Candidate For the Legislature.

I hereby announce myself as candidate for nomination for Representative in the 56th district, subject to the action of the republican primary Aug. 16, 1910.

N. T. GADD'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

Having filed with the proper officer, I now announce myself a candidate for the office of County Attorney subject to the approval of the republican party at the primary election to be held August 16th, 1910.

I am a republican, but am most emphatically against the Tariff, for state and national wide prohibition.

I am a republican, but am most emphatically against the Tariff, for state and national wide prohibition.

My present term of office does not expire until January 1911, my time and ability therefore is the property of the citizens of the county, of all political complexion; that being true I WILL NOT MAKE A CANDIDATE.

I have not been absent from any meeting of the board of supervisors have been on hand at all times when called upon by county officers from the least to the highest, including Township and School district officers.

When needed by the private citizen, either over the phone, or in person I will have on hand by day or night, and this I will have to say at the end of my term of office regardless of the results of the primary election; if you need the county attorney, you will find him at his office, not out in campaign, using your time to further his personal interests.

If absent, it will be because of business, and in that event, there will be a competent lawyer in charge of the office.

I am human, and no doubt have made mistakes during my term of office, but I have no excuses to offer neither any apologies to make; I have sought to discharge duty to the best of my ability from my view point, this I will continue to do; I will thank you for your consideration and will appreciate your support.

Respectfully Yours, N. T. GADD.

ANDERSON FOR SUPERVISOR.

Having filed as a candidate for Supervisor of the third supervisor district subject to the will of the republican primary, I will appreciate your support. If nominated and elected I will use my best efforts for the advancement of the best interests of the district and the county in general.

MYERS FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

I am a candidate for county attorney subject to the approval of the republican primaries.

EDWIN F. MYERS.

A good audience greeted Congressman Kinkaid and Senator Burkett at the opera house Monday afternoon.

The republican county convention Monday was well attended considering the busy season of the year.

W. J. Rice of Cliff and Wm. Warren of Callaway filed last week as republican candidate for the legislature from this district. Those men are both well known in Custer county for their loyalty to the republican party and should they be the nominees of the primaries they should receive the loyal support of their party.

Custer County Legislative Candidates.

The voters of the county will have opportunity in this campaign to choose from a large list.

The republican nominees are for the Senate M. L. Fries of Arcadia, and W. S. Mattly of Ansley.

For the representative district O. H. Moody of Westerville, W. J. Rice of Cliff and William Warren of Callaway.

Among the democrat ranks are J. A. Ollis of Ord for the State Senate. For representatives are C. H. Jeffords of Kilfoil township, J. T. Arthur of Comstock, W. D. Hall of Sargent and Jess Gandy of Broken Bow.

A STATEMENT FROM CONGRESSMAN KINKAID

To My Esteemed Constituents:

Upon the advice of many voters, I have become a candidate for a re-nomination for Congress by the primary election to be held August 16.

During the present Congress I have faithfully supported the policies pursued and legislation recommended by Roosevelt, when President, adopted and promoted by President Taft, as evidenced by the excellent measures enacted at the recent session.

In revising the tariff, I strived to have lumber and barbed wire placed upon the free list and voted on separate schedules for revision downward generally, but after the bill had been in the Senate and in conference, it had to be voted upon as an entirety, with the alternative to pass it or defeat it and leave in operation the old law.

A majority, including democrats with republicans, prevented a greater reduction of the rates. I favor the increase of the authority of the tariff board recently authorized and that in the future revisions be made of single schedules, when conditions warrant it, rather than that all schedules be revised at the same time, thus preventing "log rolling" by protected interests.

I favor the adoption of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States permitting the taxing of large incomes; also, the election of Senators by direct vote.

As about three-fifths of the announcements of my competitor consists of an attack upon my record, I shall give it such brief notice as the nature hereof will permit. The reference incidentally occurring last winter in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation to my purchase of a quarter-section of coal land in Alaska, carried with it the information, derived from official source, that the transaction was legitimate and straightforward; but in disregard of this, to advance his own candidacy, my competitor questions its regularity. It was because only of the fact that Mr. Ballinger, as my attorney, had passed on the title to the property, before he was Secretary of the Interior, when in the practice of law at Seattle, that the transaction was mentioned at all.

No government official has pretended that I did what was wrong or improper. Glavis, special agent and attorney for the government in coal land matters, in substance, swore there was nothing contained in the transaction on the part of either Ballinger or myself that was wrong.

Brandeis, attorney for Pinchot, said: "We have looked into the case carefully. * * * There is nothing wrong or improper * * * Mr. Kinkaid has nothing to conceal in this matter as far as I know." My purchase was made of the entryman who had an equitable title which the law permits to be assigned or deeded, for which I paid $2,800.00, and to secure a patent, must yet pay the government price of $10.00 per acre. I have not made a coal land entry. If the entry of my grantor was made in good faith, and the law in other respects has been complied with, a patent will be granted; otherwise not. Certainly, the government is secure, because its officials have the exclusive determination of these questions.

