

The McCook Tribune.

F. M. AND E. M. KIMMELL, Editors and Publishers.

The seductive coachman has at last made an impression on the Vanderbilt family. One has just eloped with a grand niece of the old commodore.

The enterprising newspaper liars who are springing old sweethearts of Frankie Folsom all over the country seem to be unaware of the fact that the interesting girl spent her life from fourteen to twenty in a convent school.

The disinterested(?) booming of Register Laws for the state secretaryship by the bung-hole-ocrats of Hastings and this city is simply side-splitting and mirth-provoking in the extreme.

FRIEND BISHOP of the Courier gives it out sub rosa that he has quit forever the political arena—the pursuit of political happiness—and that the state senatorial bee no longer buzzeth in his little political head-gear.

HON. G. L. LAWS, of McCook, is mentioned as a probable candidate for secretary of state, and if he will have the office no more popular or better man for the place can be found in this end of the state, or for that matter, in the entire state.—Homerville Record.

While THE TRIBUNE has no assurance that Register Laws desires or would accept the nomination—occupying as he does a much more remunerative position now—his nomination would be clearly the wish of the Republicans of the valley, if he would accept it.

THE Indians at Rosebud agency went on a strike the other day. The agent refused to give them their agricultural implements unless they would agree to use them upon land that he designated.

GEN. MILES' first experience with Geronimo has been somewhat discouraging. That warrior was surprised, as it were, and driven from his camp, but he came right back the same night and returned the compliment, according to all reports, killing six of the soldiers who were out to fight him.

A COMMUNICATION.

MR. EDITOR:—In your issue of the 13th inst., your article, commenting on the action of certain parties on the Driftwood in reference to contested claims, calls for criticism. Of the cases to which you refer I know nothing, but it is the principle of the thing which I complain of.

M. F. Madison, of our popular drug firm of Madison & Co., returned, Saturday, from Omaha, where he has been attending the Pharmacists' convention for the state of Nebraska.

The "Homesteader" is the name of a neat land journal published by Messrs. Owan & Hutchinson. It describes the county in general and our city in particular and shows a "rustling" spirit that, we judge, must be hard to buck.

The Garrick Dramatic Co. present their latest play "Nevada" Thursday, June 3d. This will be the finest yet presented in our city and the actors have been working for some months past on their parts. We predict a grand entertainment.
