As Forshadowed in a Condensed Report of the Nebraska Legislature. SENATE .- In the senate up to the time of temporary adjournment from Wednesday to Monday there had been 154 bills introduced. Of these 100 are in the hands of the var ous committees, to which they have been referred. Fifteen have been reported from the committees and placed on the general file, twelve have been indefinitely posiponed and tweive have been passed. Among bills indefinitely post-poned is the one providing for the submission of a prohibition amendment. This is the only important one in the list. Most of the others are bills which have been the contracted in the are bills which have been for apporated into other similar bills. When the committee get to reporting the bills before them, however, a large number of them will be relegated.

The special order of the senate in the 21 was the New Orleans exposition appropriation, sp-propriating $15,000. It was considered in committee of the whole and its passage recom-

House -In the house up to the 1st 287 bills have been introduced. Of these 240 are yet in the hands of committee, twelve have been reported and are on general file, fourteen have been indefinitely postponed, two have been passed, and nineteen have simply been read the first time. The bills that have been passed have been the appropriation for the ex-pense of the legislature, and the bill appropriating $15,000 for the Nebraska exhibit at the New Orleans exposition. The only bill that has passed both houses has been the appropriation bill.

In the house on the 2d Lee, of Merrick, introduced a resolution instructing the secretary of state to furnish members with copies of all contracts made by the state with W. H. B. Stout and others relating to convict labor. Adopted.

Bills were introduced running the total up to 301. Among these is one to locate the State Normal school at Aurora, Hamilton county, and another railroad bill, the former by Cox and the latter by Barley.

SENATE .- In the senate on the 3d a number of bills were introduced, among others "A bill for an act to classify railways in the state of Nebraska, and to fix maximum rates of passenger and freight tariff, and to regulate the carriage of freight and passengers thereon; toprohibit the pooling of the earnings of railways, to provide penalties for the violation of any of the provisions, and to repeal sections one and two of article five of the compiled statutes of Nebraska, entitled 'Railways,' and all acts and parts of acts in conflict here-

Senate file 34 was put upon its passage and defeated by a vote of 21 to 7 against. The bill provided that all roads in the state which have been or shall be established by dedication, or by ten years use, should be declared established

Senate nle 52, passed in the senate, relates to divorce and alimony; judgment may be opened in certain cases when notice is given to defendant by publication in a newspaper. S. F. 21, also passed, relates to prevention of spread of prairie fires, and makes it the duty of oversees to warn out citizens in case of fires.

House—In the house the following were introduced: By Snell, authorizing attachments to issue in cases other than those on contracts; by Burr, amending section 2, chaptor 5, of the compiled statutes; also amend-ing sections 4 and 13 of the probate court act; by Dolan, amending section 3, chapter 29, of the compiled statutes; by Smith, of Fillmore, to regulate the practice of medicine.

of railways, being the special order, was called up by Nettleton. Amendments were introduced, over which there was considerable discussion, when the committee of the whole arose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again. Adopted.

The senate and house committees on railroads met in the chamber to hear statements of prominent gentlemen connected with the railroads. The committee was addressed by T. L. Kimball, general traffic manager of the Union Pacific, and he was followed by P. L. Eustis, general passenger agent of the B. & M.

SENATE.—Bills from 167 to 177, inclusive, were read second time and referred. The following bills were read a third time and passed: S. F. 66, by Snell, amending sections 76 and 915 of code of civil procedure: 45, by Sowers, relating to township organization; 90, by Spencer, amending section 6 of an actentitled 'Counties," and 127, by Skinner, making it a criminal offense to remove personal property to prevent listing for the purposes of taxa-

The senate then adjourned in order to give the various committees the opportunity of considering and disposing of accumulated

House.—House roll 234—being a bill relating to regulation of passenger tariffs on railways—was taken up as special order. The house went into committee of the whole to consider this bill, with Rice, of Holt, in the chair. On motion, the title of the bill was amended to read as follows:

