FEARS HE WAS BIT BY A MAD DOG

Hugh McMillan Goes to Chicago to Consult Specialist

Sunday Afternoon, at his home Hugh McMillan noticed something wrong in the actions of his pet dog, and was standing over it when suddenly the beast bit him on the hand. The dog disappeared and has not been seen since. Hugh went to Broken Bow Monday night and consulted with Dr. Mullins, who advised him to go to Chicago. He left for that city Tuesday night. This is hardly the season for a dog to go mad, but exceptions might happen and Hugh wishes to take every possible precaution.—(Dunning Booster)

S. A. Thomas Starts a Bank. S. A. Thomas of Sutherland was a city visitor Tuesday. He informs us that he has secured a charter for a bank at Sutherland, which he is planning to have ready for business the middle of April.

It is chartered with $10,000 paid up capital.

Mr. Chas. R. White of Sutherland cashier of the bank will work in the Custer National bank of this city in order to familiarize himself with the banking business until their bank is ready to open.

Mr. Thomas is one of Broken Bow's prosperous young men and the REPUBLICAN predicts success for him in his new enterprise.

Sunday School Convention.

The County Sunday School Convention will be held at Broken Bow on March 31st and April 1st. The Sessions will be held in the Methodist church, and we are all given a hearty welcome, and the interest shown at this date promises the best convention we have ever had. Every Sunday School in the county should have at least one delegate in attendance. Rev. Chas. H. Lewis, the State General Secretary, is well posted on the Adult Department of the school and will be ready to answer all your questions. His "His Better Engines and Hotter Fires" will stir you to do bigger and better things. You will want a delegate from the Adult Department in your school to hear him. His "Heart of a Boy" will be helpful to solution of the boy problem.

Miss Margaret E. Brown, the State Elementary Superintendent, presents the work with the children in her own charming and convincing way. Her "Little People, Big Plans, and Proven Possibilities" will make you want to be a teacher of Little People. You must have a delegate from the teachers of children.

Lindley-Lewis.

MARRIED Saturday March 19th at 8 p. m. Garland E. Lewis and Miss Grace E. Lindley, at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lindley of Anselmo Nebr.

The bride is a lady of culture and refinement and a school teacher by profession. For the past three years she has been one of the teachers of the city schools of Broken Bow and enjoys the high esteem of a large acquaintance.

The groom is a young man of sterling qualities, a man of fine education, natural ability and holds the honored position of county superintendent of schools of Custer county. Both he and his bride are natives of Custer county. He through his educational work has a large acquaintance in the county, and is held in high esteem by those who know him.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony which was solemnized by Rev. A. T. Norwood of Broken Bow.

A sumptuous supper was provided by Mrs. Lindley which was very much appreciated by those present.

Among the number of gifts received by the couple was a substantial gift in cash presented to the bride by her father.

After the festivities were over they returned to Broken Bow in an auto and commenced house keeping.

Their card announces they will be at home to their friends in Broken Bow after April 1, 1910.

The REPUBLICAN joins their many friends in extending congratulations.

Miss Florence Keller of Dunning was in the city last week on a contest which she had against Paul Larson. Mrs. Frederick Hemmingsmer of Wagner accompanied her as one of the witnesses.
