THE democratic party, during the first year of its administration, has done little to win popular confidence, not because its President has done ill, but because his best views and purposes have received no hearty and unanimous support from his party. This is proved not only by the angry tone of a large part of the democratic press but by the defensive air of the speeches of the President's party friends. The pan-electric scandal also is a very serious affair for the democrats. The whiskey-ring frauds and the post tradership scandal under a republican administration were held to be evidences of party decadence and the results of a too long tenure of power by the party. But the pan-electric scandal in the first year of democratic restoration is a startling portent. The democratic difference with the President upon the silver question is another significant illustration of the situation. The party is swiftly making its record for the campaign of '88. Its sole great advantage, to which it owed its success in 1884, was its candidate, now the President. Its true policy after the election was plain. It was complete identification with the President as its representative leader. But it has thrown away its advantage and discarded its policy. The President's course has rent, not united his party. The democratic party has not won the confidence of the friends of sound finances or of civil service reform, while the democratic President is by far the best that the democratic party ever elected. —Harpers Weekly.

THE Chaplain of the House of Representatives shakes the millionaires of the Senate and monopolists in general up in the following vigorous style: "Give ear, Oh! God of Jacob, and awaken us to see the danger which threatens the civilized world, a revolution more tremendous than any of which history tells, in which the scenes of the reign of terror may be enacted in every capital of Europe and America. For long the few have mastered the many, because they understood the open secret of tools to them that can use them. But now the many have learned the secret of organization, drill and dynamite. Rouse the rich of the world to understand that the time has come for grinding, selfish monopoly to cease; that corporations may get souls in them, with justice, honor, conscience, and human kindness. Teach the rich men of this country that great fortunes are lent them by Thee for other purposes than to build and decorate palaces, to found private collections of art, to stock wine cellars, to keep racing studs and yachts, and to find better company than hostlers, grooms and jockeys, pool sellers and book makers. Teach them, Oh! God, that it is Thee who has given them power to get these fortunes; that it is to prove them to know what is in their hearts, whether they will keep Thy commandments or no, and that those commandments are thou shalt love the Lord Thy God with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thyself, that if the rich men of this land keep these commandments the poor will follow the example, and we at last will be saved from the days of tribulation that are fast coming on all the world. Help us, Oh! God, and save us."

GENERAL CROOK has been relieved from service in Arizona and ordered back to the command of the department of the Platte, a position he has held before to the eminent satisfaction of all concerned. General Howard has been assigned to the command of the Pacific division. General Terry goes to Chicago and General Schofield to Governor's Island to take command of the division of the Atlantic.

THE Blue Valley Blade puts this conundrum out to its readers: "If the saloon business is a legitimate one, and is right, it is wrong to make a man pay $1,000 or any other sum to engage in it. If it is wrong, the payment of $1,000 or any other sum in the school fund will not make it right. Have you ever thought of the matter in that light, and how are you going to get around so plain and just a proposition? Don't all speak at once."

If Van Wyck desires to return to the Senate he should apply to those whose interests he has attempted best to subserve during his present term of office—Democrats, roofbacks, fusionists, et al. He has no valid claim on the Republicans of Nebraska, and will make none unless he is possessed of gall passing all understanding.

LABOR and capital ought to go hand in hand. Artificial obstructions to such progress must be removed. Capital cannot oppress labor without injuring itself, and labor in turn cannot antagonize capital without loss and damage to its own interests.

"OUR VAN" is evidently a "maverick" from the Republican herd, and we suggest that Rosewater place the ancient brand of "innocuous desuetude" upon him, and give him the "ear marks" of a maverick here.

THE Republican Valley Echo is of the opinion that the valley contains a number of miserable excuses of papers, which are edited by men having no more fitness for the profession than a cholera-stricken hog for heaven. Correct.

Palisade Journal:—Judge Ashmore, of Indianola, father of our ranchmen, Chas. and Sam Ashmore, was in town the first of the week. He is thinking of building a residence in or near Palisade.

THEY don't hold a man's life very high down in old Johnson county. $250.00 is the judgment awarded Widow Struty against the saloon keepers of Tecumseh for causing the death of her husband. $250.00 may pacify outraged justice in this world, but on the Great Assize, an immortal soul's destruction will come immeasurably higher.
