MORAL depravity in three stages—
Jam, jamboree, jimjam.

LET us do justice even to the Bourbons. They serve as horrible examples.

JUMBO is dead. He took issues with a freight train at St. Thomas, Ont., the other day and came out second best.

NEVER believe anything you read in a newspaper that doesn't agree with what you think. This saves wear and tear on your convictions.

It is said, by a Boston paper, however, that the triumph of the Puritan over the Genesta has disgusted the dudesque An-glomaniacs of New York beyond description, and that nothing will comfort them.

As fast as the Richelieu Robinsons and the Thomas Ochiltrees disappear the Thomas A. Hendricks arise. And so there is always somebody to twist the British lion's tail, and the earth makes its customary revolution in the usual time.

REPORTS from Hitchcock county indicate that the "merrie war" has opened, that the "music divine" has commenced.
Frontier and Hayes counties are also preparing for an "interesting time." In fact, the political pot seems to be boiling quite merrily even in our ownest Red Willow.

THE receipts of the Illinois state fair, held during the same week as our own, are estimated at $30,000, while the expenses will fully balance them. There is no doubt that the Nebraska state fair is the biggest, best and most successful in every way that has been held in the United States this year.

BESU is the name of a Georgia blacksmith who is said to be the strongest man in that state. He is six feet ten inches tall and can hold a 120-pound anvil out with one hand. Sometimes for pleasure he holds out cart-wheels by the spoke or snaps chains that horses cannot break. He is much respected in the community in which he lives.

WE are proud of Omaha—our sparkling little metropolis—so is every Nebraskan; but the phenomenal success of the Lincoln fair, and the rather dismal failure of the one held at Omaha, indicates in tones not at all uncertain that the people of this state are of the opinion that Omaha was playing the hog, and that Lincoln of right ought to be encouraged and protected in her rights.

THE law and order league of Cleveland had Sullivan (John L.) arrested for pitching a base ball game there on Sunday. The stern impersonation of law and order who sat on the bench in the case found the knocker-out guilty as charged, and fined him a dollar. This leaves Sullivan a balance of $899 for his Sunday's work, and hence it cannot be thought a very discouraging penalty.

SECRETARY LAMAR's rash forcing of Texas cattle into the Indian territory has born the expected fruit. Thousands of native cattle in the infested region have died of Texas fever. The governors of Colorado and Kansas will stand firm as rocks against any attempt of the secretary and his cattle raising friends of Texas to cross the lines of those states until all danger is past by lapse of time and condition of the weather. To admit Texas cattle into those states and Nebraska simply means the slaughter of our cattle by the fever to make room for the new comers, and it will be resisted.—Topics.

EARTH's two great oceans, 3,000 miles apart, shall roll up in thundering oratorio their echo of the high and glad refrain; the vastest gulfs and grandest lakes in all creation shall join the chant; river after river, huge rolling floods, shall conspire to swell the giant psalm; Superior's waves, old Mississippi's torrents, Niagara's misty thunders shall roar it far and wide; the hurricane, crashing through ten thousand mountain gorges, from the Alleghenies to the Cor-dilleras, from the Adirondacks to the Sierras, shall chime it; the raging blizzards, hurling six-inch hailstones on sky-bounded and horizon-fenced Nebraskan plains, shall whistle and rattle it; the catamounts shall shriek it, the prairie wolf shall howl it, the lone owl hoot it, and the grizzly bear shall growl it; and the burden of it shall be: "America for Americans! One country, one flag, zwei lager—from Greenland's icy mountains to Darien's golden strands! E Pluribus Unum! Erin Go Brah! Now, henceforth and forevermore, world without end—amen, a-women!—From Pat Donan's speech at the Tennessee Banquet.

THE reason why Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite with so many people is because it can always be depended upon. It's prompt and effectual cures of coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, have made it standard and those who have used it prefer it to any other. Sold by M. A. Spalding and A. J. Willey.
