A popular social affair among the newspaper boys is a "subscription shower." It is a good deal like the linen and china showers given in honor of prospective brides. A number of subscribers whose subscriptions are due get together and induce all their neighbors who are not subscribers to join them. They go in a body to the newspaper office, where each one planks down a dollar and takes credit for a year's subscription. If the editor's face is wreathed in smiles the affair is a success. If he looks glum and grouchy, the affair is a failure and not worth trying again. Try it once and see if it isn't a sucess.