"A bill for an act regulating passenger rates, the carrying of baggage, carrying of passengers on freight trains on railroads in the state of Nebraska, and to provide for a penalty for the violation of the same." On motion of Kaley the committee arose and reported favorably upon passage of bill as Senate file 4, to fix the number of employes and establish their pay, was taken up, and the house went into committee of the whole to consider the same. The committee reported favorably on the bill. Bills were introduced as follows: By Peterson, to amend certain sections of chapter 77 of the compiled statutes entitled "Revenues;" also, to amend section 47, chapter 41, entitled "Insane;" by Newmeyer, to locate a state normal school at Fullerton; by Dempster, to greulate the sale of spiritous and malt liquors. Senate.-Paul, from the committee on judiciary, reported favorably upon the bill to provide for the election of county officers; a bill to provide for prosecuting offenses on information and to dispense with calling grand juries except by order of district court; also upon numerous other bills of more or less im-

Reports from the committees on miscellaneous, corporations, counties and county boundaries, and on internal improvements were heard and adopted.

The question of concurring in the house amendment to senate file 4, relating to payment of employes in senate and house, came up," and was concurred in by a vote of 19 to 14. House.—In the house special order was taken up, being the resolution offered by Kuony, restricting time for the introduction of bilis. After considerable discussion the resolution was adopted. It provides that no new bills shall be introduced in the house after the twenty-fifth day of the session, except such as come from committees.

Among bills reported on favorably was house roll 175, by Nettleton, relative to taking the census for the present year in conformity with constitutional provisions. Petitions from many countles, containing in the aggr-gate 6,448 names, praving for the submission to the electors of Nebraska an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic stimulants, were read and referred. Joint resolutions, relating to the St. Joe and Denver lands, were passed. House rolls 212. 214 and 215, all authorizing the state treasurer to transfer certain moneys to the sinking fund, were read a third time and passed, as payment of incidental expenses. SENATE .- In the senate the following bills were read a third time and passed: To amend sections 584 and 586 of civil proceedure; to define boundaries of Dawes county; defining boundaries of Sioux county; defining boundaries of Dorsey county.

House roll No. 75 was taken up as special order. It provides for taking the census for 1885, in conformity with provisions of the constitution. It was recommended that the bill be engrossed and put upon its passage. This bill is entitled "An act to provide for the tak-ing of a census, and to define the powers, duties, and liabilities of officers, citizens, com-panies and corporations in relation thereto."

WAITING FOR GROVER.

Appropriation Bills Said to be Much Delayed

in the House. Washington special: In spite of Mr. Randall's evident effort to push them, the appropriation bills are much delayed in the house, and the time for their consideration will be unusually short. Only thirty days of the present session are now left, and little else can be done than to pass the appropriation bills. In fact this is the programme of the democratic leaders in the house, who are agreed that no other bill, except the electoral count bill shell be passed.

The business of this congress has been greatly delayed and much legislation is likely to be defeated because of an indisposition on the part of democratic members to do any-It is natural enough that the four months-succeeding the election and preceding the inauguration of a democratic president should, under the circumstances, be something of a critical period. It is the vestibule of a fu-ture about which there is uncertainty.

Hale, of Iowa, debehalf was inaugurated without his knowledge, the object being to give him the first in-timation in the shape of the appointment to the governorship. The outcome of the move-ment is uncertain, as several other applicants have entered the field and the president has not signified his intention in the matter.

Herr Most says that the story of impending socialist riots in Pittsburg is all bosh-the invention of some newspaper men. If the socialists contemplated such things they would not tell of it. Found the Will in the Coffin. About eight years ago Robert A. Wallace the carriage-making firm of Harvey & Wal-lace, and, although he had repeatedly said he had made provision for his children by a for-mer wife, no will could be found, and his widow was appointed executrix. She died about a year ago, leaving the property to her own children and leaving out her step-children. The friends of the latter, still believing that Mr. Wallace left a will, conceived the dea of searching his coffin, which has just been done. The missing document was found between the yest and chirt in which the body between the vest and shirt in which the body was buried.

