

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Gleaned for Your Perusal by Our Rustling Reporters

Old papers for sale at this office.

Drs. Farnsworth & Beck — Dentists.
See the new Cross Dye Novelty Cloth—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Dr. Bass, dentist, old location, over Souder's drug store.

Mrs. D. A. VanSant of Ansley was visiting in the city Tuesday.

Ernest Wood, of Climax, was among the city visitors yesterday.

Silas Thompson of the South Loup was visiting in the city the first of the week.

W. L. Clark the real estate man of Halsey was a Broken Bow visitor Tuesday.

Walter Harris the poultry man has put scales in front of his ware house on Cedar Street.

Prof. J. G. W. Lewis came up from Revenna where he is teaching Tuesday returning on 42.

W. H. O'Rourke is having scales placed in front of his feed store on the north side of Cedar Street.

Ask the owner of a Nemo Corset as to its merit. Greatest Reducing corset in America—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Eli E. Gift of Dunning was in the city Tuesday arranging for making final proof on his Kin-kaid homestead.

Howard Miltonberger and Pat Leonard were Sunday afternoon visitors from Anselmo coming from there in Pat's auto.

Stewart and Blaine Lanterman left Saturday evening for Colorado where they recently located on government land.

We can furnish you rugs in almost any size and quality on short notice and at right prices—Konkel The Furniture Man.

Rev. S. A. Kopp, of Lillian, who has been sick for the past month took the train for Omaha Sunday Morning to undergo a surgical operation.

480 acre farm for rent. 220 acres in cultivation. 200 acres in pasture, small piece of alfalfa, hay canyons and good buildings. 39-tf WILLIS CADWELL.

Bessie Johnson came down from Anselmo where she has been spending her months vacation working in her uncle's store. She returns to her duties as school teacher.

Frank Nelson, of Allerton, spent several days in the city last week visiting his son Ott Nelson. He was on his way to Custer, Montana, to visit his sons of that place.

The Amoma Sunday School class of the Baptist church will hold its semi-monthly meeting next Saturday night at the home of Miss Eva Cadwell. An interesting program is being prepared.

Louis F. Gremm went to Wyoming last Saturday night accompanying an immigrant car belonging to his brother-in-law, who lived at Callaway. He goes to look over the country with the view of investing.

Cam Wahl received the news last week of the serious sickness of his mother in Colorado. A telegram telling him to come at once was received later and he left at once but before he could get there she was dead. More particulars in another column.

J. S. Austin, of Round Valley, has arranged to build on his property in the northeast part of the city. He has rented a house which he will occupy until he builds. Mr. and Mrs. Austin are good citizens and the REPUBLICAN is pleased to welcome them to Broken Bow.

Old papers for sale at this office.

H. A. Watts made a business trip to Mason City Saturday.

Latest novelties in dress goods and trimmings—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Let Konkel, The Furniture Man figure with you for your spring needs in his line. 38-9

Henry Dorris, of Wagner, was in the city Monday visiting relatives.

Prof. Mottinger and wife was a Broken Bow visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. H. A. Kepler, of Anselmo, was in Broken Bow, a few days last week.

Oscar Goar, of Callaway, came over Sunday and took the train for eastern points Monday morning.

James Osborne is building a carpenter shop for his own use just east of the Cushman livery barn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Purcell and daughter Marietta left for a short visit in Lincoln last Friday evening.

M. H. Whaley, of Hyannis, was down the latter part of last week. He returned home Monday morning.

Ewain Brat of Hecla, Nebraska was in the city Saturday looking after business before the U. S. land office.

F. P. Wooters, of Dry Valley, was in the city Monday and remembered the REPUBLICAN with a social call.

Mrs. Chas. Edwards took the train Monday morning for Bloomington. She goes to visit her parents who reside at that place.

Wm. D. Blankenship, of Hoosier, was in the city Monday making proof on his homestead.

Samuel Adkias and Dave Pirnie were his witnesses.

Harry Kimball is mounting a large eagle which was shot on the Jeffords ranch last week. The bird is six and a half feet from tip to tip of its wings.

DRESSMAKING

I have just opened a Dress-making Shop in the Realty Block—first door south of Dr. Farnsworth.

Patronage Solicited.

Mrs. W. T. Jones.

Fred Wilson of Anselmo was a Broken Bow visitor Wednesday.

The Juniors of the Presbyterian church held a social and luncheon last Friday evening at Mrs. Geo. Stevenson's.

