Candidate For the Legislature.

I hereby announce myself as candidate for nomination for Representative in the 5th district, subject to the action of the republican primary Aug. 16, 1910.

N. T. GADD'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

Having filed with the proper officer, I now announce myself a candidate for the office of County Attorney subject to the approval of the republican party at the Primary election to be held August 16th, 1910.

It is perhaps needless for me to say:— I am unalterably against the Liquor Interests, I am for County option, for state and national prohibition, but am most emphatically for the revision of the Tariff downward and for the removal of tariff upon things essentially necessary to the comfort, health, happiness and prosperity of the citizen.

My present term of office does not expire until January 1911, my time and ability therefore is the property of the citizens of the county, of all political complexion; that being true I WILL NOT MAKE A CANVASS. I have not been absent from any meeting of the board of supervisors have been on hand at all times when called upon by county officers from the least to the highest, including Township and School district officers.

When needed by the private citizen, either over the phone or in person I have been on hand by day or night, and this will have to say at the end of my term of office regardless of the results of the primary election; if you need the county attorney, you will find him at his office, not out in campaign, using your time to further his personal interests.

If absent, it will be because of business, and in that event, there will be a competent lawyer in charge of the office.

I am human, and no doubt have made mistakes during my term of office, but I have no excuses to offer neither any apologies to make; I have sought to discharge duty to the best of my ability from my viewpoint, this I will continue to do; I will thank you for your consideration and will appreciate your support.

Respectfully Yours, N. T. GADD.

ANDERSON FOR SUPERVISOR.

Having filed as a candidate for Supervisor of the third supervisor district subject to the will of the republican primary, I will appreciate your support. If nominated and elected I will use my best efforts for the advancement of the best interests of the district and the county in general.

RAS ANDERSON.

MYERS FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

I am a candidate for county attorney subject to the approval of the republican primaries.

EDWIN F. MYERS.

It is a noticeable fact that the democrat platform at Grand Island last week does not say a word in favor of the recent democratic legislature or present democrat administration.

There is no further doubt of the hold the saloon element has on the democrat party of Nebraska. Bryan with all his influence was not able to stem the tide against the saloon partisans in the Grand Island convention.

Notes On The Primary Election.

At primary election polls open in all precincts, except cities where registration is required at 12 m. and close at 9 p. m. In voting place a cross (x) opposite the name of the candidate you desire to vote for, but all candidates voted for must appear in the same party column. If you vote for candidates in more than one column your vote will not be counted.

If the republican party does not win out this year in Nebraska they will have no one to blame but themselves. The opportunity is at hand. Let the business men show their appreciation of the newspapers by giving them their share of their patronage and encourage the candidates with their personal support and victory will come. It is no time for indifference upon the part of any who believes in the principles of the republican party.

The issue of this campaign in Nebraska is now plainly before the people. The republicans in State Convention declared with an over whelming majority in favor of county option, while the democrats in their state convention with an almost unanimous majority declared against it. It is the same old story. The publican party as ever has taken the lead in the question of progression while the democrats continue to flounders in the gutter and persist in following in the

The populist in their state convention declared in favor of county option and pledged it members not to vote for any candidate opposed. It is now to be seen whether they will remain true to their principles or whether they will support the democratic candidates and assist the brewers in controlling the state. There is no question with the republicans pledged for county option and the democrats against where the saloon crowd will spend their money and cast their vote this year. They spent their money to capture the democrat convention and will more freely spend it to secure the defeat of the republican candidates.

Hon. Moses P. Kinkaid for Congress.

At the primary election the 16th republican voters will in a large measure determine whether the Sixth Congressional district will be represented in the next Congress by a republican or democrat. But one of the republican candidates will receive the nomination. That will be the one who gets the largest number of votes in the primary. After the nomination is made comes the real contest between the republican and democrat parties through their respective candidates. It stands the republicans in hand not only nominate a man capable of filling the position but one who may in the campaign against the strongest of the several candidates who will doubtless be nominated. The man in office for several reasons usually has a better chance of re-election than a new man and it is not a safe plan to change horses in crossing a stream.

That the contest in this district this year will be a close one is generally believed and for that reason if for no other should not think of trying to experiment with a new man.

The present incumbent has shown his ability in the part to accomplish what he undertakes for the benefit of his constituents. He is a careful and conservative legislator and stands high with his colleagues in congress. His experience of the past will enable him to do more in the way of legislation in the future than would be possible for a new man. There is no question but M. P. Kinkaid is the strongest republican candidate before the people and if the republicans care to win in this election over the combined forces of the democrats and populists with either of the candidates Mr. Kinkaid is the man. There should be no halting in the matter of choice—vote for Hon. M. P. Kinkaid at the primaries and you have taken the first important step in securing a republican from the sixth district for congress the ensuing year.

