Last week, J. P. Mathes sold his fine stock of furniture to Mess. Ludwick & Trowbridge, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Mathes will confine himself to stock raising.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me on account are requested to call and settle, as soon as possible, either by cash or bankable paper.

Lot one above Cochran & Helm's office has been purchased by Mrs. McAvey of Red Cloud. Consideration $7,500. She also contracted for the erection of a two-story frame or brick within the coming year.

The latest metropolitan wrinkle is the street sprinkler, which entered upon his labors, last Friday. The idea is a commendable one, but the team now doing duty is enough to give the average citizen the delirium tremens.

If the present administration does itself as proud, the country over, in the line of post-office appointments, as it has for the people of this city, heaven help the service, it will soon lose itself in the chaos of its own making.

The Batchelor residence, corner of Dennison and Madison, lately occupied by C. T. Brewer, now living on the homestead with the family, has been rented by John Doner, who moved into the same, the first of the week.

GENTLE READERS—J. P. Mathes has sold his stock of furniture to Ludwick & Trowbridge, who have taken possession. He will be on his ranch for a week or two, when he will return here. All parties owing him will please have the money ready for him at that time.

On Monday the 14th, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Thomas of West McCook were called upon to mourn the loss of their little two-months-old boy baby, who had been frail and sickly from birth. The remains were consigned to mother earth, Tuesday, Rev. Sues officiating.

Nebraska flour for Nebraskans. The City Bakery received a car-load of that celebrated Grand Island Flour, this week. The shipment contains the new brand of flour, "White Frost" which is without a peer, and is guaranteed to be the very finest brand in the city.

They are duly delighted at Frank Hess' residence over the appearance of a rollicking boy baby, Saturday last. Our reporter consumed the usual fragrant Havana in honor of the heir-apparent, and experienced the usual delightful (?) sensations arising therefrom.

The dance at the Opera Hall, last Friday night, was a most enjoyable, though slightly attended affair—owing to the threatening aspect of the weather. The invitations and programs were elaborate, and the projectors will of necessity have to draw pretty largely upon their individual resources to make good the deficit thus occasioned.

FOR SALE—A good saddle pony, also bridle and saddle. Inquire at this office.

A new grocery by a Mr. Seaman of Brownsville will shortly be added to the business houses of West Dennison street. The building is now in course of erection.

"Just observe the color of my smoke," remarked a disgusted democrat, the other day, whose girl had sent him a photo, which he failed to receive. "I'll never vote the democratic ticket again, until the party puts men in official positions, who have in a degree solved the mystery of 'readin' and writin' and spellin'."

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

The neat little brick building on West Dennison street, opposite the City Bakery, recently erected by H. C. Rider, has been purchased by Dr. A. J. Willey, consideration, $800. The doctor will move into his new room in about a month, as it will require about that time to put in the necessary shelving, counters, etc., to receive his stock of drugs.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

A number of drunken roustabouts made night hideous, Friday night last, by their noise and discharge of firearms. The sign at Kuester's lower stand was perforated with bullets, one of the stray bullets going through one of C. H. Rogers' large windows. A more idiotic and dangerous way of "having some fun" cannot be imagined, and the perpetrators should be handled with unglowed hands regardless of persons.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

A $1,400 RELINQUISHMENT—Treasurer Goodrich of Indianola, Jos. McGee of Farley, Iowa, and F. S. Schoonover of Elliot, Iowa, drove up from Indianola, Tuesday, to transact some land business before the local officials, among which was the relinquishment of H. S. West of his claim near Indianola to Jos. McGee of Farley, Iowa, for $1,400. Mr. Schoonover also secured two claims near Lone Tree in Frontier county. Both gentlemen were delighted with the land.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

The tide of immigration, which has been surging up the Republican Valley during the past two years, at flood height, has over-leaped our western limits, and the fair lands of eastern Colorado are now being eagerly sought. In a few years the proud Rockies alone will mark the limit of the home-seeker's ambition. The present rush seems to be without precedent in extent and character. The "Great American Desert" will in a few more years exist only in tradition, and be belied by coming generations as among the legends of our land.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

