

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Gleaned for Your Perusal by Our Rustling Reporters

Old papers for sale at this office.

Dr. Bass, dentist, old location, over Souder's drug store.

New picture frames and mouldings at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

Royal Underwear is dependable. We carry it for men, women and children.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

We carry the famous Kayser Silk gloves. None better. Colors to match your dress.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Rodger Lovelace and wife are the proud parents of a baby girl that arrived in their home Monday morning.

Some more new Rugs, Lace curtains, Portiers and couch covers. Best assortment in town.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

L. D. George went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to attend the interdenominational church convention held there the 15-16-17.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Mrs. Maud Holcomb and Mrs. Nichols were passengers to Omaha Tuesday evening, where they both go for operative work by a specialist of that place.

Will Frey shipped eighty-two head of hogs to the Omaha market.

265

The Ladies of the Christian Church will hold their annual Easter Market, Saturday, March 26th in the Flick building, east side of the square. Dinner and supper 35cents each. The usual fancy articles will be on sale. Every body invited. 41-2

Dr. Bartholomew was a passenger for Omaha Tuesday evening where he goes to attend the meeting of the Missouri Valley Medical Association which convenes there Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This is a society with members from Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, and Missouri.

To my friends and the Public:—Having sold my office building to Rasmus Anderson and bought J. M. Fodge's business and building, you will find me at that place doing business in the future. Would be glad to see all my old friends and many new ones. About one-half block north of postoffice 39-1f Chas. W. Bowman.

For Sale. One Bay stallion, coming 4, weight 900, 31-35 Percheron, and a sure toal getter.

One Black Stallion, coming 2, weight 1600, about 31-32 Percheron. Address, C. H. HARBAUGH, 37-1f Broken Bow, Nebr.

School Certificate. The last of a series of four Teacher's meetings for the teachers in the different quarters of Custer County, will be held at Callaway, Mar. 26th. The meetings held at Broken Bow, Mason City, and Comstock have been a pronounced success. The average attendance at each meeting being about fifty. Interest is being aroused by these meetings in The Coming Junior Normal, and in the County Eighth Grade Examination and County Eighth Grade Commencement. The first Eighth Grade Examination will be held on Thursday and Friday March 24th and 25th.

Arrangements have been made to hold them in a number of the rural districts as well as in all the graded schools of the county. All who successfully pass these examinations will be entitled to a Free high school certificate as well as a county diploma. It is hoped that every eighth grade pupil in the county may secure a diploma.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Dr. Farnsworth & Beck—Dentists.

See our 25 cent hat Window.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Best and largest assortment of rugs ever shown in Custer county at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

WANTED.—A young lady for bookkeeper and cashier, one that can run a typewriter. Inquire of Kiffin-Lucke Co

480 acre farm for rent 220 acres in cultivation, 200 acres in pasture, small piece of alfalfa, hay canyons and good buildings. 39-1f WILLIS CADWELL.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that Joseph G. Alexander who has been with me and treated as a member of my family for ten years, has left my premises 14 miles south west of Broken Bow, been away since January 6th and refuses to return. I shall not stand good for any debt he may contract.

J. M. WIMMER

Charles Penn Deputy Sheriff. When the county board cut the salary of deputy sheriff to $500 a year Hugh K... resigned as...

Chiropactic Lecture March 26

C. F. Wilson, Chiropactor, of... Ph. C. President of the... School of... Chiropactic... to deliver a Chiropactic, lecture at the opera house on Saturday evening, March 26

Dr. Palmer will set forth the principles and demonstrate the science of Chiropactic, the modern science of removing the cause of disease. He will also have something of vital importance and interest to say about the medical legal situation and their prosecution.

Dr. Palmer is recognized as the world's greatest Chiropactor and is a fascinating lecturer and crayon artist. You will miss a rare treat by not hearing him. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Admission will be 25c and 35c. Seats on sale at Holcomb's.

