The McCook Tribune.

BOYCOTT is an uncanny idea that does not promise to thrive on American soil.

SECRETARY LAMAR will never need a gymnasium nor have dyspepsia as long as he has Sparks to kick.

ANY man has a right to quit work, but he has no right to force another man to quit who wants to work.

RUSSIA now comes forward with a new remedy for hydrophobia which her savants declare has never been known to fail in a cure. It is the onion-shaped root of the water plantain, collected in August, dried, and grated. The powder is spread with butter upon bread and eaten. It is at least worthy of investigation.

In their circular announcing the strike the school boys of Baltimore illustrated their mastery of terse and pointed English. They said: "To all school boys who may be concerned, and they better be concerned: Unless they join the School Boys' Knights of Labor and prepare to strike for four hours, next Monday, April 19, they will be knocked out. By order of executive committee.

MR. BEECHER firmly declines to deny that he said the democratic party was a "double-eared ass" and attempts to justify the remark by argument and illustration. He is wasting words. The simplicity of a great truth is often marred by useless talk to prove it. Let the saying go out without commentary or explanation and it has native strength enough to guard its own head.

To tell whether a town is alive or dead: The first thing to do after you step off the train is to hunt up the town newspaper office and invest a nickel for number of that journal. Then seek some shady, quiet, and secluded spot, where you may read without fear of interruption. If you find no home advertisements in the paper, you may know that the town is dead without going to further trouble; but if you only find four columns of reading matter in a forty-eight column paper, you may know the town is alive and too proud to keep the fact to herself. Such a town is where the far-seeing business man will locate every time.—Exchange.

In the whole English language I can find no word that strikes more terror to my soul than the one word "Rum." It was born in hell ere the fiat of "no redemption" had gone forth. Its life on earth has been one of ruin to the hopes of youth and the peace of old age.
It has robbed childhood of its delights.
It has stolen the laugh from the lips of innocence, the bloom from the cheeks of manhood. It has touched the heart of old age like the tip of a poisoned arrow.
Its sound, as it gurgles from a neck of a bottle, echoes through many a thousant household as the hissing of a thousand serpents. You may deem me too radical on this point. Yet I never interfere with the rights of a man to drink if he so elects. I hold I have a right to and do shun rum as I would an enraged tiger, neither meddling with it nor allowing it to meddle with me. So long as it keeps its distance I am content to leave it alone, but the moment it interferes with my rights by coming into the Knights of Labor, then my soul rises in arms against it, and I can find no words too bitter, no denunciation too scathing to hurl against it.—Grand Master Powderly.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, sprains and swellings. It is only 50 cents per bottle. This medicine is a household favorite wherever known, and has often saved more than ten times its cost besides much pain and suffering. When you want the best Liniment you have ever had in the house call at your drug store for Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Sold by M. A. Spalding and Willey & Walker.
