It is said that Secretary Bayard is so much broken in spirit by the deaths of his daughter and wife that he will soon retire from the cabinet. To a man forced from public life by domestic calamity the American people are always sympathetic. As a man of family First National Bank, Lincoln, Nebraska. Thomas F.-Bayard is a model citizen, but as a statesman he has fulfilled his promise. If he retires from the cabinet now his public life is ended and his obituary may be placed in the editorial pigeon hole to await the demise that will call for its publication .-- Topics.
