JIM BLAINE of Maine wouldn't make a poor President, at all events. His book will net him $400,000.

FRALEY, the St. Louis grain gambler, and Keene, the New York stock gambler, are both going to resume. It is to their credit that both will pay dollar for dollar.

EL MAHDI offers to ransom Gen. Gordon for a half million pounds sterling. This indicates the immense value the false prophet puts upon this Christian soldier.

ENGLISH high life is having its share of sensations. A baron has been sent to jail without bail for an indecent assault upon a female servant.

GENERAL GRANT says: "If the Republicans make a wise selection they will carry the next election. I think our prospects are better than they were four and eight years ago."

EMERY STORRS says: Let me tell you something. Lincoln's stock, if I may so express myself, goes up higher and higher every day, and what appears to increase his strength and following is the fact that he is making no personal effort to push it forward.

Too much praise cannot be accorded to the American Medical Association for their action at Baltimore on Wednesday last, when they made a move toward elevating the standard of medical education.

The mystery about the missing steamer State of Florida has at last been cleared up. Survivors have reached Quebec and tell the vessels fate. In the middle of the ocean, she collided with a bark, and of 119 persons on the two vessels it is thought that only 20 escaped.

SENATOR EDMUNDS has renewed the effort to have General Grant put on the retired list of the army, so as to be secure as to his means of support the remainder of his days without a surrender of self-respect and independence.

ALONG about Christmas time an honest old citizen of Howard county, Nebraska, invited the son of an old friend to make him a visit. Now this old citizen had a daughter, he has her yet, by the way, that he very much desired to see advantageously disposed of in the matrimonial market.

CHAIRMAN SABIN has issued a circular to the effect that tickets of admission to the Republican National Convention have coupons for each probable session. Each ticket will be numbered and allotted to a particular seat, no provision is made for weekly newspapers.

THE NEW YORK Times, discussing Senator Van Wyck's bill to prevent others from owning lands in this country says: "After the government shall have recovered a part of what has been stolen, punished the thieves and taken measures to prevent such stealing in the future, it will be time to think about preventing foreigners from acquiring land in an honest way at a fair price.

JAMES FELL, of Rich Hill, Missouri, and Jack Hanley, of Leadville, fought with bare knuckles for a purse of $300 Tuesday afternoon. Fell was declared winner on a foul in the twenty-second round. Both men were dead game and hard fighters.

JULY 1, Bob Ingersoll and his family will remove to his $8,000 log cabin on Dorsey's cattle ranch. Bob will adopt the cowboy costume and herd jack rabbits.
