COMPLETE VICTORY

GOVERNMENT GETS VERDICT IN BLEACHED FLOUR CASE.

WINS IN BOTH CONTENTIONS

Attorneys for the Millers Will File Motion for New Trial and If Overruled the Case Will Then Be Appealed.

Kansas City.—"We, the jury, find that the flour seized was adulterated."

"We, the jury, find that the flour seized was misbranded."

These two separate verdicts were returned in the federal court here by the jury which for more than five weeks had listened to testimony for and against the charge of government that 625 sacks of flour, bleached and sold by the Lexington Mill and Elevator company of Lexington, Neb., and seized by the government, while in the possession of the purchaser, a grocer at Castle, Mo., were adulterated and misbranded.

The verdict, returned after seven hours' deliberation, was a complete victory for the government which prosecuted the suit under the national pure food and drug act.

The government charged that the flour was adulterated in that it was bleached by the Alsop process which makes use of nitrogen peroxide in bleaching flour.

Misbranding was charged in that the flour seized was labeled a fancy patent flour and the government contended it was not a fancy patent flour because it was not made from a first grade hard winter wheat.
