ARE WE PROUD?

WELL RATHER! Why shouldn't we be justly proud of such a remarkable line of pianos as these we enumerate below? That no stronger stock is shown by any CITY HOUSE is self evident to those who are familiar with the Piano business generally.

Are You Afraid or Backward.

To quote figures, terms or prices, that may be compared with those of any other piano house? LOOK FOR YOURSELVES! The comparing, discriminating customer is the one we want to see! That is the way WE buy instruments for Stock. Why not you? We are sticklers for three things—

FIRST—TONE! SECOND—DURABILITY! THIRD—BEAUTY!

If you want these in your home piano, come in, or write at once for our special profit-sharing-co-operative piano plan.

The following discounts are for advertising purposes, and are for DECEMBER ONLY. We have no CLEARANCE SALES. Our trouble is in getting pianos in from the factory fast enough, not in getting them out.

The figures below are not "DOCTORED". They state FACTS! Read on.

M. L. Whitaker and wife after a visit with the family of Mrs. Whitaker's brother, D. M. Amsberry, left for their home in Sioux county this morning.

The roads remain almost impassible and in consequence farmers are not coming to town in great numbers this week.

This winter beats the experience, also the stories, of the oldest inhabitants.

SLATER—PETERSON.

A very beautiful but quiet wedding occurred Wednesday, at high noon, at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rublee when their niece, Miss Hazel M. Slater, became the bride of James P. Peterson.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Xanders of St. John's Episcopal church.

Before the nuptial vows were spoken Miss Bowen sang "My Heart's Desire" and "Why I Love You."

While Miss Bowen played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bridal party entered the parlor. The bridegroom was accompanied by Oscar L. Swanson, Miss Hazel Molyneux was maid of honor. The bride entered with her uncle, F. M. Rublee, who gave her in marriage.

The bride was attired in a gown of white embroidered net, in princess design, over white silk, and carried bride's roses.

The maid of honor wore a gown of silk mull with pale blue trimmings and carried pink carnations. Miss Bowen wore a princess gown of pink messaline satin.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Covers were laid for twelve. The decorations in the dining room were holly; branches of it hung from the chandelier with a chime of golden wedding bells.

In the centre of the table on a round mirror stood a miniature bride and groom and priest, beneath an arch of holly and surrounded by a large wreath of myrtle leaves.

The bride is an accomplished musician. The groom is a salesman in the clothing department of the H. B. Drake store.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson received many handsome and useful presents.

CLASS PARTY.

Miss Della House and Miss Willa Bean; Harry Tierney and Bud Mullins, members of the Senior Class of the High School, entertained at the home of Miss House last Friday evening.

There was a large attendance of members of the Class and a few Juniors.

The evening was spent in a novel guessing contest. A few bars of familiar tunes were played on the piano and contestants were expected to name them. Miss Leah Squires received first prize and Miss Millie Smalley the second prize.

The young people certainly had a gay and lively time.

Refreshments were served by the young ladies, assisted by Mrs. House.

DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor entertained at a family dinner last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Willis N. Taylor. Covers were laid for fifteen.

BZHU CLUB.

Judge and Mrs. C. L. Gutterer entertained the Card Club Wednesday evening. Whist was played at six tables. The guests were Mrs. Xanders and Mr. Slater, of Spokane, Wash.

Supervisor Foley, of Merna, attended a meeting of the Knights of Columbus at Grand Island last Sunday, arriving at Broken Bow Monday whole and in his right mind. Those Knights are jolly good fellows. Mr. Foley remained here to attend a meeting of the county board.

A number of cattle feeders over the state are shipping their cattle for lack of feed. The farmers are unable to get into the fields to husk the corn.

O. W. Barnard returned to Calloway last night by the way of Grand Island and Kearney.

It takes a fellow with mighty good digestion to be satisfied with this weather.

John and Grover Cooper, of Calloway, were in Broken Bow Wednesday.

Ed Long and wife, of Mason City, were Broken Bow visitors Tuesday.

For a change it snowed some today.

Died.

Pressman J. Richardson, at his home in the northeast part of the city, Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, after several weeks of sickness.

The deceased was born in Virginia, June 1854, being in his 56th year. He was married in 1886, after locating in this county, Judge Benjamin officiating at the ceremony. Eight children were born to them, seven of whom are living. Besides his wife and seven children the deceased leaves his mother who is 89 years old, and brother Charles U. Richardson, of Arnold, to mourn his death.

His funeral was conducted Tuesday, December 14, 1909, at 10 a. m. from the Temple Theatre under the auspices of the Masonic order. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Xanders, rector of the Episcopal church, of this city.

The deceased was a quiet unassuming man highly respected by his fellow citizens and neighbors for his honesty and strict integrity. Having acquired a competence on his farm north of the city, a few years ago he moved to the city to give his children the advantage of the superior school privileges afforded in Broken Bow, where he has since built up a fine home. The Republican joins with the friends of the bereaved family and relative in extending sympathy to them in their great bereavement.

Christmas vacation in the city schools will begin Friday, December 24th, and continue until Monday, January 3d.

NOTICE FOR TREASURERS DEED.

Amanda E. Greene, James K. Greene her husband, D. W. Wilson, mortgagee, their grantors heirs, devisees and assigns, and all persons interested, TAKE NOTICE: That on the 25th day of March, 1908, Custer County, in the State of Nebraska, purchased the taxes for the years 1891 to 1906 inclusive, for the sum of $27.90 against and upon the tract of land 59 x 140 ft. in the N. W. corner of Block Eleven in Revere's addition to Broken Bow, in Custer County, Nebraska, more specifically described as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner said block, running thence east on north line said Block 140 feet, thence south 59 feet, thence west about 149 feet to the west line of said block thence north on said west line, about 50 feet to the place of beginning. That thereafter on or about the 25th day of March, 1909, said Custer County duly sold said taxes so purchased, and duly assigned the Tax Sale Certificate therefor with all the rights thereunder to, Ner Hartley, who is now the owner and holder of the same, and who on the 26th day of October, 1908, paid the subsequent taxes for the year 1907 thereon in the sum of $0.70, and on May 1st, 1909, paid the subsequent taxes thereon for the year 1908 in the sum of $0.74. That all said taxes were so legally assessed and levied against said property in the name of Amanda E. Greene. That on the 31st day of March, 1910, I will apply to the County Treasurer of Custer County, Nebraska for a deed for said real estate, and that said property must be redeemed from all said taxes, costs and interest, by that time, or deed will issue therefor, discharged of all liens, including said mortgage. Dated December 16th, 1909.

NER HARTLEY.
