Mr. Sanders of the Dining Hall, went to Lincoln and Omaha, Tuesday morning, for the purpose of buying heating apparatus, wall paper, etc., with which to beautify and make more comfortable the Hall.

Mrs. N. Burtless called at this office on Monday prepaid her subscription one year, and also had THE TRIBUNE sent to her father in New York state for the same period of time. Thanks. Come and do thou likewise.

We learn from the Plattsmouth Herald that Mr. C. A. Fletcher, the gentleman who was run down by the engine at Akron, died the following day, and that his remains were sent to his former home in the east by express.

Two runaway boys from Lincoln arrived in McCook, Monday, and the following day, the brother of the one, named Church, came and took his young brother back with him. The other young Arab decided to sojourn amongst us.

A minister whose name and residence we have been unable to ascertain, preached to a fair audience in the church, Monday evening. After the sermon, the congregation was favored with a few remarks by a colored brother from Nebraska City.

J. M. Edmiston, state agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, has been in McCook for several days representing the interests of his company. Mr Edmiston is a clever gentleman, and succeeded in writing several policies.

Another social dance was held in the Band Hall, Wednesday evening, which was enjoyed by quite a number of our people. "Dan Tucker" was the cause of much merriment. Notice was given that a regular social club would be organized at the next meeting in two weeks. Let there be a good attendance on that occasion.

J. B. Meserve has purchased Wm. Stoddert's herd of cattle, numbering about 410 head. This is a large transaction for this time of the year, amounting to almost $10,000. With this addition to Mr. Meserve's herd, he will winter about 800 head—quite a "little bunch," over which his son, has chief control.

Two men supposed by their actions and description given of them, to have been the parties who committed the robberies in McCook, last week, boarded the train at this place, Sunday night. Both of these jumped off the train before it reached Denver; one about a mile from the city, and the other at the stock yards. Their attempt at disguise looks suspicious, at least.

An attempt was made to wreck No. 1, Wednesday night, at a bridge between Arapahoe and Oxford. A tie was placed in an upright position between the cross-ties on the bridge, but was cut in two by the cow-catcher of the locomotive. The pieces were brought to town. It is surmised by some that the object was robbery, there being $7,000 consigned to the Citizen's Bank of McCook on the train.

Steam was raised in the engine at the water works on Tuesday, but the pump did not work satisfactorily. Wednesday afternoon, the pump was again tested and after considerable trouble the pump was put in shape and did its work nicely. A number of our citizens are having pipes laid into their residences, and will soon be enjoying the luxury of having water in their dwellings and business places.

Standing advertisements in a paper command confidence. The man who for years resides in one community and lives a reputable life, even though he be of moderate ability, will grow into the confidence and esteem of his fellows. On the same principle a newspaper becomes familiar in the eyes of the reader. It may be seldom carefully read, still it makes the name and business of a man or firm familiar, and its continued presence in the columns of a paper inspires confidence in the stability of the advertiser.—Ex.

G. A. Buckman, a colored preacher of Nebraska City, stopped off at McCook, Monday, on his return from the west, where he has been preaching, since June, to raise money to pay the indebtedness of the colored Baptist congregation at Nebraska City. He reports meeting with many discouragements. In Georgetown, they informed him that were he petitioning for a saloon, they would give him $5 or $10. At Akron he preached in the Eating House, and during prayer, the "boys" dealt him a hand, and offered to raise him a $1.

Hear the Lecture.
The McCook Band proposes to open the season of literary entertainments in McCook with a lecture to be delivered by Major R. H. Criswell of Indianola, at the band hall in McCook on Wednesday evening, October 17th, entitled, "Success in life! What is it?" It is understood that this is an entirely new and original lecture, and that "the problem of life" is discussed and shown up in a new light; and being delivered in Major Criswell's forcible style, will certainly make a literary entertainment of high order and one which ought to draw a crowded house. Price of admission, 35 cents. Tickets on sale at the B. & M. Pharmacy. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

WATER.
All persons wishing water put in their houses, will please notify W. F. Wallace at Citizen's Bank, immediately.

How the Union Central Life Ins. Co., of Cincinnati Pay their Losses.

J. M. Edmiston of Lincoln, State Agent for Nebraska, is now in town in the interests of this old and reliable company. All parties who feel interested in life insurance should examine this plan.

Oakland, Ill., Sept. 17, 1883.
W. R. JOHNSON, Gen. Ag't Union Central Life Insurance Company.

DEAR SIR: I wish to give my heartfelt thanks, through you, to the company you represent, for their kind and courteous treatment and the payment of the $5,000 policy on the life of my late husband, James Routledge, the claim being paid before it became due. I can cheerfully recommend the company for promptness, and I would earnestly advise my friends and neighbors to patronize this deserving company. I shall always remember the Union Central Life Ins. Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, with grateful feelings, and cordially wish it abundant success. Yours truly,
FLORENCE ROUTLEDGE.

Headed this Way.

The Council Bluffs Herald of last Saturday made mention of a long procession of teams which passed through that city on their way to Lincoln, Nebraska. Yesterday the Plattsmouth Herald announced that this train of wagons had arrived there. To-day the "out-fit" reached this city. It was the longest caravan seen since early days of homesteaders on the move, and together with a railroad contractor's outfit, which came in at the same time, was fully a mile long. Most of the homeseeking party are bound for the Republican valley. The R. R. section is engaged for work on the B. & M. extensions, west and southwest.—Lincoln News.

And in a few days more the party will be scattering through the Republican Valley, the land of cheap homes, and where the poor get rich if they only stick.

HEART DISEASE!

CURED BY

Dr. Rush's Regulator,

FOR HEART TROUBLES.

Wm. G. Osgoodly, the well-known safe manufacturer of Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Newark, and Atlanta, Ga., says:
Office of Osgoodly's Improved Safes, 17 S. Broad St., New York, N. Y., October 12th, 1883.
Dr. Rush's Medical Association:
DEAR DOCTORS:—The three bottles of "Dr. Rush's Regulator" I ordered were received by express last week. I have taken nearly one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied with the result. For over two years I have been troubled with sharp pains in the heart. My physician, upon examination, pronounced it enlargement of the heart and was unable to give me any relief. The trouble grew worse until I had become convinced that I could not be cured. While in New York City, last week, I called upon one of the most prominent physicians there, who examined me for an examination and then recommended your "Regulator." Knowing you to be a regular Medical Association, and not a patent medicine salesman, I purchased the three bottles. I have not been troubled since I commenced taking it, but shall continue and take the entire three bottles so as to obtain a permanent cure. You have my sincere thanks.
I am, gentlemen, Very respectfully,
Wm. G. OSGOODLY.

Dr. Rush's Regulator has never failed to give relief. It has been used successfully for years in relieving the most stubborn cases of heart difficulties. A positive cure for Enlargement, Palpitation, Pleuritic and Puffy Degeneration of the heart. Price, $1.00 per bottle; six for $5.00. Sold by druggists, or sent direct by Dr. RUSH'S MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, New York, N. Y., U. S. A.