In refutation of the implied accusation by my competitor, that I have evaded voting, "insurgated at home and stood pat in Washington," I cite a portion of a testimonial written by Howard R. Hinshaw, Secretary to Congressman Hinshaw, as follows:

"Hon. M. P. Kinkaid: My Dear Sir:—Complying with your request, I have made a careful compilation of your votes of the present session * * * June 5th, when the last volume of the Record was issued, for the purpose of ascertaining your relative standing as to faithful attendance and recorded votes. You rank a fraction of a vote higher than the average of the votes expressed by the four members found to be the highest other than yourself." The Record does not in a single instance indicate that you have undertaken to dodge or evade any vote. You voted present on every occasion upon a roll call for the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum. You have not paired your vote in a single instance. Upon all motions or resolutions concerning amendments to the rules, or with reference to the Speakership, you have voted consistently during the entire Congress with the progressives, or so-called "insurgents."

Very truly, (Signed) HOWARD R. HINSHAW.

I quote also: "District of Columbia, City of Washington, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, do hereby certify that at the request of Congressman Kinkaid, I have caused to be ascertained his relative standing as to attendance during this session, and his record as to voting on roll calls, as compared with other members, and as a result it has been made to appear, and does appear to me that in attendance and the number of recorded votes, Mr. Kinkaid ranks with members who rank the highest, and ranks as high, if not a fraction higher, than the average of the four or five or six of the highest."

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my official seal, this 25th day of June, A. D. 1910.

SEAL (Signed) ALEXANDER McDOWELL, Thanking you for your support in the past, and believing the Congressional experience I have enjoyed will enable me to work to a greater advantage in the future in behalf of the interests of the District, your further support is respectfully solicited.

M. P. KINKAID.

FRANK E. BEEMAN.

Candidate for Congress.

I am a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress from the sixth district. I believe in good government, a square deal and that the Roosevelt policies should be put into operation. I have always been opposed to boss rule and machine politics. I believe in representative government, in government by the people and not by corporations. I believe in loyalty to republican principles and the protective tariff but do not believe that downward revision has been fully accomplished; particularly with reference to the woolen, cotton, lumber and wire schedules.

I believe a congressman should have convictions and courage enough to vote them; that he should not dodge, sidestep and vote "present"; that he should not insurge at home and stand pat in Washington. That he should keep his ante-election promises and vote against Mr. Cannon for speaker after having promised the people to do so; and he should not vote to tax barbed wire at $5.00 per ton after publicly announcing that it should be placed to free list.

A congressman is elected by the public and paid by the public to serve the public and not to serve himself. He should be satisfied to render public service for the public salary and not seek to further enrich himself at the expense of the public by acquiring coal lands in Alaska belonging to the public domain.

His duty is to conserve the public resources and not to absorb them unto himself and Mr. Ballinger's assistance in acquiring a coal claim in Alaska is not sufficient proof of either regularity or ethics of the transaction.

For Representative.

Having filed as candidate for the democratic and populist nomination for representative, I will appreciate the support of the democrats and populist of this district at the primaries.

SENATOR TAYLOR COMING.

"Fiddling Bob" to Lecture at Chautauqua.

There is something so inimitable, joyous, pathetic, humorous, yet sad about "Bob" Taylor's lectures that it keeps you on the jump to change from laughing to crying. Yet you keep busy and do it. We are told by the wise men that once upon a time the lawyers were most religious and that a part of a legal training was the learning of scriptural truths and the practice of devotional attitudes. If this be true then times have changed. But fortunately the lawyers are not as bad as they are pictured and among those who have been true to ancient traditions is Senator Taylor. That does not mean that Taylor is a back number—far from it. He is a most complete specimen of true Americanism.

He comes of fighting stock and from a family whose name figures conspicuously in American history since the Revolution. But there are other elements in his make-up—broad-mindedness, love of fair play and reverence for American ideals. Such a character could not be buried under the details of ordinary life and thrice, through no particular effort of his own, has he held the highest office in his state. It has been said that he is the most pleasing speaker on the American platform today and the statement is true. But the power of his speech lies not in his command of language or flight of oratory, not in the turning of beautiful phrases—but in the man himself.

Very truly, (Signed) HOWARD R. HINSHAW.

I quote also: "District of Columbia, City of Washington, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, do hereby certify that at the request of Congressman Kinkaid, I have caused to be ascertained his relative standing as to attendance during this session, and his record as to voting on roll calls, as compared with other members, and as a result it has been made to appear, and does appear to me that in attendance and the number of recorded votes, Mr. Kinkaid ranks with members who rank the highest, and ranks as high, if not a fraction higher, than the average of the four or five or six of the highest."

The Crops

Wheat and rye harvest is now on in Custer county. The growth corn has made the past three weeks is a marvel. Rain in this part of the country has been all that was needed and vegetation of all kinds is doing nicely.

From present indications there will be a bumper potato crop. Owing to the cold and dry weather in early spring all crops are later than usual and all crops will generally be a little below the average, yet there will be no