Outdoor Life. Man seems planned for an outdoor

life in a mild climate, with just a leaf or two of shelter for a rainy day. His nature will bend for a time to the conventional burdens of an artificial civilization, but replant him on first principles in the outdoor garden of life and his recuperative forces will rebound with the elastic energy of steal springs relieved. Our fashionable friends would lose caste were they to use their neighbor's second-hand clothing, but they will daily try to purify their own blood with their neighbor's secondhand or ten-times used breath, poisoned as it always is, even when exhaled by young and healty persons. Man, in common with other warm blooded creatures, generates a surplus of heat within his body. Outdoor sleepers find that Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," may be, if dry, enough of the outflowtatned by suitable clothing to sustain the vital functions in health and comfort. Until domestic art can supply our lungs with cool, first-mortgaged air, in warm rooms, its votaries will have an important problem to solve. In the meantime outcampers and hovel dwellers will wear the best aerated blood in the land .- American Home.

St. Nicholas for February opens with the first chapters of a new serial by E. P. Roe, author of "The Opening of a Chestnut-burr," and "Barriers Burned Away." It tells how a family in moderate circumstances was driven from the confinement of a city "flat" to the freedom of a country farm. The question, "City or Country," is one that is constantly presenting itself to thousands of anxious minds, and parents as well as children will gain many valuabe suggestions from Mr. Roe's presentation of the problem.

Another prominent and valuable feature of the midwinter St. Nicholas is Gail Hamilton's "English Kings in a Nutshell." The talented author has here given in easy flowing verse a com-"Your committee on penitentiary, to whom was referred the resolution relating to the use prehensive view of all the English sovereigns, with the principal events and distinguished personages of their reigns. The River Jordan.

When we reached the Jordan I discovered that we had ridden all these thousand miles to view as foul a stream as courses its way through any country on earth. No wonder Capt. Naaman indignantly refused at first to dip seven times in such a river. Indeed, we would scarcely apply the term river to a stream eight feet wide and less than ten feet deep, with a current as swift as a mill-race. Moreover, the mosquitoes were so pestiferous that to dip in the Jordan, as some sentimental travelers insist upon doing, would be to invite a condition of the body resembling scarlet fever.-From an Eastern Letier.

Caught by an Octopus. A diver who was trying to find pearls off the Alaska coast, found none, but found himself, all of sudden, in the grasp of an ugly octopus with arms twenty-seven feet long. Such an experience is rare; but there are thousands of people who are caught by dyspepsia, which is quite as thing that might embarrass the plans and bad. An octopus hates to let go. So purposes of the new administration. A political revolution was effected at the polls it loss dyspepsia. At the coming inauguration ball the ballroom will be lighted by electricity and by gas. Fifteen hundred flags will aid in its decoration, and the botanical gardens will furnish flowers and plants. In addition to these, which will be free, there will be other decorations variously estimated as costing from $5,000 to $10,000. The music is expected to cost about $4,000. The $60,000 which the managers expect to receive from tickets will be almost if not quite consumed in the expenses of the ball. Grant's second inauguration ball cost $60,000, but the ballroom was not so large as this, nor the opportunity ceased. This movement in General Tuttle's for decoration so extensive and varied.

Habitual constipation is not only one of the most unpleasant, but at the same time one of the most injurious conditions of the human system, and is but a forerunner of disease, unless removed. This is usually accomplished by the use of purgatives, which for the time afford relief, but after their immediate effects have passed they leave the system in a worse state than before. To effect a cure it is necessary that the remedy used should be one that not only by its cathartic effect relieves the bowels, but at the same time acts as a tonic, so as to restore the organs to a sound, healthy condition. This PRICKLY ASH BIT-TERS will do. It removes the cause and restores health.

Rheumatism

It is an established fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven an invaluable remedy in many severe cases of rheumatism, effecting remarkable cures by its powerful action in correcting the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and purifying and enriching the vital fluid. It is certainly fair to assume that what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others it will do for you. Therefore, if you suffer the pains and aches of rheumatism, give this remedy a trial.

"For twenty years I have been afflicted with rheumatism. Before 1883 I found no relief, but grewworse till I was almost helpless. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it did me more good than all the other medicines I ever had." H. T. Balcon, Shirley, Mass.
