RHEUMATISM!

Immediate Relief in all Cases by

Dr. Rush's

BLOOD ROOT OIL

Cured of Rheumatism in 2 Hours.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2, 1882.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN.—I have been troubled with rheumatism for two years. I tried all the best advertised oils and liniments, and many first-class physicians without relief. The last Dr. I visited recommended Dr. Rush's "Blood Root Oil." I purchased a large bottle for fifty cents, and applied it. In two hours I was relieved and now I am entirely well. Its effects are wonderful, and I believe it the only thing in the world which will cure rheumatism.

Truly yours, JOHN HUTCHINSON,
89 Erie St., Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. RUSH'S BLOOD ROOT OIL

has no equal in the world as a Liniment or Oil. It is a cheap, safe, simple and sure external remedy for man and beast. It never fails to cure

GLEANINGS from EXCHANGES

HOLDREDGE is wrestling with the water supply question.

MINNIE HAUCK sang that everlasting "Suwanee River" here. Ten thousand dollars reward will be paid by this journal to any singer who has never heard that song.—Republican.

THE largest locomotive ever built is now under construction in Sacramento by the Central Pacific railroad. The engine and tender will weigh 105 tons, and will be sixty feet, five inches long.

THE Philadelphia idea as interpreted by the Bulletin is that New York is English in its finance and commerce, Irish in its politics and French in its morals. It should have added American in its progressiveness.

At last it is explained why Anna Dickinson finally determined to abandon the stage. A German statistician has discovered that a leading actress has one chance in 846 of becoming the consort of a prince belonging to a reigning family. Anna does not want to become a consort.

WHEN they want something down at Cincinnati they want it badly. The Commercial-Gazette says: "When a stout spring wagon, driven by a bold looking man, and drawn by a foaming horse, is seen careering down the street, it is not always safe to bet that it is a police patrol wagon rushing to a fire. It may be the brewery relief, responding to a telephone call of distress from a distant saloon that has run out of beer."

THE Albion News says: The marriageable young ladies of a western town recently held a convention and among the resolutions passed is the following sensible one: "That we will not marry any one who is not a patron of his home newspaper, for it is not only a strong evidence of a want of intelligence, but that he will prove too stingy to provide for his family, educate his children, or encourage institutions of learning in his community."

CHARACTERISTIC prayer offered by Elder Littlejohn in 1850: "Oh, Lord, there is great wickedness and rising towns. Therefore, O Lord, we crave Thy blessing. Now, Milwaukee, just sprung up, is bad; Chicago, another mushroom, is worse. Yet do Thou, Lord, bless and improve them. Then there is Michigan City, a place of sand and whisky, and Capotte, of mud and wickedness; and indeed, they need Thy blessing. And there is South Bend, and also Niles, which think themselves righteous. Lord, they need Thy blessing. And here is Mishawaka, which boasts itself something, but has nothing but self-righteousness. Good Lord, open its eyes, that it may receive Thy blessing. Then we have Elkhart, and Bristol, and Mottville—little things, but wicked. Do, Lord, bless them." Then, pausing for breath, and raising his voice to its highest pitch: "And lastly, then, dear, good Lord, even bless Constantine, where Governor Barry sells whisky at three cents a glass! Amen."—Detroit Post.
