean out the proscribed district he has called upon the city attorney to do some work in police court. The city attorney comes back with the statement that it is the duty of the county attorney to do his duty in the police court and the city attorney is not required to be present at the court.

WANT CENSUS TAKERS.

Appointments to Come From Those Taking Examination.

Announcement has been sent to the registrar's office of the university of the examinations for appointment as special census agent which are to be selected from those who take an examination based on, first, their ability to make sample schedules from the balance sheet of a company; second, on their ability to make out a schedule from a simple narrative of facts as to a manufacturing concern, and, third, upon business experience as shown by their applications. Applications are to be made before October 25. A special agent of the first class will receive from $4.50 to $6.00 per diem and those of the second class from $3.00 to $4.00 per diem. Examinations in Nebraska will be held in Lincoln, Omaha, Grand Island, Norfolk and North Platte. The university student who has specialized in commercial work is particularly eligible for this sort of a job and it will make a pleasant vacation job.

State Historical Society.

Eighteen of the twenty-four old settlers' societies and local historical societies known to exist in the state have become auxiliary to the State Historical society since the movement to unite such organizations was started about a year ago. These local societies are constantly getting hold of good material and in this way are an aid to the state society, besides giving it representatives in the different parts of the state. Fifty-five new members of the State Historical society have been added to the list of membership during the past three months, making the membership now 890. Also an addition of 160 new titles has been made to the library in the same time. The officers of the society report a noticeable increase in the use of the library, especially by members of the different women's clubs who are engaged in historical study. The society has just had fifty-eight volumes of Nebraska daily newspapers bound and Mr. Hannan of the newspaper department has started cataloging the different volumes, of which there are 3,400 now bound. Besides these there are 253 volumes of foreign newspapers. These will all be cataloged according to the Dewey system, which is used in the library. During the last three months thirty-six different newspapers have been added to the collection, making 494 now being received.

The State Teachers' Meeting.

At the state teachers' meeting to be held in Lincoln November 3-6 the plan for the annual banquet has been changed. Last year an immense union affair was pulled off at the Auditorium, but it was found that this structure or any other that could be obtained in the city was not commodious enough to accommodate all the applicants for plates. So this year there will be banquets in four divisions. One of these, the normal training, high schools and the junior normal schools, has already sent out its program and called on all members of the association affiliated with this branch of public education to enroll at once if they wish to attend the yearly spread. It will be held at the First Christian church, corner of Fourteenth and M streets, and will be served by the ladies of the church at so much per plate.

The Squirrel Harvest.

Squirrel hunters are reaping a rich harvest around Lincoln. The rodents are not hard to shoot, which led to a law a few years ago to protect them. Now that they have multiplied extensively in the timbered stretches of the state under this very law, and a recent law passed gives them over to the nairrod for two months each fall, the results have been apparent. Hunters going out to the woods near this city have returned usually with as many as they cared to carry. Farther east in the state it is said the supply is much greater.

Lincoln Man to Bring Suit.

Herman Becket of Lincoln, who was injured in an automobile accident in Pottawatomie county, Iowa, several weeks ago, because of a defective bridge, admitted that he will soon bring suit against that county. He declined to say how much he would sue for, but did say that the papers will be filed within a day or two. He was so severely hurt in the accident, in which one woman was killed, that it was necessary for him to spend some time under a physician's care.

Working on City Charter.

The city of Lincoln is preparing to go before the next legislature for a new charter which will provide for the commission plan of government. Committees have been appointed from the Commercial club and city officials to draft the bill and before the legislature convenes it is hoped to have the measure in such shape that at least a portion of the citizens can agree upon it.

Corn huskers are hard to get, although five cents per bushels is being paid.

To Begin October 25.

Notice has been sent out from the office of the clerks of the federal circuit and district courts to the lawyers who will have cases in the coming term, calling their attention to the fact, that the October term will begin on October 25.

The Lincoln Labor Temple association bought the brick building at 217-219 North Eleventh street for $18,000. Work will be started immediately to prepare the building for a labor temple.

COOK TO GIVE PROOF

DR. COOK NOT TO LONG KEEP THE COUNTRY WAITING.

TWO MONTHS WILL BE LIMIT

University of Copenhagen Declines to Waive Its Claim, and Will Have First Look—Peary Submits Data.

Toledo, O.—Dr. Frederik A. Cook said Wednesday that he will be ready to submit proofs of the discovery of the north pole to the University of Copenhagen within two months or possibly within a month. He will begin work upon his documents on his return to New York immediately after the close of his lecture tour at Minneapolis next Monday.

"These documents will consist of astronomical and geographical data, my observations and records," he said. "It was the original plan to submit these proofs first to the University of Copenhagen and there has never been any reason for changing it. There is no reason why the National Geographic society should be given precedence over any other society in America, and the records will be open to the inspection of all such societies after the University of Copenhagen has completed its investigation."

Following the preparations of his documents, Dr. Cook said he will consider his plan of ascending Mount McKinley.

Copenhagen.—The University of Copenhagen has declined to forego its privilege to the first examinations of the north polar records of Dr. Cook. The authorities of the university called to the National Geographic society at Washington as follows: "Sorry, University not able to comply with your request."