Notice. To my friends: Having sold my office property, and Real Estate business with list of same, together with my good wishes to Mr. C. W. Bowman, I take this method to thank you one and all, for your friendship and cordial support in the past. I most heartily recommend my successor Mr. Bowman to you as a gentleman and an honorable business man to whom you can safely entrust your business. I will be found at the old place for a short time, until I can close up my business. J. M. Fodge 39-1f

Surprised. A pleasant surprise was perpetrated Saturday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagoner at the home of his parents, Drs. L. E. and Geo. F. Wagoner on New York Ave. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell party, planned and carried out by a large number of their friends incident to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner to their new home in Broken Bow, Neb. where Mr. Wagoner has secured a position on the Custer County Republican. He and his wife, Mrs. Molby-Wagoner, will be greatly missed by their circle of friends, and especially by the Baptist church of which they are both prominent members.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion in the spacious Wagoner home was the spread served at a seasonable hour, while Rev. B. E. Jackson by a few timely remarks presented a slight token of remembrance in behalf of those present to the honored ones. In many ways Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner were assured the best wishes of all their friends for future success and happiness.—Advertiser (Creston, Iowa)

Union Meetings. A series of Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Broken Bow north side Opera house, beginning April 15th and continuing three weeks.

These meetings will be lead by Evangelists Bromley and Myers who are doing splendid work for the master this winter, in Iowa and South Dakota.

Six hundred reported as going forward in their meeting at Beresford S. D.

Let the Christian people be looking up and praying that God may come to Broken Bow in like gracious manner.

Ramos Spanish Orchestra entertainment will be given at the Opera house March 21 1910.

This is the fifth number of the Young Peoples Union entertainments and will be the best ever given in this city by a musical organization of this class. The gentleman who sings with the Orchestra has a voice of unusual strength and shows great cultivation and beautiful quality.

Seats on sale March 18, 19 and 20 at Holcombs Book store and Steckhams Furniture store.

Notice. Having bought back from Mr. C. W. Bowman, my City Property List, with the House renting, I desire to again ask the patronage of my old customers, and as many others, as may have City Property for sale, or rent to call upon me. I intend to make City Property, and Insurance, my sole business, having quit the Farm Real estate business. I can now be found in west room, over the Holcomb Book store. I shall be glad to meet you at any time. My Motto is Square dealing. Respectfully yours. J. M. Fodge.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS. Notice is hereby given that the rental upon sale contract on school land described below and set opposite the name of the holder thereof, is delinquent for a period of 12 months or more and if the amount now due is not paid within 60 days from the date of this notice said contract will be declared forfeited by the Board of Educational Lands and funds, and the said forfeiture and red of record as provided by law. Sale N.E. 1/4 Sec. 16 T. 18 R. 17 W. S. Westcott, Custer County. Dated March 14, 1910. E. B. COWLES, Commissioner Public Lands and Buildings.

New spring waitings in a fine assortment.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Prairie Hill (Continued from fifth page.) Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Longfellow and daughter Daisy returned Monday night from Overton.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Best shades at best prices at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

Belts and belting, broaches and hairpins. Our novelties are always new.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

The greatest convention this county will have this year will be the County Convention of Sunday Schools to be held in the M. E. church at Broken Bow on March 31st and April 1st, 1910. There is no church problem that the Sunday School can not solve. There is no civic problem beyond its solution, and you can learn how it is done at the above named meeting. Bring your hard questions for the state workers to answer. Hear them discuss the child, the boy, the man and the relation they bear to the Sunday School, the church and the community. Mrs. E. Sheppardson, County Secretary.

School Caucus. At the school caucus held last Saturday afternoon, March 12th. S. M. Dorris and H. J. Shinn the retiring members of the school board were renominated for another term of three years.

The meeting was a board meeting the different committees making their reports and giving a financial statement of their conditions. The report will be given next week.

Chiropactic Lecture March 26

C. F. Wilson, Chiropactor, of... Ph. C. President of the... School of... Chiropactic... to deliver a Chiropactic, lecture at the opera house on Saturday evening, March 26

Dr. Palmer will set forth the principles and demonstrate the science of Chiropactic, the modern science of removing the cause of disease. He will also have something of vital importance and interest to say about the medical legal situation and their prosecution.

