FIFTY THOUSAND KNIGHTS PARADE

Brilliant Climax of Templars' Conclave in Chicago.

TRIENNIAL A BIG SUCCESS.

Acting Grand Master Melish in Command and Noted Masons From Different Parts of the World Present.

Chicago.—Fifty thousand Knights Templar, garbed in the handsome uniform of the order, wearing its glittering jewels and carrying drawn swords, marched through elaborately decorated streets of Chicago Tuesday, Aug. 9, passing beneath great arches and before a reviewing stand four blocks long, crowded with the leading officials of the order and the wives and families of the sir knights. Forty-two brass bands made music for the marchers, and all along the route they were cheered by the thousands of people who had assembled to witness the spectacle.

This magnificent parade was the climax, in a spectacular way, of the thirty-first triennial conclave of Knights Templar, which opened here on Sunday, Aug. 7. In accordance with the time honored custom of the grand encampment, the goings of the week began with divine service.

Begin With Divine Service.

The sir knights selected Orchestra hall for this purpose and entirely filled the body of that hall to listen to a length, and this needed no decorations, for it was filled to its capacity mainly with ladies whose beautiful summer costumes made it like a vast garden. About 50,000 persons were in this immense stand, as at its center was a gorgeous throne on which sat the acting grand master, William Bromwell Melish of Cincinnati, who became head of the order on the recent death of Grand Master Henry W. Rugg of Providence, R. I. Mr. Melish will be regularly elected grand master before the close of the conclave.

Just north of the Art Institute the parade passed before another reviewing stand in which were Mayor Busse, the city council and the park commissioners.

Beautiful "Templar Way."

At Washington street the marchers turned west to State, where they entered on the "Templar Way." This stretch extended from Randolph to Van Buren street and was made beautiful by a handsome arch and massive Corinthian columns of pure white erected thirty-three feet apart on both sides of the street. Festoons of natural laurel connected the columns, and the bright red cross and the shield and coat of arms of the order were prominent in the scheme of decoration.

Moving south to Jackson boulevard, the knights again turned west, and near the federal building passed before yet another reviewing stand which accommodated Governor Denen and his staff. Marching north on La Salle street, the parade passed beneath the grand commandery arch of pure white which spanned the street at the La Salle hotel, the headquarters of the grand commandery of Illinois. This was a beautiful structure designed by one of Chicago's most famous sculptors. Upon its top stood the figures of mounted knights fourteen feet high. At the new city hall on Washington street the parade was

E. R. F. Starr has sold a quarter section of land near Diller to Peter Kerten for $20,000.

Ed Williams, the man in whose possession were found several pairs of kipp shoes which he was trying to dispose of during the carnival at Plattsmouth, has, it is said, confessed that he was a car robber.

A Scotts Bluff dispatch says the headgates of all the canals in the valley are now open again and the ditches are carrying a full head of water. Farmers from over the valley who are attending the Chautauqua say that crops are looking fine again, and while no bumper crop is expected, the field will give better than the average yield.

Arthur Nelson of Fairbury, the Rock Island fireman, who was prostrated by heat July 16, near Clatonia, is able to be around again. Mr. Nelson was firing a large 800-ton type passenger locomotive on a passenger train when he was overcome. Engineer John A. Cuykendall got a negro porter from the train to fire the locomotive at Fairbury, thereby overcoming the delay.

A young woman alighted from one of the trains at Wisner and was trying to find some place to stay for the night when she was reported to the city marshal and placed in the city jail. Her cries for water were heard for blocks until after midnight. The next morning she was found dead on the floor of the cell. The coroner's verdict was death by an overdose of cocaine.

The big steam derrick used in the construction of the addition to the government building in Beatrice, collapsed and came very near killing a number of workmen. One thousand pounds of stone were being hoisted at the time of the accident, and the first intimation the workmen had of a break in the structure was the snapping of a cable which supported the "stiff legs."