Two Specials for Saturday March 5th 1910:

6 dozen ladies white handkerchiefs, 10 cent quality used in trimming 5 cents each.

20 dozen ladies white handkerchiefs 10 and 25c quality at 19 cents.

6 dozen ladies white handkerchiefs with slight imperfections at 3 for 19c

10 dozen child's colored handkerchiefs that sold for 2 for 15 and 10 cents to close at 5 cents or 6 for 25 cents.

A Big Special on Muslin.

1000 yards of Bleached Muslin on sale Saturday at 5 cents a yard. Only 10 yards to a customer. This is a 10 cent Muslin and will be sold for that if there is any left after Saturday.

Kiffin-Lucke Co.

C. C. Biggerstaff, who has been in California for the past month returned Tuesday evening. Mrs. Biggerstaff telegraphed him at Denver to be sure and get home in time to vote for the five mill levy.

Postoffice Store

Keeps a full line of Postal Cards, variety and quality to suit. Stationery, School Supplies, Picture and Postal Albums, Sheet Music, Toilet Powders, Soap and Notions. A good assortment of Candies, Cigars, Tobaccos and Pipes. Call and inspect for bargains. Prices right.

G. T. ROBINSON, Propr.

NEW YORK STORE

From now until March 12th, we will clean up all odds and ends accumulated. Must make room for Spring goods so will mention a few of our many bargains.

- Any princess dress in our store this sale at 8.89
- One large table of ladies panama and novelty dress skirts at 3.98
- One big lot of ladies gingham petticoats at .49
- A few more $2 flannel shirts to close at .75
- A few more $6 wool blanket at 3.55
- Our $3.50 comforts to close at 2.29
- Mens heavy fleeced underwear at .25
- One line of our $3.50 corduroy pants at 1.98
- Large assortment Ladies white waists at 69-89
- A few more boys weaters at .25
- Mens $1.25 sweater coats to close at .65
- One lot, mens black and fancy socks at .07
- Mens .20 black and fancy socks at .11
- Lot of ladies .20 hose to close at .11
- New lot of childrens ribbed hose to close at .09
- Mens $15 Cravennette go at 7.95
- Mens $16 suits to close at 8.48

Another large shipment of Lace Curtains, so will continue sale another week. See them.

Sale continues till March 12th. Something new every week. Watch the papers.

NEW YORK STORE
BROKEN BOW NEBRASKA

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A blacksmith shop with tools and a 4 room house in West Union. Call on or address D. E. Perkins, West Union, Nebraska. 36-9

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Bell School District.
VICINITY

Several of our little folks attended the party given Saturday evening in honor of Charles Kimes. They report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Plymale spent Friday and Saturday with his mother and father.

Willie Christen spent Saturday and Sunday with friends near Broken Bow.

Minnie Mannel was a recipient of a gentle surprise Thursday evening when twenty friends gathered in to help her enjoy ice cream and cake. Social games were indulged in till midnight when the guests departed wishing Minnie many happy returns of the day.

Several of our ladies attended the surprise given Mrs. Chandler Wednesday. This was one more of the course and all report as good a time as usual.

Mr. Novotny had his sale Monday of last week and he and boys left with their stock Thursday for their new home in South Dakota. Mrs. Novotny and children will remain here till the middle of the month.

This was a week for visiting. Most every evening the neighbors gathered with another and spent the evening in good social chats but no gossip.

Jennie Simms is on the sick list.

The young folks attended church in Anselmo Sunday.

Several of our young people attended the social at Ed Ross Saturday evening. We all know the good times they can have when they all get together. Lap supper was served at midnight after which the guests departed thanking Mrs. Ross for the good entertainment reaped from the surprise.

Pius Christen attended to business at Milburn Friday. Miss Cennie accompanied him and spent the day at Miss Lillian Andrew's school.

Shellers have been busy in this neighborhood this pleasant week.

Peice by peice the saw mill comes. We're anxious to see it work.

Mrs. Rudolph Jestrabacks brother arrived here Saturday evening from Germany.

Mike Loughran has purchased the Farley farm near Milburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Springstube visited at Forsyth.

Lou Leap from Milburn spent Sunday at Loughrans school.

Col. Jud Kay visited us Monday morning and gave us a good, cheerful talk. We are thankful to anyone for encouragement.

We are sorry to loose the Novotny children. We wish them well in their new home.

How proud we are to state that our fourth and fifth grades have finished their grades and have taken up work in their respective new grades.

