Upon the arrival of No. 40, Sunday, one of the journals of the Pullman car was found to have been so badly damaged by a hot-box as to render it necessary to be switched off here for repairs. That "con." will most likely get 30 days.

The B. & M. put in a freight transfer platform and additional side-tracks, just west of the depot, last week. We hope a freight house may be erected at no distant day. The freight traffic of this point is immense, being the distributing station for a large scope of country.

People come into the world, eat and drink and enjoy themselves the best they can and have never a thought for others. They leave no trace behind them; no signs painted, etc. H. W. Pike has his sign painted on a stock shed full of Seasoned Lumber, selling at close prices for the quality, and a yard stocked up with a full assortment suitable for a "Claim Shack" to a Palace.

The Ladies' Union will give an Apron Fair and Festival at Menard's Hall, Thursday evening, September 4th.

Let's make a strong effort to have a cooler built. The regular meeting of the Board occurs next Tuesday evening. We have enough citizens who are interested in this matter, to build it by subscription.

The cow-boys have been gathering in the last of this week, preparatory to the beef round-up, which commences at the head of the Willow on September 1st. We were going to say that the boys were in getting in practice, but we won't.

"How are the mighty fallen!" The Courier comes to us, this week, reduced to one-half its size. Another instance of having bitten off more than could be masticated. Now, if the Courier management will eliminate a number of those dead stock adds he will have more space to devote to his readers. No fee.

Drunkenness continues prevalent and will in all probability remain so until something in the way of a cooler is provided wherein to allay the overheated, who can be seen on our streets daily. A cooler will reduce the number of drunken men on our streets 50 per cent. We need it, and need it badly.

Some parties drove off twelve head of sheep for John Evert, who lives in the bottom east of town, Tuesday night. The same bunch was offered for sale by two drovers to Thos. Ruggles, who lives a number of miles north of Evert's place, the next morning. About noon, eleven of the sheep returned home, having in some manner escaped from the thieves.

There is absolutely nothing to be said in mitigation of the fast riding indulged in through the business portion of our town. Every time some thick-pated, shallow-brained individuals imbibe one glass of beer do they exhibit their fool tendency. Some innocent little one will sometime pay the penalty of this thing with broken limbs or possibly worse results.

Two real estate transactions occurred on Saturday, the sellers receiving way beyond prices. A McG. Robb disposed of his homestead and the papers on his timber claim to a Mr. Ludwick of Onargo, Ill., for the neat sum of $2,000. Both of these claims are situated about four miles northwest of town. Samuel Stevens also sold his claim west of town, receiving $1,000 for the same. The real estate tendency is upward.

The Mission Band gave an entertainment at the Congregational church, Sunday evening, which was an interesting and pleasant affair. The program consisted of scriptural readings and recitations, music, questions and answers, giving the history and aims of the Mission Band and American Board, of which the Band is an auxiliary, etc. The American Board, as was shown by the history given during the entertainment, has been doing a great and commendable work, since its inception a little more than a quarter-century ago, and to the young folks is due in no inconsiderable degree the success of this missionary work.

An individual by the name of Bill Young, foreman of the gang of men, whom Lanham has had at work on the water-works well now being dug in the bottom, was on a tare, Wednesday, in company with a number of men who are working on the well, and after steaming up until he had superinduced a pugilistic turn of mind, he forthwith proceeded to PUSH our inoffensive Teutonic citizen, Adolph Fullgrabe down, and kick him in the face, producing two ugly wounds by his brutal assault. One deep and long cut on the left side of his forehead and an ugly lump on the right side of the same. The assault seems to have been entirely unprovoked, and the inoffensive character of the assaulted party is proof in that direction. Young was promptly arrested and arraigned before Justice Fisher, before whom he plead guilty, and was fined $25 and costs, which he refused to pay. He was then given over into the hands of Constable McCormick. This is not the first racket in which Lanham's gang have indulged in our town, having on one or two occasions, since they have been here, made themselves obnoxious to our citizens. The gang, when in liquor, are a quarrelsome lot.

I have 856 head of very fine, high bred Sheep, which I will sell very cheap for cash, or on time. Will sell in lots to suit purchasers. If I do not sell, I shall want to let them out to be kept on the shares. J. BYRON JENNINGS, 13-2, McCook, Neb.

W. S. MORLAN of Arapahoe has been re-nominated for District Attorney. Mr. Morlan has made an efficient prosecuting attorney for this district, and THE TRIBUNE seconds the nomination heartily.

THE editor-in-chief of the Arapahoe Pioneer is a "holy terror"—in common parlance. That apostle of sweetness and light quotes two articles, verbatim et literatim et punctuatim, from this journal, last week, and, after illuminating the same with a few soft touches, incorporates them in his columns—sans credit.

SHOULD Judge Gastin consent to being made a cats-paw of by the democrats by running for congress or as assistant we shall see the liveliest campaign in this district ever witnessed here.—Gazette-Journal. The Judge hasn't told us he would be an independent candidate. Bro. Wigton. Why frighten us with this ghostly apparition.

THE indications of the times are to the effect that the editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel will wish he had never been born, 'ere James, the Plumed, will have done with him. We do not think the Democratic party is in any measure responsible for the outrage committed by the above named cur in thus entering the sanctity of the home of James G. Blaine.

WE clip the following special from Lincoln to the Omaha Bee: LINCOLN, August 26.—This morning a life prisoner in the penitentiary named Clinton Dill committed suicide. He was sent from Hitchcock county in 1881 for killing a cowboy named Sam Lucas. He procured a pocket knife this morning and stepping into the gate house, where he was acting as gate keeper, he made several cuts at his throat. The guard arriving on the scene, Dill made a terrific lunge at his windpipe and severed the jugular. In his dying struggle he threw the knife at the guard and then fell back a corpse. Dill was 43 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children in this city, the eldest 10 years.

THE political measures that have been adopted for this campaign are a burning disgrace to any civilized country. Once the flood gates of scandal are opened, nothing can hold in check the surging tide of infamy that comes rushing through.

We have been of the opinion that the gate which admitted disaffected democrats into the republican fold, would prove a place of exit for as many republicans of the same mental condition, but it does seem that we have our bourbon friends at the best on this score.

THE people of Crete and Saline county held an interesting and unique necktie party, the other day, at which the Mexican rapist, expiated his terrible crime with his life—at the nether extremity of a hempen cord. The ceremony was performed with all possible neatness and dispatch.
