Senator Bartley (Texas) says he never sinned against the principals of democracy. Hard to offend anything you can't find.

The legislature promises a drought for Nebraska but of a sort that will make pork and beef out of corn, instead of turning it to "personal liberty."

If the democrats of Illinois had enlisted the support of the W. C. T. U. in the recent campaign there would be no necessity for the French Lick Springs camp meeting held last week.

The Callaway Courier-Tribune says "let the farmers draw the next lines for division" now if the Tribune speaks for Callaway, county division is over and old Custer county will remain as it is and as it should be, in one hunk.

Whiskey has been causing fights for ages but now that Nebraska has a good chance of going dry. A water fight is promised that will interest the Platte river farmers tributary to North Platte, Cozad and Lexington. Even the water wagon comes high.

Before election its always a guess but after election its the real thing. You know who the fellow is and sidestepping don't go. We are now living in a progressive up-to-the-minute age and the fellow who mad promises to "get there" will have to deliver the dope or "go way back and sit down."

Some body put grease on the poll and the cost of living is slipping down, but Dr. Wiley thinks some matt will put sand on the axis of existence and let 'em climb up again. Then comes uncle Jim Wilson with a statement that there's plenty of grub and if some "personal liberty" feller don't block the game between producer and consumer we can all fill up by spring.

Willard F. Bailey, secretary of the Nebraska Capital Removal association, will call a meeting of the executive committee at either Kearney or Broken Bow soon to perfect the organization of a legislative committee and to consider other uncomplete work. The fight will be pushed to a finish.—Ex.

Broken Bow capital of Nebraska Wouldn't that swell your thoughts? It may happen.

When a town is growing so rapidly that its schools become crowded to such an extent that some of the young people of school age are unable to get on the student rolls. That a new thirty-five thousand dollar school building just about completed will not accommodate those wanting an education. We think there is some prospects of a bright future. That's Broken Bow and for all we know may be the capital of Nebraska some day.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE

Broken Bow Mothers Should Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children

Most children have weak kidneys. The earliest warning is bed-wetting. Later comes backache, headache, languor.

This is a mistake to neglect these troubles. To blame the child for its own distress.

Seek to cure the kidneys—Save the child from deadly kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Broken Bow parents recommend them.

Mrs. J. W. Jones, of Broken Bow, Neb., says: "The public statement I gave in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in July 1907, still holds good. I then said that our little girl was greatly troubled from childhood by a kidney weakness and that nothing helped her until she used Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of two boxes of this remedy effected a cure and I am glad to say that there has been no recurrence of the trouble. We procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Haerberle's Drug Store and they not only corrected the kidney weakness, but acted as a tonic to the entire system."

30 YEARS OF SUCCESS

Albert H. Souders offers a remedy For Catarrh. The Medicine Costs Nothing if It Fails

When a medicine effects a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases and when we offer that medicine on our own personal guarantee that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe us, or at least put our claim to a practical test when we take all the risk. We want them to try Rexall Mucu-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of enviable success to his record.

We receive more good reports about Rexall Mucu-Tone, than we do of all other catarrh remedies sold in our store, and if more people only knew what a thoroughly dependable remedy Rexall Mucu-Tone is, it would be the only catarrh remedy we would have any demand for.

Rexall Mucu-Tone is quietly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disinfect and cleanse the entire mucous membrane tract, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the membranous tissues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong healthy tissue and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter. Its influence is toward stimulating the mucous-cells aiding digestion and improving nutrition until the whole body vibrates with healthy activity in a comparatively short time. It brings about a noticeable gain in strength, good color and feeling of buoyancy.

We urge you to try Rexall Mucu-Tone, beginning a treatment today. At any time you are not satisfied, simply come and tell us, and we will quickly return your money with out question or quibble. We have Rexall Mucu-Tone in two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall remedies in Broken Bow only at our store.—The Rexall Store. Albert H. Souders.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS

THANKSGIVING DAY

Formally Designates Thursday, November 24, as Day to Rejoice at Benefits.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 11.—In his official Thanksgiving day proclamation Governor Shallenberger congratulates the state that it has kept step with industrial and civic progress. He says "We have found ourselves today the recipients of unusual bounty from the hand of Providence."

In his formal statement, in which he designates Thursday, November 24, as Thanksgiving day, he says:

"In conformity with long established custom, and in accordance with the proclamation issued by the president of the United States, setting apart a day for the especial purpose of expressing our gratitude to a beneficent and almighty Creator for manifold favors bestowed upon us as a state and as a people, I hereby designate Thursday, November 24, Thanksgiving day, doing so by the authority in me vested by law as governor of Nebraska.