Dr. Palmer is recognized as the world's greatest Chiropactor and is a fascinating lecturer and crayon artist. You will miss a rare treat by not hearing him. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Admission will be 25c and 35c. Seats on sale at Holcomb's.

Notice. To my friends: Having sold my office property, and Real Estate business with list of same, together with my good wishes to Mr. C. W. Bowman, I take this method to thank you one and all, for your friendship and cordial support in the past. I most heartily recommend my successor Mr. Bowman to you as a gentleman and an honorable business man to whom you can safely entrust your business. I will be found at the old place for a short time, until I can close up my business. J. M. Fodge 39-1f

Surprised. A pleasant surprise was perpetrated Saturday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagoner at the home of his parents, Drs. L. E. and Geo. F. Wagoner on New York Ave. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell party, planned and carried out by a large number of their friends incident to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner to their new home in Broken Bow, Neb. where Mr. Wagoner has secured a position on the Custer County Republican. He and his wife, Mrs. Molby-Wagoner, will be greatly missed by their circle of friends, and especially by the Baptist church of which they are both prominent members.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion in the spacious Wagoner home was the spread served at a seasonable hour, while Rev. B. E. Jackson by a few timely remarks presented a slight token of remembrance in behalf of those present to the honored ones. In many ways Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner were assured the best wishes of all their friends for future success and happiness.—Advertiser (Creston, Iowa)

Union Meetings. A series of Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Broken Bow north side Opera house, beginning April 15th and continuing three weeks.

These meetings will be lead by Evangelists Bromley and Myers who are doing splendid work for the master this winter, in Iowa and South Dakota.

Six hundred reported as going forward in their meeting at Beresford S. D.

Let the Christian people be looking up and praying that God may come to Broken Bow in like gracious manner.

Ramos Spanish Orchestra entertainment will be given at the Opera house March 21 1910.

This is the fifth number of the Young Peoples Union entertainments and will be the best ever given in this city by a musical organization of this class. The gentleman who sings with the Orchestra has a voice of unusual strength and shows great cultivation and beautiful quality.

Seats on sale March 18, 19 and 20 at Holcombs Book store and Steckhams Furniture store.

NOTICE; Having bought back from Mr. C. W. Bowman, my City Property List, with the House renting, I desire to again ask the patronage of my old customers, and as many others, as may have City Property for sale, or rent to call upon me. I intend to make City Property, and Insurance, my sole business, having quit the Farm Real estate business. I can now be found in west room, over the Holcomb Book store. I shall be glad to meet you at any time. My Motto is Square dealing. Respectfully yours. J. M. Fodge.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS. Notice is hereby given that the rental upon sale contract on school land described below and set opposite the name of the holder thereof, is delinquent for a period of 12 months or more and if the amount now due is not paid within 60 days from the date of this notice said contract will be declared forfeited by the Board of Educational Lands and funds, and the said forfeiture and red of record as provided by law. Sale N.E. 1/4 Sec. 16 T. 18 R. 17 W. S. Westcott, Custer County. Dated March 14, 1910. E. B. COWLES, Commissioner Public Lands and Buildings.

New spring waitings in a fine assortment.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Prairie Hill (Continued from fifth page.) Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Longfellow and daughter Daisy returned Monday night from Overton.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Best shades at best prices at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

Belts and belting, broaches and hairpins. Our novelties are always new.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

The greatest convention this county will have this year will be the County Convention of Sunday Schools to be held in the M. E. church at Broken Bow on March 31st and April 1st, 1910. There is no church problem that the Sunday School can not solve. There is no civic problem beyond its solution, and you can learn how it is done at the above named meeting. Bring your hard questions for the state workers to answer. Hear them discuss the child, the boy, the man and the relation they bear to the Sunday School, the church and the community. Mrs. E. Sheppardson, County Secretary.

School Caucus. At the school caucus held last Saturday afternoon, March 12th. S. M. Dorris and H. J. Shinn the retiring members of the school board were renominated for another term of three years.

The meeting was a board meeting the different committees making their reports and giving a financial statement of their conditions. The report will be given next week.

