On and after next week we will have weekly mail from McCook. There will be an effort made to increase it to a tri-weekly route.—Hayes Centre News.

The poster work and bank checks printed at THE TRIBUNE office, last week, cannot be excelled by any country office in the state of Nebraska.

We will have postoffice order and postal note privileges at this office in the near future. To say that they will be highly appreciated is putting it mildly indeed.

We learn that Messrs. Jennings & Starbuck propose to move into quarters in the Scott building, and that Colfer & Cordeal will occupy the rooms vacated by them.

A gentleman by the name of Camp of Wymore was in the city, Tuesday, on the lookout for a bunch of some 300 feeders, which he desires purchasing in September.

The force of men at the brick yard east of town has been doubled and they are now preparing to turn out 90,000 brick per week. They now have orders in for over 300,000.

The absconding bar-tender, who departed from Oxford with $80 of his employer's lucre, was captured at this place, the latter part of last week, and taken to Oxford for trial.

With a view of putting in a line of farmers' hardware, C. P. Rinker has been making extensive changes in the interior arrangement of his establishment, this week, in the way of shelving, counters, etc. Part of his stock is already on the shelves.

A very exciting runaway occurred on Dennison street, yesterday afternoon, happily without injury or damage. This custom of letting teams stand untied upon our streets merits punishment of no little severity. The practice is dangerous and may result in serious injury.

On the occasion of their public installation, (St. John's Day) last Thursday, Indianola lodge of Masons very gracefully recognized the merits and work of their old Worthy Master, S. W. Stigebouner of Danbury, by presenting him with a handsome and elegant gold watch.

The "break" made, Saturday noon, on West Dennison street, by a member of the gang of crooks now infesting this city, should have sent him to the base burner for 30 days, on bread and water. Such demonstrations on our streets in broad daylight are disgusting and disgraceful.

The officers of the Masonic Order of this city were duly installed, last Thursday evening, (St. John's Day.) Among the visiting brothers present were Sylvester Cordeal of Akron, W. B. Spain of Indianola and S. W. Stigebouner of Danbury, all old-time Masons and well along in the order.

The festive tramp now pestereth the patient housewife muchly. If the patient housewife muchly pestered will gaily ornament, a la pepper-box, the troublesome tramp with bird shot from the family blunderbus ancient, there would soon be a painful paucity of pestering tramps prolific.

Last Thursday evening, the 24th inst., Constantine Commandery, U. D., was organized in this city, with E. E. Lowman, E. C., and Sylvester Cordeal, Recorder. The Commandery begins its existence with an excellent membership of thirteen Sir Knights, and promises to become one of the flourishing orders of the city.

Last Thursday evening, R. S. Hileman of the South Side, lost a valuable and highly prized horse, by lightning. Another horse standing near was also burned by the stroke, but not seriously injured. R. S. has purchased a span of mules, in hopes that those homely and demure quadrupeds will be less "attractive."

M., mass and close of mission.

THOMAS CULLEN, Pastor.

The match base ball game which occurred in this city, Tuesday afternoon, between the Indianola boys and our local club, resulted in a score of 12 to 10 in favor of the visiting club, much to the disappointment of those who imagined that McCook would have a walk-away. Had Newman done the pitching from the out-start, the result would doubtless have been decidedly otherwise, as his rapid and unexpected style of delivery discomfited the Indianola boys not a little. The game of Tuesday afternoon will have the effect of bracing our club up.

Does it not sound a little oddly inconsistent for a boodle-policy organ, that is so distressingly careful about "giving the town a bad name," to remark like this: "The present jail has been of good service, but McCook is now in need of something better for jail quarters. Over four cannot be placed in the jail at once, and VERY OFTEN there is need for MORE ROOM!" Rather than see a larger jail, THE TRIBUNE would sooner see the authorities clean out a few of the causes that fill the city cooler. Better strike at the fountain source of these troubles and the need of enlarged city prisons will no longer exist. The people of this city expect the law to be enforced to a reasonable extent at any rate.

THE QUILL DRIVERS.