"It is meet and proper that we of Nebraska pause in our daily pursuits to express our gratitude to Almighty God for the bounty he has bestowed upon us and upon our state. Our fields and orchards have brought forth abundantly; the wheels of our industries have been kept busy; tranquility has found an abiding place in the hearts of our people; our beloved commonwealth has kept step with the onward march of civil and industrial progress, and we find our selves today the recipients of unusual bounty from the hand of Providence.

"That we may give proper voice to our thanks to all these blessings, I recommend that no business be transacted upon that day and date above set forth, and I earnestly urge the people of Nebraska to make appropriate observance of the occasion by profound devotion and reverent thanks to Almighty God."

Both Teams Win.

Both the High School and Custer College foot ball teams won out-of-town victories last Friday. The former team autoed to Ord and defeated the high school of that place with a score of 26 to 0; while the college boys used the same conveyance to Sargent and played a hotly contested game with the city team of that place, which resulted in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of the college. The two teams belonging to the high school, and the college team, are putting in long hours and plenty of extra work, so that they may close the season on Thanksgiving day in a blaze of glory. All three of the elevens have played good ball during the season, the high school boys being particularly successful.

Woodmen Are Getting Busy

At the last meeting of Custer Camp 4477M. W. A. two prizes were offered to members bringing in the most applications for beneficiary membership between now and Feb. 1, 1911. The first prize will be a gold watch neatly engraved with the emblem of the order on the back. The second will be a gold ring. The Woodmen do not hesitate to tell prospective members that they will "get a good run for their money" when the "goat" time comes. The contest now on promises to furnish excitement galore and add to the membership.

Rebekah Kensington

The Rebekah Kensington society which was recently reorganized met in the Odd Fellows hall last Friday afternoon with a good representation of the membership present. The afternoon was profitably spent in making comforts for ladies of this city. The Odd Fellows home at York which is now in course of construction will be completed within a year and the ladies of the several lodges throughout the state are doing good work and expect to be able to furnish a number of rooms in the home with the money earned by the sewing societies. We understand they will do all kinds of plain sewing.

Important.

The amusement of children is often a problem for everybody and always a study to the conservative mind. We wish to call attention to one form of past time practiced by some of our little boys and ask you to consider the dangerous chances they are taking almost daily. We refer to the little fellows catching on the rear end of wagons and buggies that are being driven along the streets. It is not only good judgment but very necessary for a driver to look ahead and on a busy street he has no time to look to the rear of his wagon. A short time ago a little boy was killed in Lincoln by an automobile. He had been riding on the rear end of a coal wagon and the driver did not know he was on the wagon until some time after he had jumped off the wagon and been killed. We have a number of automobiles in our city and just such an accident could occur here although a word of suggestion might prevent it.

Let Train Cut His Foot Off

It is not a very uncommon thing for persons to become discouraged and throw themselves before a moving train with the intent to commit suicide, but for one to deliberately poke his foot under the wheels of a moving train and thus have it amputated is something seldom if ever heard of until the other day when a tramp performed the act between Juniata and Kenesaw. The man who did the foolish act told the following story to a reporter of a newspaper who interviewed him after the occurrence:

"My name is Sam Childs; I was thirty years old October 20; my parents live at Leoti, Kansas. I was born in Tennessee. When my brother and myself were old enough to work a little my father became cranky and grew worse as we grew older. I got out of bed once at midnight and ran away, but later returned on the advice of my friends, only to be driven away again. I have been a wanderer for fifteen years riding freight trains and expecting to lose my life. I did this act October 24th of my own free will in accordance with the catholic Bible. My parents had no more religion than dogs and I had never been baptized, so I baptized myself with my own blood, having no one to help me. First I removed my old shoe, rolled down my sock and pulled up my pants and drawers and when the train whistled for the bridge I stuck my right foot across the rail. Zip! and it was done. Then I pulled myself around the abutment of the bridge and let her bleed awhile and then checked the flow with my garters and pulled my drawers and my pants over the stub; I was forced out of hiding in the weeds the following day by thirst and discovered by the section men. This is all I care to say."—EX.

Gasoline Explosion.

What might have been a serious accident and loss of life occurred at the Thompson home Tuesday evening. Miss Zoa generated the gasoline flat-iron, so she went to call her mother, who was standing out in front of the store. Mrs. Thompson quickly ran into the kitchen where the iron was all ablaze, but seeing the danger ran out of the room and closed the door when a fearful explosion occurred. Miss Virdle Wilson was about to enter the room but Mrs. Thompson told her not to go in, just before the explosion. Had either been in the room they would have been killed. The partitions were all blown out of place, doors burst and a chimney torn loose from the wall and other damage done, and all caused by the explosion of about an ounce of gasoline. Dr. Thompson informs that the damage will amount to $100.—Oconto Register.