Episcopal services, as announced, were held in the Opera Hall, last Thursday evening, Bishop Worthington officiating, assisted by Rev. Fulforth, missionary for the Republican Valley. The Bishop delivered a most interesting and powerful sermon, which was listened to with wrapt attention by those present. The Bishop then announced the establishment at this place of the "Mission of the Incarnation," with F. L. Brown, Warden, T. G. Rees, Secretary and A. McG. Robb, Treasurer. After which Mrs. J. F. Kenyon was confirmed. Communion service was held at A. McG. Robb's residence, Friday morning. Services will be held hereafter at stated periods. The coming year will probably witness the erection of a house of worship for the Episcopal people.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

There is now in Hayden & Co.'s mammoth establishment unquestionably the largest, finest and best selected stock of goods ever brought into Western Nebraska. Consignment upon consignment have been received and opened up and displayed in all their elegance and beauty, until their large store room is crowded from cellar to ceiling. In the way of ladies' and misses' cloaks, fancy combination dress goods—an entire novelty in this country—they are able to suit everybody, while their stock of flannels and fancy dress suitings is splendid and complete. As to their display of lace collars, embroideries, ribbons, hosiery, silks, neckwear, blankets, yarns, comforters, flannels, muslins, sheetings, shirtings, furnishing goods, notions, etc., it is simply stupendous, and should be examined to be fully appreciated. Their line of boots and shoes, hats and caps, clothing, carpets, etc., have never been equaled here in extent, elegance or price, which they will substantiate at their institution. But we have mentioned but few of the attractions in the dry goods department, and have not reached the grocery department, in which Hayden & Co. have always been leaders. It is sufficient to say here that their prices to be found on another page are beyond competition, as their stock is in quality. Hayden & Co. have the goods and take this means of informing the public thereof. Call and see for yourself.

Will E. Fry returned from his visit at Mt. Airy, Iowa, yesterday.

Mess. Abbott, Harris and Dietrich have been down at Lincoln all week.

L. L. Boyle and wife, of St. Joe, spent two or three days in town, this week.

Capt. R. O. Phillips came up to the Magic City on No. 1, Tuesday evening.

The Misses Roberts and Hogan will rusticate for a season on their homesteads.

Supt. A. Campbell and Doctor C. F. Babcock went down to Lincoln on Wednesday evening.

Elmer Kelly, late clerk in the U. S. Land Office, is now doing efficient clerical work for C. H. Boyle.

Capt. Emerson and wife have been in the Dining Hall for a few days, arriving in the city, Tuesday.

Frank Hudson, Hayden & Co.'s general and popular manager at Lincoln, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in town on business.

Mr. Allen of Chase county, an old York Co. acquaintance of Attorney Cochran, was in the city, Tuesday, and laid in a stock of land blanks at this office.

The regular annual meeting of the Ladies W. C. T. U. will meet in the Congregational church, Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, M. T. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Blue Hill Times: Thirty-five men seeking homes out west were taken to Red Willow county, Tuesday of last week, by C. L. Watkins. Everything is booming out there and land is rapidly advancing in value.

Typhoid fever seems to be laying its hand heavily on a number of our people. Jabez West of West McCook, J. J. Dunbar of West Railroad street, and Mrs. Bailey of South McCook, have all been quite seriously sick with this consuming malady, but we are pleased to announce at this writing that they are all convalescing.

G. B. Nettleton returned, yesterday noon, from the Lincoln fair, so delighted with what he had seen, that he generously curtailed his own pleasure a day or two, that he might hurry home and send the rest of his family down to see the finest fair ever held in Nebraska, before it was eternally too late.

Atwood Citizen: J. P. Mathes and J. C. Arbuclle, of McCook, were in town during the past week. They have herds of cattle and horses and real estate that are climbing up rapidly in value. "Well kept" is applicable to them both, and Rawlins county keeps on fixing them in better shape.