A few members of the Republican Valley Press Association met in solemn conclave in this city, Tuesday, as per announcement. The afternoon was consumed by the press gang in the base ball game, in making observations around the city, in hunting up old-time friends and acquaintances and the like. After supper, the association held their usual business meeting, in the Commercial House parlors. The following officers were then elected: President, H. M. Crane; Vice President, T. J. Cleaver; Treasurer, C. L. Watkins; Secretary, R. B. Wahlquist; Executive Committee, Col. T. J. Pickett, A. J. Graham and E. Bert Risley. The other business of the association being duly disposed of, the now hungry editors, editors are proverbially hungry—or thirsty—adjourned to the banquet hall, where a bountiful feast of the delicacies and good things of the season, such as Host Johnston of the Commercial knows only too well how to prepare, was partaken of, and it is superfluous to indite, was dispatched with evident gusto. At appropriate periods in the feast were toasts, apropos of the occasion, to which responses were made with varying eloquence, forebiveness and pointedness, by Register G. L. Laws, Mayor I. J. Starbuck, J. A. Cordeal, Esq., Col. T. J. Pickett, A. J. Graham, J. S. LeHew, Esq., C. L. Watkins, Thos. Colfer, Esq., and others. After which the party dispersed, no doubt with the feeling that it had been good for them to be here. These are the present ones:

T. J. Pickett, Bloomington Guard.
A. J. Graham, Beaver City Times.
W. T. Lindsay, Oxford Standard.
T. J. Cleaver, Orleans Press.
C. C. Chapin, Franklin Echo.
F. Bert Risley, Culbertson Reveille.
Frank Israel, Benkelman Pioneer.
M. L. Thomas, Holdrege Republican.
H. M. Crane, (and wife), Franklin Echo.
F. A. Watkins, Blue Hill Times.
E. S. Wait, Haigler Reporter.
J. A. Morse, Trenton Register.
C. L. Watkins, Blue Hill Times.

THE TRIBUNE takes pleasure, in this connection, in noting the unanimous and enthusiastic support tendered our fellow-townsmen, G. L. Laws, for the office of Secretary of State. Such unanimity is exceptional in this country of self-interest dominant and surely must be gratifying to Mr. Laws, and that he will go into the convention with the enthusiastic support of the Valley, is assured, while substantial evidence is his that his strength will by no means be restricted to the Valley upon convention day.

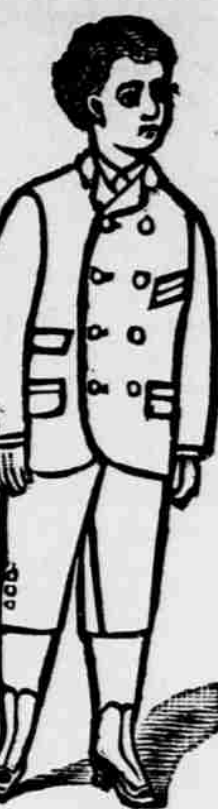

NEW LAW FIRM—Messrs. J. E. Cochran of our city and W. S. Morlan of Arapahoe have formed a partnership in the practice of law, to take effect from July 1st. They have secured rooms over Kendall's store, which they will occupy for the present, until their quarters in the new brick which Representative Hocknell contemplates building this summer on the lot now occupied by the Frees & Hocknell Lumber Co.'s office, are completed. The gentlemen composing this firm are too well known in this part of the Valley, and in this land district, to require any introduction at our hands. Both our high-minded gentlemen of recognized merit and standing in the profession. In due time, Mr. Morlan will remove his family to our city and dwell amongst us. The land firm of Cochran & Helm is not affected by this new arrangement, but will be continued at the old stand.

The Hayden stock was taken possession of, this morning, by A. Yeazole of the Exchange National of Hastings, he having bought the other mortgagees' interest. We understand that Mr. Yeazole will sell the entire stock in a lump. Also, that the Messrs. Harper of Paxton, Ill., old and experienced men in the merchandise business, are figuring on purchasing the stock. We hope the rumor may prove true, as these gentlemen will make a strong addition to the business men of our city.

Plans and specifications are now being prepared for the brick which Representative Hocknell contemplates having built at once. It will occupy the place of the Frees & Hocknell Lumber Co.'s present office, will be 25x75 as to dimensions, two-stories high, and an elegant and substantial structure throughout. The lower floor will be occupied by the Frees & Hocknell Lumber Co., a portion of the second floor by Messrs. Morlan & Cochran's law offices.

A BAD FALL.

One day last week, while George, the nine-year-old son of A. W. Newland, was about the well, and in some unaccountable manner he fell into it. Mr. Newland was not far distant and saw him disappear, but the shock so unnerved him that it was nearly a minute before he dared approach the well, and when he did, it was with a feeling that his son must surely be dead, as the well is seventy feet deep. It was therefore a glad surprise to hear his son call out: "Pa, let down the rope!" Hallooing back the father asked him if he was hurt, the boy answering, not very much. The rope was quickly lowered and the boy stepping into the bucket was brought to the surface. On examination a slight cut was found on the back of his head, but this did not hurt very much and in an hour he was playing about as usual. —Indianola Courier.
