THE REPUBLICANS OF NEBRASKA.

Proceedings of Their State Convention Held at Lincoln—The Nominations Made and Platform Adopted.

At the republican state convention held in Lincoln on the 14th the following proceedings took place, as chronicled in the columns of the Lincoln Journal:

The chairman announced the following names as his appointments for the committee on resolutions: J. L. Caldwell, Lancaster; S. H. Craig, Hall; O. A. Abbott, Hall; Wm. Redick, Douglas; Church Howe, Nemaha; O. M. Robbins, Valley; A. V. Cole, Adams.

In the contest from Knox county—the only one in the convention—one headed by Mr. Draper and the other by Mr. Towle, the matter was decided in favor of the Draper delegation.

The convetion then proceeded with the regular order of business—the nomination of judge of the supreme court being first in order. Judge O. P. Mason placed in nomination the name of Judge Amasa Cobb, the present chief justice of the court and he was nominated by a rising vote with great enthusiasm.

Nominations for regents being called for, a member of the Douglas county delegation put in nomination the name of Leavitt Burnham, the present incumbent.

J. P. Hartman, of Buffalo, presented the name of Hon. C. H. Gere, present incumbent.

Hon. Allen Field moved that both men be nominated by acclamation and the vote was unanimous.

The committee on resolutions now made its report, which was adopted as made and was as follows:

RESOLUTIONS.

The republicans of Nebraska, represented in convention, declare:

First—That the national republican party having been right on all important political issues during its thirty years of existence, according to the latest confessions of its opponents, who thereby acknowledge that they have been uniformly wrong on the same issues, is entitled to the confidence of all honest, progressive and loyal voters. The possession of sufficient brains and conscience in the past to guide the nation safely through the most imminent dangers that have beset the republic since its foundation is a better recommendation than the record of disloyalty, unwisdom and persistent blundering that constitutes the principal claim of the so-called democracy to the suffrages of the people.

Second—We as republicans denounce the attempted repeal of the timber culture and pre-emption laws, but demand the strict enforcement of the laws granting the same, and that so far as possible the acquisitions of large tracts by non-residents and alien syndicates may be prevented.

Third—That we are in full sympathy with the declaration of the last national republican convention "that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made, not for revenue only, but such duties shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries and protection to the rights and wages of laborers," and that we favor the removal of all such traffic duties as burden the agricultural interests of the west.

Fourth—That we denounce the double dealing of the administration in the matter of executing the civil service laws. It has pretended to keep its pledges to yield obedience to the statute, but has in violation of its letter and spirit, removed thousands of experienced and faithful officers and employes from the government service, many of them crippled union veterans, under the cover of the phrase "offensive partisan," and replaced them in nearly every instance with men whose sole recommendation has been their activity in service of the democratic party, or their military record in the armies of the late confederacy. We declare it to be the duty of republican senators to refuse confirmation to all appointments made in violation of the spirit of the civil service laws.

Fifth—That in case the legislature at its last session in establishing a railroad commission, with advisory powers, for the regulation of transportation by rail, proves inadequate for the prevention of extortion and unjust discrimination against individuals and communities in the matter of service or rates, we pledge ourselves to amend the same until a sufficient remedy is provided, so far as the power of the state can be constitutionally extended.

Sixth—We favor national legislation for the regulation of inter-state commerce.

Seventh—The republicans of Nebraska demand at the hands of congress the enactment of such laws, looking to the protection of domestic animals, as, with the co-operation of the several states, will lead to the speedy extirpation of contagious and communicable diseases among such animals.

Eighth—That the memory of General Ulysses S. Grant is cherished by every republican and patriot, and that we deplore his untimely death as the loss of the greatest commander of the age, who contributed most to the preservation of the union and of the statesman whose honored career has added lustre to the annals of the republic. We most heartily concur in his last messages of peace and good will to the once warring sections of our common heritage, and welcome the end of all bitterness arising out of the civil war. But as he never cast the mantle of his great charity over fraud and violence while it was prevalent in the land, we dissent from the common democratic opinion that mutual forgiveness and oblivion of past injuries involves the condonement of the fraudulent and cruel disfranchisment of thousands of legal voters in the "solid south" to-day. Against the practice of ballot box stuffing and falsifying of election returns in any section, we most earnestly protest, and call upon every honorable citizen of whatever party, to unite with us in suppressing it.

