MARRIED.

GILLESPIE-VINCENT—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Vincent, Pleasant ridge, seven miles southeast of McCook, December 31, 1885, Mr. John T. Gillespie and Miss Clarissa L. Vincent, both of Pleasant ridge, Red Willow county, Rev. G. M. F. Chessington of McCook officiating.

At the home of the bride's parents, to witness the consummation of long-laid plans and cherished hopes, were gathered a pleasant company of about forty; some married people, and quite a number of young people, all apparently happy, and ready to enjoy their proper part in making merry for those who were the merriest of all—the young bride and groom. After the ceremony, a well-filled table was shorn of its glory by those who sat down to it. After supper followed innocent games and music with wit and humor ran high, and often the shouts and laughter filled the house. Everybody enjoyed the hours as they flew; and, crossing the line of the old year, began the new, in the midst of mirth and song, and certainly surrounded with plenty. The presents were as follows:

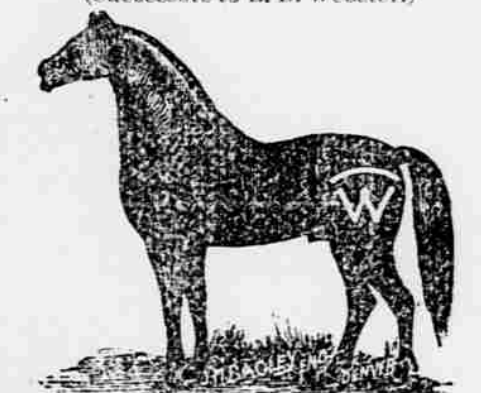

Set of chairs, carpet, bed and other useful articles, bride's parents, Majolica pickle dish, Lettie Boughton. Linen handkerchiefs, Minnie and Mabel Parsons, Iowa City, Ia. Silver pickle easter, C. S. Kanouse. Colored glass creamer, E. Whittsel. Hand lamp, John Calkins. China syrup pitcher, Carrie Calkins. Glass tea set, Mrs. E. Kanouse. Large glass sauce dish, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy. "A sacred burden is the life ye bear;
Look on it, lift it, bear it solemnly;
Stand up and walk beneath it steadfastly.
Fall not for sorrow, falter not for sin,
But onward, upward, till the goal ye win."