Dr. Cook had promised to first submit his records to the faculty of the University of Copenhagen, but on October 15 the university was requested to waive its claim of priority in favor of the National Geographic society, which sought an early determination of the controversy which has arisen.

Rector Torp, of the University of Copenhagen, cabled to Dr. Cook the following message: "When will you be able to send the original observations and instruments?" TORP.

Lawrence, Kan.—Dr. Frank Strong, chancellor of the University of Kansas, today sent a telegram to Dr. Frederik A. Cook tendering, in the name of the university, the services of Prof. L. L. Dyche with the expedition to scale Mount McKinley to recover the records the explorer declares he left there in 1906. Professor Dyche has been with both Dr. Cook and Commander Peary on polar expeditions.

Prof. L. L. Dyche, of the University of Kansas, when notified that Dr. Cook had accepted his offer to climb Mt. McKinley, said he was willing to make the ascent.

"Of course," he said, "it would be impossible to make the climb before spring. Then it would be necessary to establish food caches along the route so as to provide food for the return trip. Much of the difficulty in getting near the summit would lie in the doubling of the trail in order to carry all the food required unless the outfit could be equipped with many pack animals. It probably is not so dangerous as it is arduous in making the ascent."

Professor Dyche said he had absolute confidence in Dr. Cook's statement that he reached the summit of the mountain.

Benjamin F. Barnes Dead.

Washington.—Benjamin F. Barnes, postmaster of this city and who served as executive clerk under President McKinley and later as assistant secretary to President Roosevelt, dropped dead here Wednesday of heart failure. Mr. Barnes had been in particularly good humor over the fact that he had today been admitted to practice before the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

On at least two occasions Mr. Barnes came prominently into the limelight. One was at the time he was alleged to have played a part in electing Mrs. Alving Morris, a sister of Representative Hull of Iowa, from the White House. The incident created a sensation at the time. President Roosevelt stood resolutely by Mr. Barnes and further emphasized his friendship by appointing him about three and a half years ago as postmaster.

Driven to Bay by Posse.

Muskogee, Okl.—Driven to bay by a posse of deputy sheriffs, Joe Drew, a negro who shot and killed his mother, Eliza Drew, and his cousin, Jennie McIntosh, Wednesday committed suicide by shooting himself while near Porter, Okl., Wednesday. Drew eluded the officers for several hours after the shooting. He built up a barricade of logs and fought the posse from behind them until his ammunition was almost exhausted. Then he mounted his log fortress and shot himself through the head.

Howl Down the Socialist.

New York.—The financial district saw a lively riot Wednesday afternoon when several hundred office boys and messengers employed in brokers' offices tried to howl down Edward F. Cassidy, the socialist candidate for mayor, and several others who tried to speak on Wall street near the office of J. P. Morgan. It required the services of thirteen policemen to keep the crowd in check. Mr. Morgan, who had been out at luncheon, arrived at his office in time to catch one of the most heated periods denouncing capital.

JERSEY LILY.

Mr. Brown (to new cook)—What is your name?
Cook—Mary, sir.
Mr. Brown—Dear me, that is my wife's name. We shall have to call you something else.
Cook—Never mind, call me Lily!

BABY'S WATERY ECZEMA.

Itched and Scratched Until Blood Ran—$50 Spent on Useless Treatments—Disease Seemed Incurable.

Cured by Cuticura for $1.50.

"When my little boy was two and a half months old he broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and we had to keep his little hands wrapped up all the time, and if he would happen to get them uncovered he would claw his face till the blood streamed down on his clothing. We called in a physician at once, but he gave an ointment which was so severe that my babe would scream when it was put on. We changed doctors and medicine until we had spent fifty dollars or more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. But finally reading of the good results of the Cuticura Remedies, I determined to try them. I can truthfully say I was more than surprised, for I bought only a dollar and a half's worth of the Cuticura Remedies (Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills), and they did more good than all my doctors' medicines I had tried, and in fact entirely cured him. His face is perfectly clear of the least spot or scar of anything. Mrs. W. M. Comer, Burnt Cains, Pa., Sept. 15, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Expensive Silence.

Little four-year-old Alice was lying on the floor whining and crying steadily one afternoon, until her father's patience exhausted, he called out to her: "Oh, stop, Alice, and I'll give you a penny."

Alice stopped only long enough to answer: "I can't stop for less than a nickel! Boohoo! Boohoo!"

Why Not?

Aunt Spinsterly—I hope that your opinions uphold the dignity of your sex, Mamie, and that you believe that every woman should have a vote.

Mamie—I don't go quite so far as that, aunt; but I believe that every woman should have a voter.—Sketch.

The angels are always waiting to open the windows of heaven over the head of the man who will bring the last tithe into the storehouse.

In after years a man wishes he was half as smart as he used to think he was.

PERY DAVIS' PAINKILLER costs only 25c per 6c bottle, but it cures many diseases, such as colds, rheumatism, neuralgia, and kindred ills. At all druggists.

The wickedness of other men we have always in our eye, but we cast our own over our shoulder.—Seneca.

Dr. Pierce's pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take.

To the good the world is very good; to the bad it is bad.—Smiles.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 89, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.