THE TRIBUNE will club with any journal in the United States at reduced rates. Select your paper and call for figures.

Dr. Collins, one of the few really first-class dental operators in the state, will visit us on next Monday and remain a few days.

Our reporter observed Messrs. Leech and Harris, candidates for U. S. land office honors, industriously circulating petitions, the first of the week.

Sheriff Welborn was in town, Wednesday, serving subpoenas on jurors for the coming term of district court. He was making his rounds of the county for that purpose.

The faro dealers, chuck-luck men, tin-horns, fakirs, etc., of Hastings were largely represented here during the horse fair, and a meaner, tougher outfit it were hard to imagine.

ANOTHER LIVERY BARN.—Dunbar & Leland are building a livery stable of immense proportions on McDowell St. It will be the largest in this part of the country, when completed.

Last Thursday evening, the ladies of the Methodist church organized an aid society, with Mrs. T. E. McCracken, president, which will doubtless be a strong auxiliary to the church.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will give an oyster supper on Wednesday evening, November 4th, 1885, at the church. Come everybody prepared to do justice to an elegant stew.

A residence 26x34 was commenced, this week, by Contractor Collins, for Mrs. Reid of Omaha, mother of Frank S. Reid of this place. It is being built on the hill S. E. of the Catholic church.

The Heafy-Staysa attachment-replevin suits, which have been dragging through Justices Colvin and Fisher's courts, for the past two weeks, have again been continued, this time for 30 days.

We desire to impress it particularly upon the minds of the people that the celebrated Schubert Quartette will commence their concert on the evening of the 28th at 7:30 o'clock, central time, sharp.

Messrs. Hess & Brewster, contractors, are now at work on a residence for Mr. Deats on Madison street, north of Rev. Dungan's residence. This is the second house these gentlemen have erected for Mr. Deats, this season.

Some fine specimens of potatoes—Early Hebron—were displayed by Chas. Collins at this office, this week, grown by him on his claim a few miles south of town. They are large and wholesome looking tubers in fact.

The magnificent trotting of McMahon Saturday evening, against time, produced great enthusiasm. Time 2:26; which was made without a skip, the first heat, beating the best time made in Denver, last week, 1 1/2 seconds.

We are pained to announce the illness of Dr. B. B. Davis with typhoid fever. The doctor is receiving the best professional attention, and with the kindly ministrations of friends, we hope soon to chronicle his complete recovery.

RECOVERED.—Anthony Joy was "all broke up" over the disappearance of his team of horses, last Friday night, from his wagon on East Dennison street. They were recovered, below the fair grounds, Monday, to the great joy of the owner.

The old reliable jeweler, F. L. McCracken, now has in stock by far the largest and most elegant line of watches, clocks, jewelry and silverware ever brought into the Republican Valley. Don't fail to see his dazzling display, when you want anything in his line.

The grand success of the horse fair, last week, is but another feather in McCook's plumage. We doubt very much if there is another town of our population in the west that would be willing to offer $3,000 in premiums and guarantee and pay the same, for exhibitions of speed.

THE TRIBUNE is of the opinion that our people will use greater caution in the future in signing petitions. One dose of inefficiency has no doubt effected an entire cure. The motto now is, "An ounce of preventive is worth more than a pound of cure." To avoid future miscarriages, more attention will be given these matters.

Dr. Geo. H. Collins, Dentist of Lincoln, will visit McCook on October 26, 27 and 28. Office at the leading hotel. Come in as early as possible and make your appointments for time, so as to be waited upon without being hurried.

As the Schubert Quartette leaves the same night on No. 1, for Denver, their concert here on the 28th will commence promptly at 7:30 o'clock, central time. Please remember this fact, and turn out early, in order to receive the full benefit of the concert.

A NEW FIRM.—Dr. A. J. Willey of the B. & M. Pharmacy has associated with him in the drug business, Mr. Walker of Missouri, a regular graduate of a school of pharmacy, and a druggist of 20 years' experience. Mr. Walker arrived last week, and is now dispensing at the old stand.

Lots 23 and 24 in block 21, on the corner of Manchester and Dodge streets, have been purchased by Messrs. Lindner & Erman of our city, who will at once commence the erection of a large sale stable. These gentlemen are doing a fine business selling draft horses.

We were informed by Clark Ward, during his visit in town, last week, that he had disposed of his interest in the Indianola Grist Mill, and that he was seriously considering the feasibility of starting a like enterprise in the metropolis. The Indianola mill is now under the management of Jas. Hetherington.

The Robert Buck Dramatic Co. will appear at Menard's Opera Hall, October 26th and 27th, in Fanchon, the Cricket, and Rip Van Winkle. Robert Buck is one of the finest comedians on the stage, supported by a full and efficient company. Come and laugh with us. Admission, 50c. Reserved seats on sale at Menard's store.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage on the 29th of this month, of our estimable young friend, Will F. Lawson, book-keeper of the First National Bank of this city, to Miss Elva LaMar Allen of Delavan, Wisconsin. Mr. Lawson leaves, next Saturday, for Chicago, en route to Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson will be at home in this city after November 15th.

