

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce to the people of Broken Bow and vicinity that I have purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by J. W. Scott, and in invoicing, I find it is much larger than anticipated, in fact I have more goods on hand than room to handle them properly, and in order to reduce the stock I am making very attractive prices in groceries, flour and feed. I have also an immense amount of Queensware, Glassware, Lamps, Lanterns, Agate, Tinware, Wash tubs, Boilers and Cooking Utensile of all kinds which I am pricing to sell. Have a complete line of Hardware and Builder's Supplies. I can save you money. Come in and investigate.

LUNCHEON

Miss Abbie Langson-Wilson entertained last Saturday at a one o'clock five course luncheon, in honor of her sister, Miss Francis. Covers were laid for fourteen. The shades in the dining room were lowered and the room artificially lighted. The decoration was a beautiful festooning on an embroidered center piece; radiating from the centre of the table were fern leaves; at the end of each leaf were pink and white rosebuds; from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, were suspended strips of pink and white tissue paper. Beneath the chandelier hung a large pink and white heart with a picture of Miss Langson on one side and of Mr. Clyde Wilson on the other side. At each place were pink and white carnations. The place cards were pen and ink sketches of the bride. As soon as the guests were seated at the table, Miss Abbie raising a glass of grape juice, gave this toast "To the health and happiness of the bride and groom to be—Miss Francis Langson and Mr. Clyde Wilson." Several pictures were taken of the scene in the dining room. During the afternoon there was a variety of instrumental and vocal music.