Chiropactic Lecture March 26

C. F. Wilson, Chiropactor, of... Ph. C. President of the... School of... Chiropactic... to deliver a Chiropactic, lecture at the opera house on Saturday evening, March 26

Dr. Palmer will set forth the principles and demonstrate the science of Chiropactic, the modern science of removing the cause of disease. He will also have something of vital importance and interest to say about the medical legal situation and their prosecution.

Dr. Palmer is recognized as the world's greatest Chiropactor and is a fascinating lecturer and crayon artist. You will miss a rare treat by not hearing him. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Admission will be 25c and 35c. Seats on sale at Holcomb's.

Notice. To my friends: Having sold my office property, and Real Estate business with list of same, together with my good wishes to Mr. C. W. Bowman, I take this method to thank you one and all, for your friendship and cordial support in the past. I most heartily recommend my successor Mr. Bowman to you as a gentleman and an honorable business man to whom you can safely entrust your business. I will be found at the old place for a short time, until I can close up my business. J. M. Fodge 39-1f

Surprised. A pleasant surprise was perpetrated Saturday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagoner at the home of his parents, Drs. L. E. and Geo. F. Wagoner on New York Ave. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell party, planned and carried out by a large number of their friends incident to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner to their new home in Broken Bow, Neb. where Mr. Wagoner has secured a position on the Custer County Republican. He and his wife, Mrs. Molby-Wagoner, will be greatly missed by their circle of friends, and especially by the Baptist church of which they are both prominent members.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion in the spacious Wagoner home was the spread served at a seasonable hour, while Rev. B. E. Jackson by a few timely remarks presented a slight token of remembrance in behalf of those present to the honored ones. In many ways Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner were assured the best wishes of all their friends for future success and happiness.—Advertiser (Creston, Iowa)

Union Meetings. A series of Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Broken Bow north side Opera house, beginning April 15th and continuing three weeks.

These meetings will be lead by Evangelists Bromley and Myers who are doing splendid work for the master this winter, in Iowa and South Dakota.

Six hundred reported as going forward in their meeting at Beresford S. D.

Let the Christian people be looking up and praying that God may come to Broken Bow in like gracious manner.

Ramos Spanish Orchestra entertainment will be given at the Opera house March 21 1910.

This is the fifth number of the Young Peoples Union entertainments and will be the best ever given in this city by a musical organization of this class. The gentleman who sings with the Orchestra has a voice of unusual strength and shows great cultivation and beautiful quality.

Seats on sale March 18, 19 and 20 at Holcombs Book store and Steckhams Furniture store.

NOTICE; Having bought back from Mr. C. W. Bowman, my City Property List, with the House renting, I desire to again ask the patronage of my old customers, and as many others, as may have City Property for sale, or rent to call upon me. I intend to make City Property, and Insurance, my sole business, having quit the Farm Real estate business. I can now be found in west room, over the Holcomb Book store. I shall be glad to meet you at any time. My Motto is Square dealing. Respectfully yours. J. M. Fodge.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS. Notice is hereby given that the rental upon sale contract on school land described below and set opposite the name of the holder thereof, is delinquent for a period of 12 months or more and if the amount now due is not paid within 60 days from the date of this notice said contract will be declared forfeited by the Board of Educational Lands and funds, and the said forfeiture and red of record as provided by law. Sale N.E. 1/4 Sec. 16 T. 18 R. 17 W. S. Westcott, Custer County. Dated March 14, 1910. E. B. COWLES, Commissioner Public Lands and Buildings.

New spring waitings in a fine assortment.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Best shades at best prices at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

Belts and belting, broaches and hairpins. Our novelties are always new.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

The greatest convention this county will have this year will be the County Convention of Sunday Schools to be held in the M. E. church at Broken Bow on March 31st and April 1st, 1910. There is no church problem that the Sunday School can not solve. There is no civic problem beyond its solution, and you can learn how it is done at the above named meeting. Bring your hard questions for the state workers to answer. Hear them discuss the child, the boy, the man and the relation they bear to the Sunday School, the church and the community. Mrs. E. Sheppardson, County Secretary.

School Caucus. At the school caucus held last Saturday afternoon, March 12th. S. M. Dorris and H. J. Shinn the retiring members of the school board were renominated for another term of three years.

