"WILL your brother probably ever come out here?" "No, I think not—he has never been west of the Allegheny mountains." "Is that so? What is his business?" "Writing descriptive articles of the west for eastern publication."

A LAD was learning his Sunday school lesson, with the words: "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin, and yet I say unto you that"—here the boy paused, forgetting the next word, and then proceeded with a pronounced voice—"Sullivan in all his glory was not like one of these."

We have long since wondered if there is such a place as a news-paporial paradise. Conway of the Norton (Kas.) Champion, a journalist after our own heart, thus opens up that abode to our enraptured vision:

"Every sound of praise for Norton that burdens the passing breeze, is stolen from our columns. We are interested in Norton, have all our fortunes staked here. Every dollar added to its treasury is a dividend on our investment; every word spoken in its favor is music to our ears; every supporter of Norton County is our support. For these reasons we have never solicited a subscriber, nor sent the Champion to any man without his order. We are out of debt, have money in the bank, and praise or blame because independent. The Champion is neither a smut mill nor a soap factory, yet it can say anything as sweet or as bitter as another. Journalism is our profession and we shall practice all along the keyboard, no stop barred."

Wiley & Walker the McCook Druggists, positively assert that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the safest and best treatment for griping pains, diarrhoea, cholera morbus or summer complaint, and THEY KNOW! It is not only recommended but guaranteed, and is just such a medicine as should be kept in every house.

PLEASANT RIDGE GOSSIP.

Mr. Mackenson of Thomas county, Kansas, is visiting on the Ridge.

G. H. Starbuck has been quite sick for the past two weeks, but we learn is improving slowly.

Relatives of Philip Strine have been visiting him, the past week, from the eastern part of the State.

James Harris has been writing up some hail policies in this vicinity for C. H. Pate, G. H. Starbuck and others.

We have had very fine weather for corn, the past week, and the farmers are improving the time by plowing the same.

No Sunday School, June 6th, on account of the funeral of Mr. Nicholson, which took place at the Vailton School House on that day, conducted by H. H. Berry of McCook.

Sunday School, June 13th, was well attended. Among the visitors were Mrs. C. A. Starbuck of McCook, Mr. Speer and family of Vailton and Jacob Reed of McCook. Quite a number from the Ridge attended the afternoon service at Vailton, last Sunday.

There was an ice cream supper, last Saturday evening, at the School House the proceeds of which goes for the benefit of the Sunday School. Owing to the showers in the evening there was not a very good attendance, but a splendid supper was spread for about sixty persons, all of whom were well pleased at having thus assembled. Mrs. McCloskey, in the absence of Mr. Strine, acted as organist, who, in connection with the class being formed here, produced some fine music. The company were very civil, with the exception of four young men, visitors, who did not conduct themselves as young men should at such places.

BONDVILLE GOSSIP.

A daughter at Mr. Ritter's.

W. O. Bond has just finished fencing his pasture of about 80 acres.

A. E. Whitesel and Miss Boughton spent Sunday at Valley Grange.

Miss Teel is spending a few days with Mrs. Gillespie and friends of Valley Grange.

Those visiting Bartley on Wednesday last were Rev. D. S. Morris and A. E. Whitesel and family.

W. O. Bond attended the lawn party at W. A. Vincent's, last Saturday. He reports having an enjoyable time.

E. S. Dutcher returned from Republican City, last Saturday, where he has been attending college. He intends to return again in the fall.
GOSSIP.

The feminine half of a married couple down in Connecticut broke a silence of twenty-five years, during which she and her husband had not spoken to each other, by exclaiming: "Where is them nails?" Her excuse was the excitement of house cleaning. But it so harrowed the feelings of that male brute, who refused to answer a word, that they are now going in for a divorce.

In London the manager of a troupe of performing fleas is disconsolate over the disappearance of his principal actor. He advertises a reward of $125 for its return to him, alive. The antinope Van Wyck clubs will soon issue a similar advertisement.
