

Republican State Convention.

The Republican electors of the State of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties to meet in convention at Lincoln, Thursday, May 1st, 1884, at 7:30 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing four (4) delegates at large to the National Republican Convention called to meet at Chicago, June 3d, 1884, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States. We append the representation of the following counties:

Red Willow...4 | Frontier...2
Hitchcock...2 | Gosper...2

The present year will witness a great demand for dark horses.

KANSAS is greatly disturbed over the appearance of a cattle plague. As there are 2,000,000 cattle in the state, representing $50,000,000 capital, there is sufficient cause for the perturbation.

BEN BUTLER is the candidate of the woman suffragists for President. Coming right after their defense of the Mormon hierarchy, because it allows women to vote, this is calculated to leave the impression that some of the big guns among them are cranks.

The various newspaper men of these United States are busily engaged in booming prospective Presidential candidates. Better save their powder. The matter will be decided in convention June 3d, and nine to one a "dark horse" wins. And where will we find burial room for the busted boomlets.

THE death of Right Reverend Robert H. Clarkson, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska, will be lamented by all classes of citizens in Omaha and thousands of people in this state. Respected and revered by all who knew him he had been especially endeared to the people of his own church, which he had done so much to build up. No western prelate enjoyed a higher reputation either on this or the other side of the Atlantic. While ardently devoted to the church which had honored him, and to the educational institutions with which that church is intimately associated, Bishop Clarkson was a man of broad and liberal ideas—tolerant, generous, and patriotic. He was pre-eminently a good American citizen, loyal to his country, loyal to his state, and loyal to the city of his adoption in all its interests. Omaha loses in his death one of her most enterprising philanthropists. She is indebted to his efforts for one of the most beautiful church edifices in the United States, which will be an enduring monument to his devotion and practical piety. To him more than to any other of her citizens Omaha is indebted for her institution in which some of our best women have been educated, and the hospital which affords shelter, food and treatment for the sick children of the poor, will forever commemorate his benevolence.—Bee.

RAILROAD BUMBLES.

The safe of the "Q" paymaster was cracked for the snug sum of $27,000 while the paymaster was lurching last Saturday.

The first through train of the C. B. & Q., from Chicago to Omaha, ran into Omaha last Friday morning. It is the cause of much rejoicing among the newspapers of the metropolis.

A fast mail train has been put on between Omaha and New York, which brings Omaha 24 hours nearer New York, and 14 hours nearer Chicago. The fast mail service will be extended to the Pacific coast.

The "Cannon Ball" collided with a construction train near Plattsmouth, Sunday evening, completely wrecking both engines. The passenger train was running at a high rate of speed, being late, and it is well nigh miraculous that none were killed.