This sprightly little city has repeatedly grown up to the expectations of the most sanguine, and beyond, but notwithstanding, it is growing to-day faster than ever. The foundations for four new residences have just been laid, and work commenced this morning, on a residence for W. J. Hills, by Contractor Collins. In addition to these there are eight residences in course of erection, and five brick business houses, of which our very limited space will not allow of special mention.

John Y. Winings, one of Benkelman's most prominent citizens and real estate dealers, was in town, yesterday. Mr. Winings informs us that arrangements are made for the establishment of a new town on the west line of Dundy county; 10,000 feet of lumber are being hauled to the site selected, and still there is more to follow. Dundy county seems to be doing her full share in the general improvement visible in Southwestern Nebraska, of which McCook is the proud Metropolis.

MARRIED.

PRYOR—CONNOR—At the residence of the bride's father, John Connor, Esq., of Stoughton, Monday, September 14th, 1885, William Pryor and Amanda Connor, both of Red Willow county, Rev. Geo. Dungan officiating.

About one hundred guests witnessed the joining of these estimable young people in the bonds of matrimony, and partook of the bounteous spread of substantial and dainties prepared by Mrs. Connor for the occasion. The following handsome gifts were presented to the happy pair by relatives and their admiring friends from the surrounding country, and of this place and Indianola:

Pickle Castor, Mr. Duckworth; Can Coal Oil, Mr. Mack; Broom, "War and Peace," Chas. Duckworth; Seive, Robt. Rollin; Lamp, Wm. Stilgebauer; Bed Spread, Mr. and Mrs. Snavely; Table Cloth, Loton Duckworth; Towels, Mr. Vandever; $3 in Cash, Friends; Hammond and family, Basket Work Stand; 1 Dozen Napkins, Ed. Byers; Cake Stand, Mr. and Mrs. Killpatrick; Book, Still Connor; Splasher, Ellis Stilgebauer; Set Breakfast Plates, Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth; Silver Sugar Scoop, Florence Akers; Cuffor, Mr. and Mrs. Cooley; Fruit Dish, Mr. and Mrs. Kerns; Butter Knife, Mrs. Lem Daniels; Pie Knife, Mr. Vandever; White pig with black eyes, Mr. and Mrs. Goodner; Lamp, James B. Maille.

A CARD OF THANKS.

To those friends who so kindly assisted us in our sad bereavement, the loss of our dear little Willie, we desire to return our heartfelt thanks. May God bless them in our prayer.

B. S. AND ALICE THOMAS.

FOR SALE.

I have for sale or trade a fine two-story brick residence of nine rooms, with four lots, (each lot nicely terraced), seventy odd fruit trees thereon; also, a two-story brick business house, 22x80 feet, centrally located, in the best town and county in Southwestern Iowa. I will sell or trade for property in McCook, or land in Nebraska, or near McCook. For particulars call at my harness shop, two doors north of the post-office, McCook, Neb. W. W. PALMER.

A LIBERAL REWARD.

STRAYED OR STOLEN!

From the undersigned, August 26th, 1885, A BRIGHT BAY HORSE with white strip on face and white hind feet, 10 years old, weight between 800 and 900 pounds. No brand. Always racks when off a walk. Easily frightened. A liberal reward for return of horse to owner, or information leading to his recovery.

ED. L. CHATFIELD, Cambridge, Neb.

Wednesday night, a man by the name of Ross was fatally stabbed by one Hudson, at Palisade, Hitchcock county, while engaged in a game of "seven up" at 25 cents a corner. Others had a hand in the game, and whiskey seems to have been the favorite beverage. Fuller particulars, next week.

To-night, at the residence of Dr. T. B. Stutzman, Mr. Frank Harris and Miss Nettie Black, two of our most estimable and popular young people will be privately united in the bonds of matrimony. A host of friends join THE TRIBUNE in wishing them a bon voyage. They at once go to house-keeping in Dr. Stutzman's residence, the doctor's family moving to the homestead, the first of next month.
