

TOWNS LIKE MEN ARE OFTEN PESSIMISTIC.

Towns like people get the idea at times that they just cannot make anything go. Good enterprising citizens sometimes say: "If this were such and such town we could make improvements and have things we ought to have, but our town is a stick-in-the-mud sort of a town and we can't." That kind of feeling will kill any town in the world. If we will wake up and stand together we can have anything we want in this town. Our patronage is good, people come from other territory to our town to trade. The question is how long will they do this if we do not make an effort to show our appreciation of their patronage. We have come to the conclusion that this town can have as good a Chautauqua as any town our size in the United States. With a good Chautauqua people will come from miles around and we can renew old acquaintances and make new ones and by spending the week among our patrons and showing them a good time, we can add much to the trade of our town besides giving to our families a week's treat of good things. Let every enterprising citizen join the line-up for a Big Chautauqua.

The Postal Savings Bank Law.

SEC. 10. That any depositor in a postal savings depository may surrender his deposit, or any part thereof, in sums of twenty dollars, forty dollars, sixty dollars, eighty dollars, one hundred dollars, and multiples of one hundred dollars and five hundred dollars, and receive in lieu of such surrendered deposits, under such regulation as may be established by the board or trustees, the amount of the surrendered deposits in United States coupon or registered bonds of the denominations of twenty dollars, forty dollars, sixty dollars, eighty dollars, one hundred dollars, and five hundred dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of two and one-half per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of their issue and payable twenty years from such date, and both principal and interest shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value: Provided, That the bonds herein authorized shall be issued only (first) when there are outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, in which case the proceeds of the bonds shall be applied to the redemption at par of outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, and (second) at times when under authority of law other than that contained in this Act the government desires to issue bonds for the purpose of relinquishing the treasury in which case the issue of bonds under authority of this Act shall be in lieu of the issue of a like amount of bonds issuable under authority of law other than that contained in this Act: Provided further, That the bonds authorized by this Act shall be issued by the secretary of the treasury under such regulations as he may prescribe: And provided further, That the authority contained in section nine of this Act for the investment of postal savings funds in United States bonds shall include the authority to invest in the bonds herein authorized whenever such bonds may be lawfully issued: And provided further, That the bonds herein authorized shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal, or local authority. And provided further, That no bonds authorized by this Act shall be receivable by the treasurer of the United States as security for the issue of circulating notes by national banking associations.

SEC. 11. That whenever the trustees of the postal savings fund have in their possession funds available for investment in United States bonds they may notify the secretary of the treasury of the amount of such funds in their hands which they desire to invest in bonds of the United States subject to call, the Secretary of the Treasury shall call for redemption an amount of the funds in the hands of the trustees which the trustees desire to thus invest, and the bonds so called shall be redeemed at par with accrued interest at the treasury of the United States on and after three months from the date of such call and interest on the said bonds shall thereupon cease: Provided, That the said bonds when redeemed shall be reissued at par to the trustees without change in their terms as to rate of interest and date of maturity: And provided further, That the bonds so reissued may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be called for redemption from the trustees in like manner as they were originally called for redemption from their former owners whenever there are funds in the Treasury of the United States available for such redemption.

SEC. 12. That postal savings depository funds shall be kept separate from other funds by postmasters and other officers and employees of the postal service, who shall be held to the same accountability under their bonds for such funds as for public moneys; and no person connected with the Post-Office Department shall disclose to any person other than the depositor the amount of any deposits, unless directed so to do by the Postmaster-General. All statutes relating to the safe-keeping of and proper accounting for postal receipts are made applicable to postal savings funds and Postmaster-General may require postmasters, assistant postmasters, and clerks at postal saving depositories to give any additional bond he may deem necessary.

SEC. 13. That additional compensation shall be allowed postmasters at post-offices of the fourth class for the transaction of postal savings depository business. Such compensation shall not exceed one-fourth of one per centum on the average sum upon which interest is paid each calendar year on receipts at such post-office, and shall be paid from the postal revenues; but postmasters, assistant postmasters, clerks, or other employees at post-offices of the presidential grade shall not receive any additional compensation for such service.

SEC. 14. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 15. That all the safeguards provided by law for the protection of public moneys, and all statutes to the embezzlement, conversion, improper handling, retention, use or disposal of postal and money order funds and the punishments provided for such offenses are hereby extended and made applicable to postal savings depository funds, and all statutes relating to false returns of postal and money order business, the forgery, counterfeiting, alteration, improper use or handling of postal and money-order blanks, forms, vouchers, accounts and records, and the dies, plates and engravings therefor, with the penalties provided in such statutes, are hereby extended and made applicable to postal savings depository business, and the forgery, counterfeiting, alteration, improper use or handling of postal savings depository blanks, forms, vouchers, accounts and records, and the dies, plates and engravings therefor.

SEC. 16. That the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the deposits made in postal savings depository offices, with the accrued interest thereon as herein provided.

SEC. 17. That the final judgment, order, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating any right or interest in the credit of any sums deposited by any person with a postal savings depository if the same shall not have been appealed from and the time for appeal has expired shall, upon submission to the postmaster-general of a copy of the same, duly authenticated in the manner provided by the laws of the United States for the authentication of the records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any state or territory or of any possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, when the same are proved or admitted within any other court within the United States, be accepted and pursued by the board of trustees as conclusive of the title, right, interest or possession so adjudicated, and any payment of said sum in accordance with such order, judgment, or decree shall operate as a full and complete discharge of the United States from the claim or demand of any person or persons to the same.

Approved, June 25, 1910.

SEC. 18. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 19. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 20. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 21. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 22. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

SEC. 23. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Postmaster-General and the board of trustees to establish postal savings depositories in accordance with the provisions of this Act, including the reimbursement of the secretary of the treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue and registration of the bonds authorized in this Act; and the postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or rebuke, subject to the approval of said board such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of the Act into effect.

A Noted Writer to Lecture at Chautauqua

Harold Morton Kramer knocked about as a cowboy, a lumber jack and a miner. His friends discovered that he had genius as a writer, so he went to school, acquired an education, and became a newspaper man, later a successful novelist.

His platform work is highly successful and his time is much in demand at summer assemblies all over the land.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Broken Bow.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. G. H. Tuttle, Rogers Street, Broken Bow, Nebr., says: "I have nothing to regret for the public statement I gave three years ago in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and I have had no need of a kidney medicine since. For several years I felt kidney trouble coming on me and a cold was the means of bringing it to a climax. My back was stiff and frequently I had sharp-shooting pains in my joints and kidneys. I was confined to the house for weeks and was unable to walk further than ten feet at a time. The doctor said I had gravel and treated me for this trouble for several weeks. In time his medicine helped me and I was able to get out, but before long the difficulties returned with renewed severity. The kidney secretions became highly colored, contained a sediment and bothered me by their frequency in passage. When someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Haerle's Drug Store and they brought relief almost immediately. In a few weeks I was cured and from that day to this, I have had no further cause for complaint."