The meeting was a board meeting the different committees making their reports and giving a financial statement of their conditions. The report will be given next week.

Chiropactic Lecture March 26

C. F. Wilson, Chiropactor, of... Ph. C. President of the... School of... Chiropactic... to deliver a Chiropactic, lecture at the opera house on Saturday evening, March 26

Dr. Palmer will set forth the principles and demonstrate the science of Chiropactic, the modern science of removing the cause of disease. He will also have something of vital importance and interest to say about the medical legal situation and their prosecution.

Dr. Palmer is recognized as the world's greatest Chiropactor and is a fascinating lecturer and crayon artist. You will miss a rare treat by not hearing him. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Admission will be 25c and 35c. Seats on sale at Holcomb's.

Notice. To my friends: Having sold my office property, and Real Estate business with list of same, together with my good wishes to Mr. C. W. Bowman, I take this method to thank you one and all, for your friendship and cordial support in the past. I most heartily recommend my successor Mr. Bowman to you as a gentleman and an honorable business man to whom you can safely entrust your business. I will be found at the old place for a short time, until I can close up my business. J. M. Fodge 39-1f

Surprised. A pleasant surprise was perpetrated Saturday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagoner at the home of his parents, Drs. L. E. and Geo. F. Wagoner on New York Ave. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell party, planned and carried out by a large number of their friends incident to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner to their new home in Broken Bow, Neb. where Mr. Wagoner has secured a position on the Custer County Republican. He and his wife, Mrs. Molby-Wagoner, will be greatly missed by their circle of friends, and especially by the Baptist church of which they are both prominent members.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion in the spacious Wagoner home was the spread served at a seasonable hour, while Rev. B. E. Jackson by a few timely remarks presented a slight token of remembrance in behalf of those present to the honored ones. In many ways Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner were assured the best wishes of all their friends for future success and happiness.—Advertiser (Creston, Iowa)

Union Meetings. A series of Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Broken Bow north side Opera house, beginning April 15th and continuing three weeks.

These meetings will be lead by Evangelists Bromley and Myers who are doing splendid work for the master this winter, in Iowa and South Dakota.

Six hundred reported as going forward in their meeting at Beresford S. D.

Let the Christian people be looking up and praying that God may come to Broken Bow in like gracious manner.

Ramos Spanish Orchestra entertainment will be given at the Opera house March 21 1910.

This is the fifth number of the Young Peoples Union entertainments and will be the best ever given in this city by a musical organization of this class. The gentleman who sings with the Orchestra has a voice of unusual strength and shows great cultivation and beautiful quality.

Seats on sale March 18, 19 and 20 at Holcombs Book store and Steckhams Furniture store.

NOTICE; Having bought back from Mr. C. W. Bowman, my City Property List, with the House renting, I desire to again ask the patronage of my old customers, and as many others, as may have City Property for sale, or rent to call upon me. I intend to make City Property, and Insurance, my sole business, having quit the Farm Real estate business. I can now be found in west room, over the Holcomb Book store. I shall be glad to meet you at any time. My Motto is Square dealing. Respectfully yours. J. M. Fodge.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS. Notice is hereby given that the rental upon sale contract on school land described below and set opposite the name of the holder thereof, is delinquent for a period of 12 months or more and if the amount now due is not paid within 60 days from the date of this notice said contract will be declared forfeited by the Board of Educational Lands and funds, and the said forfeiture and red of record as provided by law. Sale N.E. 1/4 Sec. 16 T. 18 R. 17 W. S. Westcott, Custer County. Dated March 14, 1910. E. B. COWLES, Commissioner Public Lands and Buildings.

New spring waitings in a fine assortment.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Best shades at best prices at Konkel's The Furniture Man.

Belts and belting, broaches and hairpins. Our novelties are always new.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

The greatest convention this county will have this year will be the County Convention of Sunday Schools to be held in the M. E. church at Broken Bow on March 31st and April 1st, 1910. There is no church problem that the Sunday School can not solve. There is no civic problem beyond its solution, and you can learn how it is done at the above named meeting. Bring your hard questions for the state workers to answer. Hear them discuss the child, the boy, the man and the relation they bear to the Sunday School, the church and the community. Mrs. E. Sheppardson, County Secretary.

