ACTION OF STATE TREASURES

State Normal Board Will Endeavor to Collect From Crabtree—Other Matters at the State Capital.

Will Endeavor to Collect.

The state normal board will endeavor to collect from J. W. Crabtree for two barrels of gasoline bought when he was at the head of the Peru State normal and which, it is alleged, were never delivered to the school and have resorted to the text book fund $997.43 which Crabtree paid out in interest without orders from the board. The matter was referred to the attorney general to take such steps as may be necessary to secure this money. The money paid out in interest by Crabtree was interest on money borrowed with which teachers were paid pending the decision of the supreme court in the legality of the law which created a new normal board. The auditor, on advice of the legal department, would recognize neither board so he refused to issue any warrants for the payment of the teachers until the court decided which board was the legal one.

State Treasurer Brian has succeeded in caring for practically all of the applicants for the sale of bonds to the state by the various school districts and cities of Nebraska. When money was plentiful and investments hard to find for state funds, the treasurer bought $300,000 of Douglas county court house bonds. Shortly thereafter the eastern markets tightened up and the small towns of the state began to issue bonds for internal improvements. Then when they applied to the state treasurer for funds he could do nothing for them and they could not place the securities in the east. The Douglas county bonds looked good to eastern buyers, so Mr. Brian took the case up with those who had city securities for sale, with the result that he has now, with the assistance of the various cities, placed practically all of the Douglas county bonds in the east and has bought as an investment for the state the bonds issued by the school districts and the small towns. These bonds net the state 4 1/2 per cent annually and at the same time this rate is lower than the towns would have to pay, were the bonds floated elsewhere.

May Make no Appointment.

W. T. Thompson, attorney general, who was recently appointed to a position in the treasury department at Washington, has leased his house here and expects to go to Washington about the first of October. It is probable Mr. Thompson will not resign his office as attorney general, and that if he does do so Governor Shallenberger will not fill the vacancy until after election. The governor and Mr. Thompson have become good friends, and because of this the office may not be declared vacant.

Committee Announced.

Chairman Husenett of the republican state central committee announced the appointment of the following executive committee: First district, S. W. Burnham, Lincoln; Second district, A. W. Jefferis, Omaha; Third district, Clark Mapes, Norfolk; Fourth district, Burke Robinson, Fairmont; Fifth district, H. G. Thomas, Harvard; Sixth district, T. T. Varney, Ainsley.

Lots of Sheep on Exhibit.

Secretary Mellor of the state fair board announced that the sheep entries at this time numbered 460, the largest entry in many years. In fact, this is three times as many sheep as have been exhibited at the fair since the early days, if not in the history of the association.

Demand for Homes.

Honors Iowa Requisition.

Charles Brown had to go back to Iowa to the county of Polk to stand trial on a charge of wife desertion. Governor Shallenberger honored a requisition issued by the governor of Iowa for his return. Brown was under arrest at Omaha.

Pays Money to Douglas.

State Treasurer Brian paid to Douglas county $150,000 and took over that amount of court house bonds. This is a portion of the $300,000 purchase made some months ago.

FOR STATE SENATE.

List of Nominees for the Upper House.

Following is a list of nominees for the state senate. By this it is shown that twenty-four of the thirty-three democratic candidates for the state senate have signed statement number one under the Oregon primary law, promising to vote for the people's choice for United States senator. Thirteen republicans have made the same pledge. This is indicated by a star preceding the names.

A list of nominees for the lower house, not given herewith, shows that seventy-five of the 100 democratic candidates and forty-seven republicans signed the statement. In ten senate districts and thirty-eight house districts both signed it and in six senate districts and fourteen house districts neither signed it.

He was sixty-five years and ten months of age. When the porter stepped into the sleeper at Alliance to wake him, as requested, he found him dead.

PRESENT BOTH SIDES

SENATOR BEVERIDGE AND J. J. HILL SPEAK AT ST. PAUL.

PINCHOT RECEIVES OVATION

Says We Are One Nation, Not Forty. Six Nations — Mr. Hill Sees Many Dangers in Federal Control.

St. Paul.—With the dazzling presidential and ex-presidential luminaries shedding their powerful rays elsewhere, the light of the national conservation congress became visible Wednesday.

