THE tobacco-chewing young man who decorates the floor, regardless of where he is, will be very apt to give a certain Harrisburg church a wide berth hereafter. The church in question had just bought a new carpet and a specimen of the kind of biped hog mentioned had ruined a considerable area of it during one evening's chewing performance.

It is neither in the interest of truth nor to advance the welfare of Florida that half the reports of the recent damages by the cold wave in that state are published. Undoubtedly great damage has been done, but that the state has received any shock from which it is impossible to promptly recover is absurd.

The civil service law is a thorn in the sides of the spoils Congressmen, but they do not care to fly from the ill of a want of patronage to the worse ill of a want of votes when they come up for re-election.

Some one has figured out that life is like harness because it contains "traces" of care, "lines" of trouble, "bits" of good fortune, "breaches" of good manners and "bridled" tongues, and every one has a "trace" to pull through a severe cold unless they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
