N. T. GADD'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

Having filed with the proper officer, I now announce myself a candidate for the office of county attorney subject to the approval of the republican party at the primary election to be held August 16th, 1910. It is perhaps needless for me to say, I am unalterably against the liquor interests, I am for county option, for state and nation wide prohibition.

I am a republican, but am most emphatically for the revision of the Tariff downward and for the removal of tariff upon things essentially necessary to the comfort, health, happiness and prosperity of the citizen. My present term of office does not expire until January 1911, my time and ability therefore is the property of the citizens of the county, of all political complexion; that being true I WILL NOT MAKE A CANDIDATE, I have not been absent from any meeting of the board of supervisors have been on hand at all times when called upon by county officers from the least to the highest, including Township and School district officers; when needed by the private citizen, either over the phone, or in person, I have been on hand by day or night, and this I will have to say at the end of my term of office regardless of the results of the primary election; if you need the county attorney, you will find him at his office, not out in campaign, using your time to further his personal interests. If absent, it will be because of business, and in that event, there will be a competent lawyer in charge of the office.

I am human and no doubt have made mistakes during my term of office, but I have no excuses to offer neither any apologies to make; I have sought to discharge duty to the best of my ability from my view point, this I will continue to do; I will thank you for your consideration and will appreciate your support.

Respectfully Yours,
N. T. GADD.

ANDERSON FOR SUPERVISOR.

Having filed as a candidate for Supervisor of the third supervisor district subject to the will of the republican primary, I will appreciate your support. If nominated and elected I will use my best efforts for the advancement of the best interests of the district and the county in general.

RAN ANDERSON.

MYERS FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

I am a candidate for county attorney subject to the approval of the republican primaries.

EDWIN F. MYERS.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

I decided to again be a candidate for the nomination for Senator to represent the Fifteenth district, embracing Custer, Valley, Blaine and Loup counties. I have filed as a democrat and peoples' independent candidate and respectfully urge the voters to investigate my record as a member of the legislature during the last session. I shall appreciate your support if I may seem to you to merit it.

Respectfully,
J. A. Ollis, Ord, Nebr.

Congress adjourned last Saturday.

It is now to be seen whether Senator Gore's sensational charge has any foundation in fact or whether it is another of his exaggerations.

Senator Cummins of Des Moines, one of the most prominent insurgents in congress states "that upon the whole the work of the congress just closed is excellent and that many good measures are to its credit."

President Taft proved his ability as an able executive in forcing to final passage several of the important bills for which the public had been clamoring and for which the republican party was pledged.

The late congress has to its record the passage of the railroad bill, the statehood bill for Arizona and New Mexico, Postal Banks, two Battleships, Bureau of mines, white slave regulation, land withdrawal, protection of Alaska seals, creation of a tariff board, besides many other items of local interest.

Mr. Roosevelt has had two terms, and publicly subscribed to the rule that retired him at the end of the second. Only sophistry supports the present movement in his name, and up to this time sophistry has never controlled him, or been found at the base of any of his achievements.—Washington Star.

Those republican members of Congress who declined to stand with the majority on party issues during the recent session may find when they ask for renomination that they are not so much better or bigger than their party as they had imagined. No party has much use for a man that can not be depended upon in battle. Such denounce their allegiance to party ties and make their race for reelection independently of any party. If they did not succeed in being elected they might succeed in getting rid of some of their own conceipt.

J. W. Crabtree of Peru announces through a circular issued to the republican voters of the state that he is a candidate for state superintendent. Mr. Crabtree has for twelve years been engaged in educational work in the state, most of which time he has been at the head of the Peru State Normal. He is not only known to be one of the best school men of the state but he is held in high esteem by those who have come under his teaching since he has been in the state work. His nomination and election should be unanimous.

Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C.—Three great issues will be presented by the republican leaders for the consideration of the voters of the country during the coming campaign. The first will be the legislation thus far completed by the extra and first regular sessions of the 61st congress. The importance of this legislation has probably rarely, if ever been, exceeded by any previous congress. Three laws will stand out foremost in addition to several hardly less important laws for the consideration of the people. First the tariff law passed at the extra session; secondly, the new railroad law, and third, the Postal Savings Bank law. Then too, the appropriations of the present session will undoubtedly be scanned very closely, because an attempt has been made in spite of the constantly increasing demands made upon the government to keep these appropriations very close to those made for last year.

The Taft Method Gets There.

President Taft is being praised on every hand for the quiet, prompt, effectual manner in which he prevented an increase in freight rates being carried into effect by twenty-four western railroads. And he accomplished more than that, for the eastern lines which were contemplating an advance in freight schedules, have since given assurance that there will be no changes made until after the railroad bill now in conference has become a law, and the authority to approve rate changes has been vested in the Interstate Commerce Commission.

But of the Taft method, the Cleveland Leader has this to say: "The mammer in which the attempt of the railroads to increase freight rates has been met is a good illustration of the Taft method—the processes which won him such solid success as a special representative of the Government in Cuba, in Panama and in the Philippines and, as a member of the Cabinet.

"When the western roads gave notice of their intention to raise rates, he had the Department of Justice enjoin them. Then the other railroads of the country lined up with those first involved, and it appeared that one of the greatest battles ever fought by the great common carries and federal authority was on.

"But the railroad president's knew one thing with certainty; they were sure they could get a square deal in the White House. They knew that President Taft, if he were shown that the proposed increase was just, would stand by them, even if he invited popular censure thereby. So they went to the White House and talked the matter over with him.

"One of the most important ends sought by the President in the railroad bill which has just passed the senate is the empowering of the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate proposed increases in rates, to determine whether they are justified and will not impose a hardship on shippers. Mr. Taft asked the railroad men to await the enactment of the bill so that the question now up could go before the commission for determination. So strong is their confidence in his justice and so well satisfied are they that the Interstate Commerce Commission will treat them fairly, that they accepted. No attempt will be made to put the rates up until permission is given by the commission. The government's injunction suits will be withdrawn as soon as the railroad bill becomes a law. Both sides are satisfied and as far as human institutions can be relied upon exact justice will be done both shippers and railroads.

"This is the Taft method. It is somewhat different from the Roosevelt way. But, given time enough, it may disarm the president's most extreme critics."

So the republican party in this campaign will be fortified as never before in the arguments it can present to the voters of the county. There is no issue to be dodged; there is no issue upon which they cannot present an aggressive front. This should mean an arousing of the people throughout the country and a rallying of the voters to the president and the republican leaders of the county, and a substantial republican majority in the next house of representatives to aid Mr. Taft, in the second part of his term, to give the
