J. W. Smith's Barber Shop

FOR A FIRST-CLASS

Shave or Hair Cut!

Ladies' and Children's Hair Dressing a Specialty. H. R. N. has no connection with this shop whatever. Remember this.

The Omaha Herald advises Democrats to trust the President, and the Brooklyn Eagle suggests that the President should reciprocate and trust the Democratic party. That is impossible. The party's record is against it.

BRADSTREET estimates the loss by the late labor troubles at $30,000,000. But the train of difficulties thus set in motion will, in a twelve-month, doubtless result in a far greater loss, judging from the effects so far, without securing any real advantage to labor.

THERE is no doubt that eight hours is enough for most people to work, on the score of comfort and from the side of disposition. But there is another question involved: Will eight hours bring money enough for the adequate support of those dependent upon the workers? The answer to this depends upon the condition of the labor market—the amount of work to be done, the number who are available to do it, and the profits of those who employ it. It is not, therefore, a matter for arbitrary settlement. Everything depends upon the factors in the problem. In some occupations and places, and at some times, eight hours is enough. In others they are not.—Boston Herald.

LONG before Americans get done with the anarchists the latter will find there is a very general idea in this country that one flag is enough, and fellows who don't like it can leave without plunging any community into mourning. The American people are not selfish. They welcome the foreign-born citizen who desires a home, when he comes with American ideas. But when he comes with the idea of revolution, and of overturning and destroying that which has cost the Nation priceless treasure to establish, he will everywhere be met by an opposition which will strike with an arm strengthened by the law, and made strong by patriotism. If anarchists were able to muster to their aid all the off-scourings of European nationalities, Americans and Americanized citizens who have found homes here would unite and wipe them from the face of the earth before one fold of the old flag, the stars and stripes, should trail in the dust. It will be just as well for all socialists and anarchists to remember these facts.—Inter Ocean.

The level-headed Johnson County Journal gives the whole snap away when it says: "Newspapers in the west are instituted for three specific purposes: first, to make money for the owners; second, to furnish an advertising medium for the business men of the town; third, to proclaim to the world the advantages of a place and adjacent country.

The democrats of the house have devised an ingenious plan for helping the Mormons out of their corner without stultifying the brave utterances in Mr. Cleveland's first message. They have introduced a constitutional amendment, prohibiting polygamy in the territories, a measure about as useful as a constitutional amendment prohibiting horse stealing in the District of Columbia. This is to take the place of the Edmunds bill sent down from the senate. It will take a couple of years to send around this amendment for the decision of all the state legislatures, two-thirds of which must ratify before it becomes a part of the organic law. During that time they will conciliate the Mormons and gain time. It is a particularly bright dodge.—Journal.

A KNOT OF BLUE.

(FOR THE BOYS OF TALE.)
(THE CENTURY BRIC-A-BRAC.)
She hath no gems of luster bright
To sparkle in her hair;
No need hath she of borrowed light
To make her beauty fair.
Upon her shining locks aloft
Are daisies wet with dew,
And peeping from her lissome throat
A little knot of blue.
A dainty knot of blue,
A ribbon blithe of hue,—
It fills my dreams with sunny gleams,
That little knot of blue.
I met her down the shadowed lane
Beneath the apple-tree,
The balmy blossoms fell like rain
Upon my love and me;
And what I said or what I did
That morn I never knew,
But to my breast there came and hid
A little knot of blue.
A little knot of blue,
A love-knot strong and true,—
'Twill hold my heart till life shall part,
That little knot of blue.
—SAMUEL MINTURN PECK.

H. MENSE, a blacksmith at Sigel, Ill., wrote March 22, that he was very lame with rheumatism, he could hardly walk and the joints of his limbs were badly swollen and very sore, and so painful he could scarcely turn in bed. His physician advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The effect was beneficial from the first application, and he is now able to attend to his regular work. This medicine has only to be tried to convince the most skeptical that it is the best treatment for rheumatism. Sold by M. A. Spaulding and Willey & Walker.

AN Eastern journal says: "Dakota is determined to get in." Certainly she is. In the language of a Texas statesman, "What are we here for?" Dakota has a right inside, and the people will, at the first opportunity, remove the little, pestiferous and narrow-minded so-called statesmen, and give Dakota a broad and hearty welcome to the sisterhood of States. She has now the right of Statehood, as every honest man knows, and the men are narrow between the eyes who stand in her way, animated only by prejudice and revenge because she don't vote their ticket.

SCANDALS seem to be epidemic down the Valley.
