LISTEN MR. RENTER

Harvest is about over. You have paid a large share of your entire crop to your landlord.

Has it paid? Are you satisfied with the remainder?

Do you realize that dollars paid for rent are dollars that do not come back?

They're gone, and unless you strike out for yourself and your boys, more are going next year.

Here is a money-saving proposition:

Go with me into the Big Horn Basin.

Buy a small irrigated farm on easy payments; payments as easy as paying rent in your present locality, and in ten years you'll have a farm of your own in a growing country where crop-failures are unknown, and good prices prevail.

Write for details today. I am employed by the Burlington and my service will cost you nothing.
