Editors and Publishers.

Official City and County Paper.

LINCOLN is small but nerry. Not wishing to be out-done by Omaha, she's preparing to build stock yards at once. A number of her prominent citizens have the matter in hand.

THE Atchison Globe says: "J. McConniff, superintendent of the B. & M. is in the city to-day. Mr. McConniff intimates that his company will steal a large amount of Central Branch territory the coming season. Nothing definite is known with reference to an additional Missouri River bridge except that it is not to be built this year. Rulo will probably secure the prize in 1887."

THE Norfolk Journal has changed hands. Neidig & Waterman have sold to Crenshaw & Dinwiddie, from Marango, Iowa. From appearances it is safe to say that all the newspapers in Nebraska will soon be run by gentlemen late of Iowa. We don't just exactly know what kind of a state Iowa is to get away from, but these newspaper gentry are getting as close to paradise as it is possible to do in this world.

THERE is no end of originality in the Illinois legislature. Outside the great Haines, there may be no genius that can shine in his presence with more brilliancy than a glow-worm, but Sittig would be great in any other body. Sittig has announced himself irrevocably paired with a dead democrat until resurrection day, or until his successor was elected, qualified and in his seat. This is the first pair with the dead recorded in legislative history.—Lincoln Journal.

How does the presence of death stop the voice of slander. General Grant on his death-bed receives what was denied him in health and prosperity—the credit due all characters of such grandeur. Sad it is that men never appreciate such men as Grant until the approach of death puts an end to their calumny and calls forth their unwilling homage. More good words have been spoken and written about the old commander in the past few weeks than were uttered or written for years preceding.

THE conflict between the prohibitionists and the saloon keepers in all the larger towns in Iowa still goes on, with the liquor sellers in possession of the fort. In Sioux City, the city council, in pursuance of a petition signed by a large number of property holders, have passed an ordinance licensing retail dealers at the rate of a thousand dollars a year, payable in monthly installments. This brings about a curious conflict between state and municipal law. In the mean time municipal law has the floor.—Journal.

RUSSIA appears to be playing into the hands of the English government, by increasing her demands so as to make the war when it does come immensely popular in England. France, in the meantime, is sulking over the suppression of a French newspaper at Cairo by the Khedive, with the consent of the English minister, for its factious hostility to the government. But it is hardly likely that the dissatisfaction will lead to any serious complications. As France declined to make herself responsible for the peace of Egypt and concurred with the other powers in letting England become the guardian of good order there, she certainly has small rights in the matter of regulating journalism at the capitol of the Pharaohs.—Journal.

Court was in session, this week, Judge Wm. Gaslin, Jr., presiding. We were present at the opening of court and listened to the charge given by the court to the grand jury. He charged the jury generally to investigate all classes of crime when properly presented to them and charged them to use special efforts to unearth all gambling houses and took pains to say that he regarded a professional gambler as a worse character than a common horse thief. He also desired them to take notice of any place where minors were allowed to hang around any saloon or billiard room and read the law governing this class of cases. He charged them that their own private views should not interfere with their duty as jurors, that it was not their province to pass upon laws, but to obey them and properly indict those who violated them. The question with a jury or judge was not whether the law was right but, rather, has the law been violated and if so, how, where, and by whom.—Minden Democrat.

Box Elder Blossoms.
We have preaching twice a month, on Sunday, at 11 o'clock, A. M., with J. M. Mann, pastor. Sunday School every Sunday at 10 o'clock, A. M., D. E. Moore, Superintendent. All are cordially invited and requested to attend the services.

Box Elder wants a store and a blacksmith shop right away. We hope some enterprising capitalist will see the point, and come to our relief. We will also need a mill in a few years.—We have fine sites and abundant power to run any kind of a mill.

A number of the young ladies and gentlemen of this place enjoyed the luxury of a fishing excursion on Saturday of last week. O, my! The fish they didn't catch.

A host of young people gathered at the residence of Mr. Eaton on Saturday eve., and passed the time with social games—and taffy.

Corn planting has commenced, but prairie breaking is the order of the day. Look any way you please, and you can see teams turning over the wild buffalo sod.

Some persons seem to be determined to burn the entire country off. This matter ought to be looked into. If we can keep the land covered with grass we will not suffer half so much from hot winds. SELONN.

April 21st.
North Divide.
A Sunday School was organized at the home of William Johnson on the 12th of April, and the 19th there was an attendance of twenty-nine. We look for still more to come.

Farming seems to be in full blast, with our new-comers, J. M. Henderson in the lead. He has planted seven acres of oats, eighteen of wheat, and thirty-five of corn. Give us more men who will do likewise.

April 21st. Co. Q.

Notice, Stockmen!
At a meeting held at Carrioco on the 10th of April, it was resolved to begin the Red Willow round-up on the 15th of May, beginning at the mouth of Spring Creek and working up the Willow to the head, from there down Blackwood to Culbertson. There will be a special meeting of the Red Willow Stock Association held at Carrioco on the 8th of May, 1885. J. K. PAXTON, President.

REPUBLICAN CITY, being the point from which the Prairie Dog division of the B. & M. branches out, is being enlivened greatly. Speculators are investing in town property, evidently anticipating an active boom for that town.

OUR EXCHANGES.

[Stratton Herald.]
J. T. McEvoy, our druggist, was in McCook, last Friday. . . . Mrs. Wilcox and her son Frank were in McCook over Sunday. . . . The citizens of McCook are rising up en masse to rid the town of the gamblers and confidence men that have infested the town of late. . . . There are about fifty-one aspirants for Mr. Babcock's position, the receivership of the U. S. Land office, at McCook, Neb. Fifty of these fellows are sure to get left, and we doubt very much whether the administration can find better officers than Messrs. Babcock and Laws.

[Atwood Democrat.]
Bob Minor, Dr. Way, and Larry Flanagan left for McCook the first of the week. From there, Bob will take an extended trip back to his eastern friends and relatives in Chicago and New York city. If we have the news straight, quite a rich legacy is waiting for him. Dr. Way will go to Col. Larry will return here if he does not engage in business in McCook.

[Culbertson Sun.]
J. E. Cochran and R. S. Cooley, two of McCook's most reliable land men, were in town today. . . . The engine of passenger train No. 39, broke down at this place, Tuesday. Another engine was telegraphed for and was soon on the ground.

Magnetic Cures. Dr. HILL has discovered the philosophy of the "brain battery," from whence emanate all nervous diseases, and that medicines only palliate, but never cure. These appliances are magnetic, and differ from all others on the market which are electric. Magnetism is the life of man. Their curative qualities are wonderful in all nervous complaints. The Roman physicians practiced magnetic treatment 1,600 years ago. Dr. Hill has made this great discovery, the only sure cure for nervous Headaches, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Paralysis, Gout, Spinal weakness, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Cold Limbs and Feet, and General Debility. Miraculous cures noted every day. The Magnetic Brush lifts nails, and the only article of the kind invented. It is the greatest curative agent known and used in a "brush bath" imparts tone, repelicates the debilitated system, and creates warmth. In chronic cases our Magnetic Bands, Belts and Pads should be used. The brushes are warranted to do the work, or the money refunded. Send for circular and testimonials.
