This world is described as being full of bustle, toil and labor. It is conceded that the ladies enjoy a monopoly of the first of the trio, while the sterner sex seem to have a corner on the rest of the combination.

The announcement of the grand musical festival at Omaha is circulated. The leading attractions are Pratt, the well-known musical festival director, Fursch-Madi, Agnes Huntington, Hortense Pierce, Dora Hennings, Mr. O. L. Fox, Josephine Chatterton, Charles A. Knorr, James Gill and Wm. Broderick. To these are added glee clubs, a trained chorus of 250 voices, and other features of note. The festival begins June 9 and continues four days. The new and spacious exposition building will be used, where 5,000 people may find seats with ease and comfort.

COMMISSIONER SPARKS, of the land office, states that of the whole public domain acquired by the government (about 1,400,000,000 acres) there remains unentered and undisposed of 250,000,000 acres, or a little more than one-sixth. Five-sixths of all the public lands acquired by the government, therefore, and these five-sixths embracing the most valuable of them, have been disposed of, and one-sixth only remains. Of this remnant the commissioner estimates that three-quarters, or about 180,000,000 acres, are unavailable for agricultural purposes. The total area granted to railroads is 155,000,000 acres, an area larger than the states of Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Indiana, and equal to eleven per cent. of the entire public domain. The value of these railroad grants is estimated at $5 an acre, making the whole $765,000,000. The public lands in Alaska, about 370,000,000 acres, are not included in this estimate.

AN official circular from the general manager's office of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern railroad announces the appointment of Mr. W. J. C. Kenyon as general passenger agent on the new trunk line which President Touzalin and Manager Harris are completing between Chicago and St. Paul. Mr. Kenyon is an old time resident of Omaha, whose railroad training was obtained in the B. & M. headquarters under Manager Touzalin and Percival Lowell, now general passenger agent of the Burlington road. Bright, quick and thorough, a sound business man and a genial and popular gentleman both in and out of business, his steady advancement in railroading has been due not less to his own merits and industry than to the strong friendships which he made among his employers by his faithful and devoted attention to their interests. General Passenger Agent Kenyon has many and strong friends in Omaha, who with the writer will join in congratulating him over a well deserved promotion, and the Burlington & Northern upon securing so able and worthy a conservator of their official interests.—Beer
