CAPITAL and labor are still at swords points, with no immediate prospect of change.

The resemblance of a tin-horn to a taxidermist consists solely in the fact that both run a "skin" game.

In Siam, it is said, a wife who redeems her husband after he has sold himself at gambling owns him thereafter as a chattel.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S "innocuous desuetude" is supposed to be a direct descendant of Sammy Tilden's "usufruct."—Ottumwa Courier.

"PROGRESS" is the caption of the Knights of Labor journal, the publication of which was commenced at Omaha on the 13th. It is devoted to the interests of K. of L.

WHEN the Queen of Madagascar shut up the saloons in her kingdom, and the ex-saloon keepers asked for compensation, she replied, "Compensate those you have wronged, and I will pay the balance."

RAILWAYS, water works, electric lights, canning factories, creameries, flouring mills, etc., are all the rage in Nebraska for the coming spring styles. They are unexceptionable, and will enjoy a great run.

"This is Senator Voorhees, I believe?" said a Washington tramp to the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash recently. "It is," was the reply. "And I think that you are in favor of the urgent deficiency bill?" "I am." "Ah! Then give me a quarter, senator, for I'm the worst case of urgent deficiency you ever saw!" The quarter came.—N. Y. Tribune.

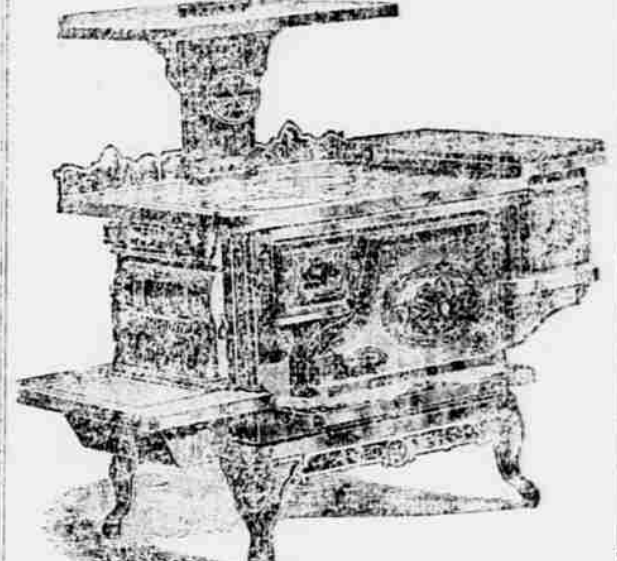

Omaha Bee.—Engineer Tom Tucker of the B. & M. is credited with the fastest long run ever made over the road. Wednesday, he pulled a special, containing Vice President Potter and Manager Holdrege, from Denver to McCook, 254 miles, in five hours and ten minutes, an average of fifty miles an hour including stops.

THE subject of feminine dress is beginning to seriously agitate the leading ladies of the land. Miss Cleveland puts herself on record as follows: "I approve of evening dress which shows the neck and arms. I do not approve of any dress which shows the bust. Between the neck and bust there is a line always to be drawn." This seems fair and reasonable enough, provided the arms and neck are up to the standard. But Mrs. Stanton takes another and bolder view, and asserts, as a sanitary measure, that if ladies can not reconcile themselves to such stringent measures as draping all their charms, the display of lower limbs would be less injurious. The Times naturally feels a delicacy in volunteering an opinion on a subject only to be discussed "when Mrs. Boffin does not favor us with her presence." Perhaps if Mrs. Stanton's views prevail Miss Cleveland may decide that the line shall be drawn after the fashion of the Scotch Highlanders, between the tibial nerve and the knee.—Kansas City Times.

S. H. Jones of Ashley, Ill., buys Chamberlain's Pain Balm by the half dozen bottles. He says it is a sure cure for neuralgia. It is also used for rheumatism and has cured many cases that had resisted all other treatment. Sold by M. A. Spalding and Willey & Walker.