Mrs. David Ireland of Fairbury recently received word from her brother, John H. Mitcham of Spokane, Wash., that his home and its household goods were destroyed by fire July 10. It is said that the family escaped with their night clothing and their 4-months-old baby was rescued only by the heroic efforts of its mother. The value of the property amounted to about $4,000.

The office of the Tecumseh Milling company was broken into as was also the office at L. S. Crittenden's grain elevator. At the mill office the intruder or intruders got $1.75 in money from the safe and took a few little articles such as a pocketknife, etc. The burglar, or burglars, were evidently not satisfied with the haul for they took two bottles of writing ink, one black and one red, and smeared them over the walls and desks.

Peter Adam Young, aged 30 years, and the son of John Young, one of the wealthiest of North Nebraska farmers, was arrested in Madison county on a warrant issued by his father, charging the theft of $5,000 in $90 gold pieces, from a metal pot, which the elder Young kept in his home. The son recently bought an automobile, arousing the family's suspicions, and when they missed the $5,000 in gold, he was searched and a quantity of gold found in his pocket.

W. H. Wheeler's new touring car, stolen from his barn in Stella was found in a corn field owned by Arthur McGinnis, four miles from Stella. McGinnis was cutting weeds and was attracted by a white object, and, as he approached, found it to be an open newspaper, and then found an automobile, whose presence was shielded by being covered over by freshly cut corn stalks. There was a man with the machine, but he made his escape, afterward stealing a horse and buggy to make a quick and successful getaway.

The Bridgeport Electric Light and Power company was organized with a capital of $50,000, all of which has been subscribed by home people. An up-to-date plant will be installed at once and the city will vote on a proposition to issue bonds for putting in a water system.

Jerry McGan, better known as "Wild Horse Jerry" and a fourteen year old girl named Thompson were killed by some one from ambush in Colorado south of Kimball, this state. The Thompson girl who was riding with McGan, was killed accidentally. Walt Rising, who was suspected of the killing, gave himself up to the authorities at Greeley, Colo.

News has reached Alliance of the suicide of a well known resident, Ed Elter, a young man, who is a favorably known there, committed suicide at Denver by shooting himself in the head with a rifle. Extensive preparations were being made for his marriage to a popular and wealthy young woman of Denver. Elter was very popular in Alliance, and nobody seems to be able to conjecture the cause of his suicide.

WHERE HE SAW RESEMBLANCE

Apt Remark of Small Boy Embarrassed Toper and Filled Car With Merriment.

Jimmie, who is a very small boy living in the East end, accompanied his mother downtown several days ago. Nearly everything he saw was quite new to him, so he was not sparing in his comments and opinions and questions.

Seated opposite Jimmie and his mother on the car homebound was an individual who, judging by the "blossom" on his nose, had partaken freely of joy water. None of Jimmie's neighbors possessed an appendage that could compare with the one across the aisle.

In silence Jimmie took in the situation and the "blossom." His thoughts must have grown so curious that they could not be withheld any longer and he finally blurted out in a loud voice: "Mamma, is that Santa Claus?" pointing to the man with the red nose.

Embarrassed, Jimmie's mother tried to silence her son, but it was no use. In an audible whisper the connection between the man and Santa Claus was disclosed much to the discomfiture of the man.

"Why, mamma, didn't it say in that story about Santa Claus that Santa had a nose like a cherry," he asked, and the car was in an uproar.—Pittsburg Times-Gazette.

SCRATCHED SO SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

"I write to tell you how thankful I am for the wonderful Cuticura Remedies. My little niece had eczema for five years and when her mother died I took care of the child. It was all over her face and body, also on her head. She scratched so that she could not sleep nights. I used Cuticura Soap to wash her with and then applied Cuticura Ointment. I did not use quite half the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, together with Cuticura Resolvent, when you could see a change and they cured her nicely. Now she is eleven years old and has never been bothered with eczema since. My friends think it is just great the way the baby was cured by Cuticura. I send you a picture taken when she was about 18 months old.

"She was taken with the eczema when two years old. She was covered with big sores and her mother had all the best doctors and tried all kinds of salves and medicines without effect until we used Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. H. Kiernan, 663 Quincey St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1909."
