CUSTER COLLEGE NOTES.

The literary program given Monday evening at the college is said to be the best one yet. If they keep on improving as they have the last few times we will have a literary that will be enjoyed by all who want to hear and see some good talent.

The foot ball boys were very much disappointed on last Friday when they learned that 43 would not stop for them at Dunning.

The girls basket ball club is doing some fine work this week and will have a strong team if they continue to practice.

Mr. Harmon was absent from school Tuesday on account of a very bad case of ear-ache.

Merlin Vannice was absent from school for a short time owing to a severe case of blood poison which started in his little finger caused from a sand-bur being lodged there a short time before.

Mr. Davolt was welcomed back to school Monday by all the boys after an absence of four weeks.

If you want to buy, sell or trade property of any kind or if you want to hire help place an ad in the Republican. We have already had a number of inquiries of various kinds but not knowing your desires we are unable to answer.

Come and see me or write me about that sale. W. H. O'Rourke, general auctioneer, Phone 409. Broken Bow, Neb.

Union Thanksgiving services next week at the Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Doward of the Christian church will preach the sermon and the music will be furnished by the various churches of the city.

BROKEN BOW VS CALLAWAY Easy Walk-away For Broken Bow Huskies.

The foot ball game last Friday between Broken Bow and Callaway was certainly a whirlwind game. The two teams were just foot ball players not regular organized teams. Never-the-less the game was fast and furious and of short duration. After fifteen minutes work the Callaway boys refused to finish the game, the score being 20 to 0 in favor of Broken Bow.

Frank Martin Dead.

Frank Martin who has been a resident of the city for the past three years was found dead in bed last Monday morning about 4 o'clock by his wife. From reports it appears that he had a vomiting spell in the evening previous and retired about ten o'clock.

Sometime after his wife discovered his condition she called in some of the neighbors. No inquest was held. He was a man in good circumstances financially. Besides owning his home in the city he owned a farm in the vicinity of Rose valley.

His remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery west of the city Tuesday.

Our State Treasurer Elected.

It is with great pleasure that we have the honor of mentioning our fellow townsman Walter A. George as elected to the office of state treasurer. We feel that in presenting Mr. George for this high position of trust that the people of the state have selected one of Nebraska's most able financiers, a staunch republican and a gentleman in every respect. A man who is a success in life both socially and financially.

Rasmus Anderson Elected.

Rasmus Anderson one of Broken Bow's leading business men was elected to the office of supervisor in district No. 3. While Ras, as he is familiarly known among his friends, is a wholesome, bully good fellow, and with a smile and a good word for everybody, he is firm yet conservative in business matters. He is a true blue republican, a man who stands for a square deal and who will fill the office to which he has been elected without fear or favor to the best interest of Custer county.

Fast Time For The Burlington.

The all purpose team used by the Burlington hotel people endeavored to show their appreciation of good cars Wednesday morning by doing a high speed stunt for a few blocks. The dash ended near the railroad tracks. No one hurt and very little damage to "rolling stock."

Social

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will give a progressive social on Friday evening, November 25th, round trip tickets twenty five cents. Meet at the home of Miss Eva Green at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

The Broken Bow foot ball team will go to Ord tomorrow. We will publish the score next week.

Earl Brink, the reliable piano tuner will be in Broken Bow on next week. Leave orders at Ryerson's.

U. C. Street, J. W. Scott and Geo. Papineau loaded their household goods for Francis, Tex., Saturday.

Your attention is called to THE CITY BAKERY announcement elsewhere in this issue. Get busy and win a prize.

I want your order for hay, straw, grain or feed of any kind. Bring me your cream. W. H. O'Rourke. Phone 409.

John Tierney who is living on a homestead in Logan county was in the city Tuesday transacting business in the land office.

It is stated from Washington that food prices are declining. Don't forget to add this to your "To be Thankful for" next Thursday.

In Beatrice a bootlegger was fined $300.00 this week. Hilarity comes high but it seems to be a necessity in some localities.

Fred Ebert, B. J. and C. F. Tierney were doing business at the Tierney Bros. ranch in Logan county the fore part of this week.

The Rebekah Kensington is now prepared to do plain sewing or the comforts. Anyone wanting work of this kind done phone No. 286 or 59 or bring work to I. O. O. F. hall on Friday afternoons.

That 10 cent window at Strongs Variety Store last Saturday was a good one and was well cleaned out. Watch for another one next Saturday afternoon. There will be big bargains there and they will please you.

Workmen are busy this week remodeling the entrance of the M. E. church. This improvement will add greatly to the appearance of the building.

Hang up your stockings? Ofcourse you will. Just tell your friends they can find lots of Christmas goods at Strongs Variety Store. Look through their "ad" in this paper and then come down to the store and see the goods.

Dr. P. C. Nelson and Prof. N. D. Wood of Indianola, Iowa, will help in a series of evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church beginning Nov. 27. Dr. Nelson is a preacher of power and Prof. Wood is a trained gospel singer who gets hold of the hearts of the people. All are cordially invited to these services.

God Bless Our Dad.
We happened into a house the other night, and over the parlor door saw the legend worked in letters of red, "What is Home Without a Mother." Across the room was another brief, "God Bless Our Home."

Now what's the matter with "God Bless Our Dad!" He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, and wipes the dew off the lawn with his boots while many a mother is sleeping. He makes the weekly hand out to the butcher, the milkman and the baker, and his little pile is badly demolished before he has been home an hour.

If there is a noise in the night, Dad is kicked in the back and made to go down stairs and find the burglar and kill him. Mother darns the socks, but Dad bought the socks and yarn afterwards. Mother does up the fruit Dad bought it all, and jars and sugar cost like the mischief.

Dad buys the chicken for Sunday dinner serves them himself, and draws the neck from the ruins after everybody else is served. "What is Home Without a Mother Yes?" that's alright but "What is Home Without a father?" Then chances to one its a boarding house; father is under a slab, and the landlady is the widow. Dad, here's to you! You've got your faults, you may have lots of 'em, but you're alright and we'll miss you when you're gone.—Stolen.