They are experiencing warm times at Ludwick & Trowbridge's Main Avenue furniture store, these days. Following fast upon the burning of the canopy, came two lamp explosions, last Friday evening. Herr Miller, it appears, by mistake, filled his lamps with gasoline instead of kerosene; hence the whyness of the undue haste with which he fired the ignited lamps out into the street.

The services at the Congregational church, Sunday evening, conducted by Rev. J. W. Kimmel, of the Auburn Lutheran church, were but slightly attended, by reason of the disagreeableness of the evening. The reverend gentleman delivered an interesting discourse on the subject, "The Church." We understand that it was the intention to organize a Lutheran church society, but no effort to that end was made.

The unqualified success of the horse fair at this place, the latter part of the past week, is so generally and well known that we will not at this late date, enter into a lengthy account. It is a source of congratulation to all, the management of the association, and the citizens of McCook, that success has crowned their efforts to make it the best horse fair ever held in Western Nebraska, for such it was in every feature.

The Glad Tidings Concert by the children of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School, held in the new church, Sunday evening last, was an encouraging success, and was enjoyed by a large audience, considering the inclemency of the weather. The affair was conducted by Mrs. R. R. Vincent, and was given for the benefit of the S. S. Union and Tract Society of the church, to which the proceeds of the concert, over $5, were given.

REV. DR. J. H. VINCENT, Chancellor of the Chautauqua Assembly and President of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, writes as follows regarding the Schubert Quartette, which appeared there in August last to an average audience of six thousand people:—

"The Schubert Quartette made what is usually called 'a great strike' at Chautauqua this season. They sang for two weeks nearly every day, and the people listened to them with eagerness and enthusiasm. Their REPERTOIRE is marvelous. They are all that their managers claim for them. J. H. VINCENT. Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 7, 1885.

Dr. Collins furnishes us some of the best names in the state as reference in the shape of testimonials.

SKIPPED.—The place that once knew A. Blanchard, Jr., lately employed in the B. & M. telegraph office at this place, will in all human probabilities know him no more forever. In this immediate connection it might be pertinent to observe that those who loaned him various amounts, during his short sojourn amongst us, will likewise know him no more for some time. His coming and his going, like the star in the nebula of Andromeda, was dazzling, we might say, paralyzing, especially his exit from this part of the moral vineyard; and many there are who mourn the suddenness with which he made himself scarce in these parts. On the stupendous salary of $50 per month, he bought expensive furniture for his apartments in the Bateholder residence, lived high and stinted not. On Saturday, the fugitive went down to Red Cloud on a pass received from Supt. Campbell, and while there stole two unlimited tickets to El Paso, Texas, returning here on No. 1, and being joined at this station by his wife, both went to Denver, Sunday night. Messrs. McCracken, Forbes, Bernheimer and others are out of pocket various sums, of money loaned and for goods sold. The railroad is after the gay young dead-beat and the probabilities are that they will catch him, when he will receive his merited punishment.

HONOR (?) AMONG THIEVES.—Thos. Crable, the gambler who was "too smooth" for the outfit which operated above Kendall & Son's restaurant, flurrying the horse fair, was finally downed by the combination, after a trial which lasted all day Sunday and until about 10 o'clock the same night. The offense was drunkenness, and in default of the fine imposed and the accrued costs, amounting in the total to about $13, Crable was sent to the county jail for four or five days. Crable, it seems, was the only gambler who could successfully cope with the above named outfit, who did their utmost to get rid of him. Crable was repeatedly arrested, on the charge of being a gambler, at the instigation of the gambling combination, but released upon his expressed determination to retaliate, and have the whole gang, who nightly held forth above Kendall's restaurant, in open and direct violation of law, arrested and duly punished. As stated above, the poor devil was finally downed, (after having been thumped around pretty promiscuously,) on the charge of drunkenness. It requires a very fine sense of justice indeed to appreciate the position.

The first of the week, S. B. Brown sold his fine quarter of land, situated two and a half miles northwest of town, to Edwin L. Wheeler of Onarga, Ill., father-in-law of J. H. Ludwick, for $1,600. This quarter is an exceptionally fine one, and its nearness to town, makes it the more valuable.

The Academy was again well filled last evening by an appreciative audience, which was much pleased with Mr. Buck's rendering of the character of Rip Van Winkle. The roving vagabond of the Catskills was presented by the star with all the humor and pathos which has made the character famous in years gone by at the hands of Mr. Jefferson and several other celebrated actors, and it is not too high praise perhaps to say that Mr. Buck's conception of Rip will bear favorable comparison with that of the most celebrated enactor of the part. The supporting company is excellent throughout. On Thursday evening Mr. Buck will appear as Joshua Whitcomb, in the play of that name, and those who have enjoyed his Rip will thus have an opportunity to judge his capability as a versatile actor in an entirely different personation.—Denver Democrat.