Our school room was the scene of a well rendered program in honor of Washington's Birthday Tuesday evening. After two hours of recitation and singing we served free ice cream and cake to our sixty guests. Every one gave us praise worthy our thanks and we are glad to hear it was one of the best entertainments of the season. Miss Rains has our thanks for care in training.

We are having light instructions in instrumental music along with vocal.

We forgot to mention our nice Valentine box.

Lyla Vinnedge spent Thursday evening with Irene Christen and Anna Spannel with Anna Mannel.

We had ice cream three days this week. It isn't every patron who would be so liberal. Thanks to ours.

Friday will be our Memory Gem contest.

Prairie Center.
The wedding bells are not far away.

John Price and wife and four smallest children, Jesse Albright and family, Elvin Hogaboom and wife and Grace and Ruth Beal Sundayed at Rains'.

Edna Russom, Gus Schurr, wife and daughter, Charley Beal and children of the Bow and Walter Weisner Sundayed at Beal's.

Ruth Beal and Nannie Rains visited at Rhoades' Sunday evening.

Rosa Deal, Bert Oxford and Grover Hastings visited at Chas. Oxford's Sunday.

Rama, Alpha and Olive Albright visited the Rains children Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Hogaboom and Wesley of Broken Bow were out to the farm Saturday.

Elvin Hogaboom returned from Colorado Thursday. He expects to live there in the future.

Several attended Lester Kirkpatrick's sale Tuesday. All report a fine time along with the cold.

Mac Rains came home Friday to attend the shower and reception given in honor of Miss Cora Fessenden at Willis Taylors Saturday.

Ona Rhoades stayed with Mrs. Hogaboom during the absence of her husband.

Milldale Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell went to Arnold Friday.

Robt. Shaw shipped cattle Monday.

It is reported that Mrs. Wm. Woodward had a runaway Saturday night. How serious was the result has not been learned.

Arthur Butler is Milldale's champion wrestler.

W. F. Kern expects to move in a short time to his newly rented farm north of Arnold where there is more room for raising cattle in which business Mr. Kern expects to engage some what extensively. Mr. Fisher will occupy the place where Mr. Kern lives at present.

Mrs. Brown, and son Earl, went to Arnold Friday to attend birthday festivities at the Pfifer home.

James Wilcher and family spent Sunday with Mr. Seaney and family.

On Monday Kent Haskell with Frank Wilson took a bunch of cattle up to Mr. Haskell's Logan ranch.

Chas. Seaney is home again after an absence of several weeks.

The second number of the Milldale Lecture course was attended by a large number and all went away feeling that the "Cliff Dwellers" was well presented. We owe much to Mr. Stephens for giving his time and ability to assist us in our undertaking.

We handle strictly Pure Food articles—Notice the Following.

Heinz's Assorted Preserved Fruits

in nearly all flavors 20 and 40c per can.

Heinz's Currant Jelly 30c per glass.

Heinz's Sweet, Sour and Dill pickles 10, 10 and 20c per dozen.

Heinz's Chow Chow 25c per quart.

Heinz's stuffed Olives 30c per bottle.

Heinz's Tomato Chutney, a fine Chili Sauce 35c per bottle.

We Buy and Pay Spot Cash for Cream and Remember The SEALSHIPT Oysters

The Eagle Grocery Store.

The Square Deal Store Phone 58

HAVE A BANK ACCUONT?

If not, does it not cause you a certain feeling of envy toward your neighbor who always pays his bills by check? Don't you think it a good time—right now, to start an account with a bank whose

DEPOSITS ARE GUARANTEED?

Come in and let us talk it over and show you some of the advantages of doing business with us.

SECURITY STATE BANK

W. A. GEORGE, President
L. H. JEWETT, Cashier

JULES HAUMONT, Vice President
R. D. PICKETT, Asst. Cashier

Always Something Left

In your pocketbook when you buy your lumber and coal of us. We can save you money on your lumber bill. How do we know? Because we save money for our customers every day. We would like to save money for you.

We can make you money by buying coal of us as we have the stock to choose from. Let us fill your coal bin next time.

DIRKS LUMBER & COAL CO.

Phone 23. J. S. Molyneux, Manager.

NOTICE.

The Adjourned Annual Meeting of the Voters of Broken Bow Township will be held at Township Office in Broken Bow in Custer County, Nebraska, on Saturday at 2 p. m., the 12th day of March 1910, for the purpose of transacting any business that may legally come before it and for making levies for the ensuing year for Township purposes.

Dated this 1st day of March, 1910.

J. S. MCGRAW, Township Clerk.