The two sessions, addressed by James J. Hill, Senator Beveridge, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and others were well attended and enthusiastic.

Mr. Hill let fall showers of epigrams at the expense of the national government and was applauded.

Senator Beveridge waxed eloquent to quite a different purpose, but the crowd noisily approved.

State Fair a Record Breaker.

Lincoln.—With 44,440 people on the grounds Wednesday, the state fair of 1910 made its fourth record-breaking day. Every day so far this season has eclipsed others of history in attendance figures. Sunday, 1910, was ahead of Sunday of last year by about 500. Monday beat Mondays of other years by about 9,000, and Tuesday was over 3,000 ahead of high Tuesdays in other years. Wednesday was better than the high Wednesday of 1908 by over 800. The total attendance for the fair already exceeds that of last year by 4,000, with two days yet to run.

Nominated, Although Dead.

Milwaukee.—Frank Tucker of Neillsville, though dead, has been nominated on the LaFollette state ticket for the office of attorney general by a plurality estimated at 10,000.

Tucker was drowned in a mysterious manner in the Fox river at Oshkosh on Thursday morning last when at a time he was supposed to be on his way to catch a train.

Woman Wins Nomination.

Ashland, Wis.—By a vote larger than the combined votes of her two male opponents, Nellie M. Archibald, a widow supporting several small children, was nominated at the primaries for treasurer of Ashland county. Her nomination is equivalent to an election.

Earthquake Shock Felt.

Washington.—An earthquake, believed to have been 4,500 miles away, was recorded on the seismograph at Georgetown university. The tremors, which lasted from 3:14 to 3:35 o'clock, were very slight and in an east and west direction.

Postal Savings Bank Bonds.

Washington.—Postal savings bank bonds are being prepared by the treasury department. The designs have been approved, and when the postal banks are ready for deposits the bureau of printing and engraving will have the bonds finished. When a depositor has accumulated twenty dollars in a postal bank, drawing 2 per cent interest, by request that sum may be converted into a bond bearing 2 1/2 per cent interest.

Floods in Japan.

Tokio.—Serious floods threaten the cities of Osaka and Kobe on the island of Hondo. River banks are collapsing and much damage is probable.

High water also is doing serious damage in the northern part of the Matin island.

Strike Was Costly.

Philadelphia.—According to a report submitted to the board of directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, the strike of the conductors and motormen in the early part of the year cost the company $2,300,000.

City Will Run Plant.

Denver.—By a vote of three to one this city has voted bonds to the amount of $8,000,000 for the purpose of constructing a municipal water plant.

Nine Deaths from Cholera.

Rome.—During the last twenty-four hours six cases of cholera and nine deaths from the disease were officially announced.

Preparing an Innovation.

Washington.—Census Director Durand is preparing for an innovation in the publication of detailed information regarding the results of the last census. Instead of grouping the information according to subjects as heretofore has been done, he will present all information regarding the people of a given county or city under one heading. Carrying this plan into execution, he will begin the publication of state bulletins about the first of the year.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My trouble dates back to the time that women may expect nature to bring on them the Change of Life. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel much better, and I have continued its use. I am very grateful to you for the good health I am now enjoying."—Mrs. SARAH LOUISIGNON, 414 S. Livingston Street, Brookfield, Mo.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

HIS COMEBACK.

Mr. Henpeck—I don't want you to put "Requiescat in pace" on my wife's tombstone. Make it "Requiesco in pace."

Stonemason—But that means "I rest in peace."

Mr. Henpeck—I know, and I want you to sign it "Husband."

Slightly Confused.

All of us become confused and all of us mix our language sometimes, but the preparation of an old negro preacher's sermon was the greatest confusion of metaphors I ever heard. says a traveler. When the lengthy discourse was nearing its close and he had reached his "Twenty-third and lastly, brethren," he wound up by the following elaborate figure: "Everywha, bredren, we see de almighty—all down de untrodden paths of time, we see de footprints of de Almighty hand."—Human Life.

Where Size Counts.

Edna thoughtfully considered a cow that was calmly grazing in a meadow across the way. "Mamma, how old is that cow?" she finally inquired. "She is four years old," answered Edna's mother. Edna considered the answer and from time to time appeared to be comparing herself with the cow. "Well," was her parting comment on the question, "I'm five and that cow is big enough to be fifty."