THE TRIBUNE believes that it is the intent of the law governing the delinquent tax list publication business, that more than one section of the county should know something about the matter. As it now stands not more than half of the people of Red Willow county know that the delinquent tax list has ever been in print. "Deeming it for the best interests of the county that it should be published in The Courier, it was designated as the paper." Shades of the departed, Bro. Bishop is still living in the dim and misty past, and is unable to see beyond range 27, as usual.

Miss Carrie Ashmore of the county-seat spent Sunday in the city, with relatives.

D. Guernsey, the Frenchman stockman, was registered at the Dining Hall, yesterday.

Ira S. Hall and wife and Misses Fannie and Mattie Kesterson of Stratton were at the races Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hazen of Edison were in town, the first of the week, on a business-pleasure visit.

Mrs. Dr. Watkins and daughter, Mrs. C. D. W. Robinson of Blue Hill, were Saturday visitors at the fair.

H. W. Pike returned home, yesterday afternoon, from a trip in Rawlins and Decatur counties, Kansas.

R. O. Phillips is in town, to-day, making arrangements for extending the water service in this city.

Miss Jennie Jamison, of our corps of excellent teachers, spent Sunday at Indianola, returning home on No. 1.

Jacob Steinmetz of Sutton, an applicant for the receivership of this U. S. Land office, was in town, the first of the week.

Captain Riel of Grafton, who has been visiting his son-in-law, John Smith, for some days, returned home on 40, yesterday evening.

A. P. Leech, who has been down at Lincoln for some days, taking in the lay of the land—politically—returned the first of the week.

John A. Rudd, manager for Frees & Hocknell at Trenton, spent Sunday in town. John reports a rapid growth and improvement in Trenton.

John Sanders of Kearney, formerly manager of the B. & M. Eating House, spent a few days in the city, last week, taking in the races.

J. A. Burnett, O. P. McKesau and A. H. Burnett of Holdrege were registered at the Eating House, Monday. They were seeking investments.

Elmer Kelly went down to Hastings, Wednesday evening on 40, to meet his father, whom he expected would be a passenger on 39, to-day, for this city.

Presiding Elder Johnson of the M. E. church, came up to the city on 39, Saturday. We shall not be surprised to see the Elder make our city his headquarters.

B. F. Oleott leaves, this evening on 40, for Brooklyn, Iowa, after Mrs. Oleott and the two little girls, who have been away for a number of weeks. He will be absent about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cornutt, Mrs. H. W. Davenport and Mrs. W. H. Brown of Culbertson were among the representatives of ancient Bangor in town, during Friday's races.

Miss Vanderpool of Lincoln who has been visiting Miss Jennie Shaw of this city for the past two weeks, returned to the Capital city, Monday, after a very enjoyable sojourn in our city.

C. L. Watkins of the Blue Hill Times, W. C. Ashwill of the Stratton Herald, and G. M. Watkins of the Indianola Times, were among the fraternity present at the horse fair, last Saturday.

Messrs. Sparks of Nelson, Neokolls Co. were here after feeders, the first of the week. They purchased about one hundred head of two-year-olds from J. B. Meserve, which they shipped, the latter part of the week.

L. R. Grimes and wife of Friend, came up to the Magic City, Monday. Tuesday, they made a flying visit to Benkelman, returning here, Wednesday morning. Mr. Grimes will locate somewhere in this part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNeely of St. Joe, arrived on 39, yesterday, and will make the Magic City of the Upper Republican Valley a week's visit. Mr. McNeely now has a two-story brick under way, on Main Avenue, which will be a credit to our city when completed.

John W. Palmer of Washington, Ill., with his family, arrived in our city on No. 1, Tuesday night, and will make this their future home. They are already established in the Staysa residence purchased by Mr. Palmer during his visit of some week's ago. We welcome the family to our city.

Richard Thompson, of Hastings spent a day or two, the close of the past week, in the city. Mr. Thompson will be readily recognized as the editor-in-chief of the great religious journal, the Hastings Democrat, and as one of the rosy and expectant aspirants for the U. S. land offices of this place.

Messrs. W. M. Lewis and Pat. Walsh, who have been absent on an extended hunting expedition northwest, returned home on Sunday. Their operations were chiefly confined to the Dismal river region, one of the wildest and most weird localities in this state, and they report rather indifferent success. They encountered a heavy snow storm, Sunday a week ago, and had withal an eventful hunt.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.

The ladies interested in the Catholic Fair to be held at McCook, are requested to meet at the house of Thos. Colfer, Saturday, October 26th, between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock, P. M., mountain time.

NOTICE TO PAY UP.

Having disposed of a half interest in the B. & M. Pharmacy to Mr. Walker, all persons owing me are requested to call and make immediate settlement of all accounts owing me.

Oct. 22, '85. A. J. WILLEY.

On Friday last a party of engineers and surveyors, under engineer G. F. Baily, arrived here and went into camp. This week, as we are informed, they are busy running lines both north and south from this place with the view of building a new line of railroad. Coon Creek will be the northern outlet while Ash Creek will be the southern direction. We consider this a favorable omen to our town, as it has been stated to us that the dirt will be set in motion on this line early in the coming spring.—Indianola Courier.