FRANK E. BEEMAN.

Candidate for Congress.

I am a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress from the sixth district. I believe in good government, a square deal and that the Roosevelt policies should be put into operation. I have always been opposed to boss rule and machine politics. I believe in representative government, in government by the people and not by corporations. I believe in loyalty to republican principles and the protective tariff but do not believe that downward revision has been fully accomplished; particularly with reference to the woolen, cotton, lumber and wire schedules.

I believe a congressman should have convictions and courage enough to vote them; that he should not dodge, sidestep and vote "present;" that he should not incur at home and stand pat in Washington. That he should keep his ante-election promises and vote against Mr. Cannon for speaker after having promised the people to do so; and he should not vote to tax barbed wire at $5.00 per ton after publicly announcing that it should be placed to free list. A congressman is elected by the public and paid by the public to serve the public and not to serve himself. He should be satisfied to render public service for the public salary and not seek to further enrich himself at the expense of the public by acquiring coal lands in Alaska belonging to the public domain. His duty is to conserve the public resources and not to absorb them unto himself and Mr. Ballinger's assistance in acquiring a coal claim in Alaska is not sufficient proof of either regularity or ethics of the transaction.

ROBERT G. ROSS

Candidate for nomination for Congress, Sixth district, Nebraska, August 16, 1910, on all four tickets, Republican, Democratic, Peoples Independent and Prohibition.

I stand square against the trusts and graft of any kind and promise the people of the big Sixth, if elected, not to tamper in coal lands, or in other words, convert their property into the hands of rich corporations. And I also promise the people to be there at all voting on any bill. There have been bills passed and not a congressman in the state there. Where were they? Have a detective look the n up and lay them before the people of the state. And that the Roosevelt-Lincoln Jefferson policies should be put into operation and will bring proper laws before Congress for the benefit of the big sixth, and the whole United States. I am positively against Joe Cannon's gang, and that sort of any party, to which I might receive the nomination.

Some one says, what are you going to do if you are nominated on more than one ticket. Wipe out all graft and corruption and rottenness of all and hold fast to what is good in all four.

Robert G. Ross, Lexington, Nebr.

For Representative.

Having filed as candidate for the democratic and populist nomination for representative, I will appreciate the support of the democrats and populists of this district at the primaries.

J. T. Arthur, Comstock, Nebr.

For Representative.

Having filed as candidate for Representative for the 5th District, subject to the Peoples Independent and Democratic parties I will appreciate your support at the primaries.

FOUR TUNEFUL BROTHERS.

Coming to the Chautauqua With Good Voices, Good Instrumentation and a Good Program of Popular Readings.

The Weatherwax Brothers Male Quartette, as the name implies, is composed of four brothers. This fact renders the organization unique. Their voices have not only the musical blend that comes of careful selection with reference to volume, quality and natural pitch, but there is added the family characteristics as well. There is a harmony of the blood as well as of the voice. Add to this the strong family resemblance in faces and forms and you have a modulated, balanced, harmonized quartette that is in a class by itself.

From the very beginning this Male Quartette has scored splendid successes. They are young men of class and spirit. They want to please and bend their energies to that end. There are always many encores at a Weatherwax entertainment. The people can't get enough of their work. Refinement, culture and real musical ability combine in this quartette to a degree that assures their success being complete everywhere.

One careful observer, after hearing them a number of times remarked, "One is reminded of open field work when he watches a Weatherwax performance. There is the strong individuality and the constant suggestion of team work as well. Every time one comes up to bat, you expect him to make a home run." The care with which their programs are arranged—with serious and humorous selections in proper variety and relation—caused another critic to characterize their work as "wholesome and lively, put together just right."

In addition to all the usual musical numbers, solos and catchy encores the Trumpet Quartette of this organization is a most pleasing feature. There is a dash and spirit to it that is refreshing and a heroic element that appeals to everyone.

Nowadays no quartette is considered complete without a reader of ability, but the Weatherwax Quartette is fortunate enough to have two, both of whom are artists of high grade. The truth is that every feature presented by this splendid organization of brothers is delivered with the grace and ease that distinguish the work of professionals from that of amateurs. They will be welcomed by enthusiastic thousands throughout the territory of the Western Redpath Chautauqua System, where their time is all taken for the coming season.