Gratitude and justice demand that all honorably discharged union soldiers disabled while in the service and in line of duty receive pensions from date of disability; we therefore ask the repeal of the limitation law of 1879.

D. G. Courtney moved that the tairff resolution be amended so as to express as the sense of the convention that the tariff on imports should be reduced. The amendment was voted down enthusiastically.

There was considerable debate upon a resolution in favor of the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the constitution. It was rejected by an overwhelming vote.

THE STATE CENERAL COMMITTEE.

Hon. James Laird nominated Casper E. Yost for chairman of the state central committee. Hon. W. T. Scott, of York, nominated M. L. Hayward, but he absolutely declined. Mr. Yost was then nominated unanimously by acclamation.

He thanked the convention and said that it would be the truth to say that he did not seek the office. There was too much labor in it, too little glory and no pay.

The delegates from the different senatorial districts then reported in their choice for central committeemen as follows:

First district—W. E. Dorrington.
Second—D. H. Mercer.
Third—J. S. Dew.
Fourth—H. N. Carpenter.
Fifth—J. H. Haldeman.
Sixth—Fred W. Gray.
Seventh—J. T. Clarke.
Eighth—E. W. Peterson.
Ninth—L. D. Richards.
Tenth—James Britton.
Eleventh—B. F. Chambers.
Twelfth—M. P. Kinkaid.
Thirteenth—Ed Hoar.
Fourteenth—C. H. Walker.
Fifteenth—L. W. Gilchrist.
Sixteenth—A. W. Field, Walt M. Seeley.
Seventeenth—F. G. Simmons.
Eighteenth—W. T. Scott.
Nineteenth—P. Jensen.
Twentieth—M. A. Daugherty.
Twenty-first—J. E. Hill.
Twenty-second—J. H. Tait.
Twenty-third—M. A. Bergstresser.
Twenty-fourth—W. S. Pickett.
Twenty-fifth—John Wallichs.
Twenty-sixth—Aaron Wall.
Twenty-seventh—W. E. Mears.
Twenty-eighth—E. C. Webster.
Twenty-ninth—C. O. Charlston.
Thirthieth—F. D. Lee.
Thirty-first—H. H. Grimes.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the officers of the convention, and the body adjourned sine die. Chairman Hayward presided with much dignity and fairness, and no word of fault was heard from any one.

WEDDED LIFE OF MRS. SARTORIS.

It Is Said to be Such that Separation Will be Necessary.

Washington dispatch: The recently published reports of the permanent separation of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris from her husband caused Washington people to remember how much astonished and disgusted they felt over the match. The impression Sartoris made in Washington was that of a rough, coarse-brained, and decidedly vulgar, low-bred Englishman. His general coarse conduct in connection with the fact that he had exhibited some of Miss Nellie's letters to him, accompanied with gross remarks, to persons in a Wisconsin town where an accomplished young lady had rejected his addresses, caused solicitude among many of Gen. Grant's warm personal friends, and some of them consulted as to the propriety of informing him of Sartoris' conduct, with a view of regaining possession of Miss Nellie's letters. Senator Matt Carpenter finally consented to broach the delicate subject to General Grant. He called at the white house, and in as delicate a manner as possible commenced relating the current scandal as to Sartoris' notorious conduct, when the general quietly remarked: "That will do, Mr. Senator; but my daughter is engaged to Mr. Sartoris, and the wedding will take place." Senator Carpenter, in speaking of the interview, said he never felt so chagrined as at the president's abrupt closing of the conversation, and that he would never again, under any circumstances, attempt to advise about the domestic affairs of any one. It was well known that Gen. Grant was opposed to the alliance, but when his daughter's affections were engaged he acquiesced and would listen to no argument or suggestion to the contrary. When Gov. Jewell was returning from his mission at St. Petersburg to accept a position in Grant's cabinet he stopped a day at Southampton to call upon the elder Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris, the parents of Miss Nellie's husband. He was cordially received by them, but in the course of conversation Mrs. Sartoris astonished the ex-minister to Russia by remarking that "she did not see what there was about Algernon (her son) to cause the daughter of the president of the great United States to fall in love with and marry." Gov. Jewell subsequently expressed the same astonishment.

THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

Miscellaneous Matters of Interest at the National Capital.

THE secretary of the treasury has issued a circular to custom officers in which he says that as it appears to be impracticable to procure, under the existing laws, accurate statistics of the immigrants arriving in the United States by railway from contiguous foreign territory, the collection of statistics of such immigrants will be discontinued until otherwise ordered.

THE department of state has received, through Consul General Beach, a synopsis of the new tariff laws passed by the congress of Ecuador in August of this year. The new duties become operative after November 1, and there are many radical changes in the direction of higher duties. Lumber, and perhaps other articles now brought from the United States, will be excluded by the new duties.

WITHIN the last sixty days, or since the American steamship companies refused to transport mail at rates fixed by the postmaster general, four complaints from individuals and one petition has been received by the department protesting against the methods employed at the department to secure the carriage of foreign mails. One of these communications refers to the alleged defects in the Chilian service, two refer to the Japanese service and the remainder attack the West Indian service. "Altogether," said Superintendent Bell today, "the complaints are fewer in number than when I came into office. In all but one instance these complaints are without foundation, and in that particular case the mail steamer was disabled through an accident."

The land office has received a communication stating that Dr. Powers, who was government witness in the prosecution of a fraudulent case in California, has been slain by T. F. Kruett, one of the defendants.

The secretary of the trersury has appointed James R. Sneed, of Georgia, and E. L. Reid, of Virginia, to be chiefs of division in the register's office. Sneed was formerly assistant postmaster-general of the United States and secretary to ex-Senator Hill. Reed is a resident of Alexandria Va., and was formerly accountant of the Virginia Midland railroad. The above named appointments were made in place of Arthur Hendricks and J. H. Beatty, who resigned by request of Secretary Manning.

J. A. Manning, the attorney whose disbarment by the court of Alabama claims was the indirect result of the recent official objections to "necessary incidental expenses" of the court, has filed a motion asking reinstatement. It was passed upon by the court in a written opinion delivered by Presiding Judge Harlan and concurred in by the other two judges. The motion was denied.

Royal Blood.

We are all kings and queens in this country and we have a right to as good blood as that which courses through the veins of emperors. If the blood is poor and the cheeks are pale, it is well known that Brown's Iron Bitters is the great tonic which will give color, vigor, and vitality. Mr. M. K. Gibson, of West Point, Miss., says, "I felt weak and debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters made me strong and well."

"I'm a bricklayer, sir."

"Show me your hands?"

The prisoner showed a pair of horny hands.

"All right—you may go. Show up the next prisoner. Ah, sir, are you a hard-working man, too?"

BROWN'S FRENCH DRESSING AND SATIN POLISH.

Messrs. B. F. Brown & Co., Boston. Mass., have been awarded at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876, at Melbourne in 1880, at Frankfort in 1881, at Amsterdam in 1883, and at the New Orleans Exposition in 1884 and 1885, the highest honors for their French Dressing and Satin Polish. This excellent firm do business with all the civilized and uncivilized nations; this fact is sufficient proof that "Brown & Co.'s" goods have merit, and are appreciated throughout the world. Not only for shoes is "Brown's Dressing" good, but for satchels and other leather goods it can't be beat. The "Army and Navy Blacking," made by this firm, is equally as popular. It preserves the leather, and by its frequent use shoes will last double the time.

"No Physic, Sir, in Mine!"

A good story comes from a boys' boarding-school in "Jersey." The diet was monotonous and constipating, and the learned Principal decided to introduce some old-style physic in the apple-sauce, and await the happy results. One bright lad, the smartest in school, discovered the secret mine in his sauce, and pushing back his plate, shouted to the pedagogue, "No physic, sir, in mine. My dad told me to use nothin' but Dr. Pierce's 'Pleasant Purgative Pellets,' and they are a doing their duty like a charm!" They are anti-bilious, and purely vegetable.

"You know I used to be under the weather all the time and gave up expecting to be any better. The doctor said I had consumption. I was terribly weak, had night-sweats, cough, no appetite, and lost flesh. I saw Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery' advertised, and thought it would do no harm if it did no good. It has cured me. I am a new man because I am a well one."