School Caucus. At the school caucus held last Saturday afternoon, March 12th. S. M. Dorris and H. J. Shinn the retiring members of the school board were renominated for another term of three years.

The meeting was a board meeting the different committees making their reports and giving a financial statement of their conditions. The report will be given next week.

Chiropactic Lecture March 26

C. F. Wilson, Chiropactor, of... Ph. C. President of the... School of... Chiropactic... to deliver a Chiropactic, lecture at the opera house on Saturday evening, March 26

Dr. Palmer will set forth the principles and demonstrate the science of Chiropactic, the modern science of removing the cause of disease. He will also have something of vital importance and interest to say about the medical legal situation and their prosecution.

Dr. Palmer is recognized as the world's greatest Chiropactor and is a fascinating lecturer and crayon artist. You will miss a rare treat by not hearing him. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Admission will be 25c and 35c. Seats on sale at Holcomb's.

Notice. To my friends: Having sold my office property, and Real Estate business with list of same, together with my good wishes to Mr. C. W. Bowman, I take this method to thank you one and all, for your friendship and cordial support in the past. I most heartily recommend my successor Mr. Bowman to you as a gentleman and an honorable business man to whom you can safely entrust your business. I will be found at the old place for a short time, until I can close up my business. J. M. Fodge 39-1f

Surprised. A pleasant surprise was perpetrated Saturday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wagoner at the home of his parents, Drs. L. E. and Geo. F. Wagoner on New York Ave. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell party, planned and carried out by a large number of their friends incident to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner to their new home in Broken Bow, Neb. where Mr. Wagoner has secured a position on the Custer County Republican. He and his wife, Mrs. Molby-Wagoner, will be greatly missed by their circle of friends, and especially by the Baptist church of which they are both prominent members.

One of the most enjoyable features of the occasion in the spacious Wagoner home was the spread served at a seasonable hour, while Rev. B. E. Jackson by a few timely remarks presented a slight token of remembrance in behalf of those present to the honored ones. In many ways Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner were assured the best wishes of all their friends for future success and happiness.—Advertiser (Creston, Iowa)

Union Meetings. A series of Union Evangelistic meetings will be held in Broken Bow north side Opera house, beginning April 15th and continuing three weeks.

These meetings will be lead by Evangelists Bromley and Myers who are doing splendid work for the master this winter, in Iowa and South Dakota.

Six hundred reported as going forward in their meeting at Beresford S. D.

Let the Christian people be looking up and praying that God may come to Broken Bow in like gracious manner.

Ramos Spanish Orchestra entertainment will be given at the Opera house March 21 1910.

This is the fifth number of the Young Peoples Union entertainments and will be the best ever given in this city by a musical organization of this class. The gentleman who sings with the Orchestra has a voice of unusual strength and shows great cultivation and beautiful quality.

Seats on sale March 18, 19 and 20 at Holcombs Book store and Steckhams Furniture store.

NOTICE; Having bought back from Mr. C. W. Bowman, my City Property List, with the House renting, I desire to again ask the patronage of my old customers, and as many others, as may have City Property for sale, or rent to call upon me. I intend to make City Property, and Insurance, my sole business, having quit the Farm Real estate business. I can now be found in west room, over the Holcomb Book store. I shall be glad to meet you at any time. My Motto is Square dealing. Respectfully yours. J. M. Fodge.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS. Notice is hereby given that the rental upon sale contract on school land described below and set opposite the name of the holder thereof, is delinquent for a period of 12 months or more and if the amount now due is not paid within 60 days from the date of this notice said contract will be declared forfeited by the Board of Educational Lands and funds, and the said forfeiture and red of record as provided by law. Sale N.E. 1/4 Sec. 16 T. 18 R. 17 W. S. Westcott, Custer County. Dated March 14, 1910. E. B. COWLES, Commissioner Public Lands and Buildings.

New spring waitings in a fine assortment.—Kiffin-Lucke Co.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Prairie Hill (Continued from fifth page.) Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Longf