

A GRAND FRENCH WEDDING.

Duc de Morney and Miss Gusman Blanc's Marriage in Paris.

Paris special: The Duc de Morney's wedding with Miss Gusman Blanc came off at the Church of the Madeleine to-day with splendid éclat.

The duc's presents to the bride were equal to the famous duke of Buckingham. I will only mention four of them.

THE STATEMENTS OF PARNELL.

Lord Salisbury Denounces Them as Utterly Untrue.

LONDON, June 29.—Lord Salisbury has written for publication a letter denying in detail every assertion made by Mr. Parnell concerning the alleged negotiations made on behalf of the late conservative government to secure Irish support in return for the concession of home rule.

SOME WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The fiscal year to close with Wednesday, June 30, will find the national finances in pretty good shape. The public debt, which twenty years ago was $75 for each man, woman and child in the country, is now $23 for each person, and the interest charge, which at that time was over $4 per head, is now 75 cents per capita.

DEMOCRATS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the New Hampshire democratic convention at Concord, the following proceedings took place: The convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for governor by ballot.

SHOT BY A BURGLAR.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 28.—At Beloit this morning Professor C. W. Merriman, in a struggle with two burglars, was shot and probably fatally wounded.

A FORMIDABLE ORGANIZATION.

St. Louis dispatch: Several very important meetings of the leaders of the Law and Order League have been held recently, both here and at Sedalia, Mo.

The object of these meetings is to establish an organization from one end of the country to the other in support of law and order which can be largely massed at one point if necessary.

A MONTH'S WORK YET.

Washington special: There is very little prospect of the adjournment of congress before the last of July. In its debate upon the postoffice bill today, the senate showed a disposition to insist upon an appropriation for the transportation of ocean mails, and the democratic senators were the most emphatic of all.

PROBABLE TIME OF ADJOURNMENT.

Washington special: The prospects of an early adjournment has received a setback by the president. He informed members of both the senate and house that he will not sign any bill without first carefully reading it through and informing himself as to its provisions.

THE FISHERIES MATTER.

Ottawa dispatch: A member of the Dominion cabinet, when asked to-day what he thought the outcome would be of the stringent measures the government was enforcing for the protection of the fisheries, replied that he firmly believed the whole difficulty would be settled within a very few days to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

BEECHER AND GLADSTONE.

Liverpool dispatch: Henry Ward Beecher was interviewed last evening after the great liberal mass meeting and was asked by a reporter of the Liverpool Post what he thought of Mr. Gladstone's speech.

LIVELY TIMES IN CONGRESS.

Washington special: This evening's Critic of this city says: "Mr. Cobb of Indiana, and Mr. Laird, of Nebraska, got real ugly at each other in the house yesterday on the land question.

THE CAMERON DYNASTY.

Washington special: As Don Cameron came into the senate this morning the senators all clustered around him and began to shake his hands in the most hearty manner and to congratulate him as though he had had a narrow escape from something.

THE ARKANSAS DEMOCRATS.

The Arkansas democratic state convention met at Little Rock on the 30th. The convention nominated the following ticket: For governor, Hughes; treasurer, Woodruff; land commissioner, Cobbs; attorney general, Jones; judge of the supreme court, Battle; secretary of state, Moody.

UNCLE SAM'S INDEBTEDNESS.

A Statement Setting Forth the Situation Regarding the Public Debt.

The public debt was reduced last month over $9,000,000 and for the fiscal year which closed June 30, over $96,000,000 against $63,449,709, the preceding year.

GOING OVER THE ROAD.

Sedalia (Mo.) special: Edward Page, who stole $10,000 from the Adams Express company while agent at Golden City, Mo., in January last, passed through Sedalia this morning en route to the penitentiary, to serve a two years sentence.

DEATH OF EX-SENATOR DAVIS.

An Old and Prominent Citizen of Illinois Breathes His Last.

Judge David Davis died at his home in Bloomington, Ill., on the 27th. He sank into a comatose state twelve hours before the end and passed painlessly away, surrounded by his family.

FINNISH WORK.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 23.—Exactly 214 people were poisoned at last Thursday's picnic near Flemington, N. J.

A BLOODY RIOT.

PARIS, June 23.—Thirty thousand people went last night to witness the performances in the immense bull circus at Nimes on the departure of Gard. The entertainment had been extensively advertised to be given under electric lights.

PROSECUTING THE DRUGGISTS.

Sioux City special: Judge Wakefield has taken the cases against druggists of this county for not complying with the requirements of the state liquor statutes under advisement. The court was occupied all day in hearing arguments on a motion of defendants to dismiss the cases.

AN IRISH PLOT TO MURDER.

BIRMINGHAM, June 30.—Joseph Chamberlain told a reporter of the Birmingham Mail to-day that well informed friends informed him that there was in existence an Irish plot to murder him.

A DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLED.

Cheyenne (Wyoming) special: Sam Baker alias Brown, a well known Northern desperado, killed Deputy Sheriff Dave Loyd of Buffalo on Powder river on the 1st inst. Baker was wanted as a witness in a horse-stealing case. Loyd went to summon him. He was admitted to Baker's house at night by a woman. Baker shot him as he stepped in the door. The slayer gave himself up the next day, declaring that he thought Loyd was a man who was laying for him, and trying to get the drop on him, and claims that the killing was done by mistake.

A RECKLESS MAN JUGGED.

Ottumwa (Iowa) special: Kinsley Jordan, or as he is commonly known, "Stormy Jordan," the most notorious saloon keeper in the state, has just been jailed for violation of the prohibition law and will have to serve 300 days in jail. He kept the notorious saloon at the Ottumwa depot whose sign bore the legend, "The Road to Hell."

AN ADDRESS TO ELECTORS.

Gladstone Appeals to the People for the Cause He Espouses.

London cablegram: Mr. Gladstone has issued a manifesto to the electors of Wales. "It is not the first nor the tenth time," he says, "that the Tories have raised a cry of alarm and predicted ruin of the empire. They have been at it all their lives and always when those great and good measures were proposed which have made the age illustrious—the reform of parliament, the abolition of the corn laws, of slavery, of religious tests, of church rates, and the Irish church, the freedom of burials, the defense of tenants' rights, and many more.

BOYCOTTERS SENTENCED.

New York dispatch: The convicted boycotters on Theiss, the proprietor of the concert garden, were arraigned in court to-day for sentence. Judge Barrett made some strong remarks to them on the lawlessness of the crime of which they were convicted. He said that this was a violation of the peace to the country that welcomed foreign born citizens to a country that offered freedom and the privileges of right; they had violated the public rights and opinions and their offense was not short of blackmail.

GOING OVER THE ROAD.

Sedalia (Mo.) special: Edward Page, who stole $10,000 from the Adams Express company while agent at Golden City, Mo., in January last, passed through Sedalia this morning en route to the penitentiary, to serve a two years sentence.

He kept the notorious saloon at the Ottumwa depot whose sign bore the legend, "The Road to Hell."

STANFORD AND MEISSONIER.

The Californian Gives the Painter Points on His Arts.

Mr. Stanford, of California, has a portrait of himself by Meissonier, painted in Paris when the senator was there a few years back, writes a Washington correspondent of The Cincinnati Enquirer. The price was $10,000. It is not considered to be a good literal likeness, and very few portraits of Americans by French artists are. That intuition for truth and the habit of getting at it which portrait painters of the British and American schools possess the French gives way to his artistic disposition; he is always searching for something which shall improve one's nature.

DISGRACING THE SABBATH.

CLEVELAND, O., June 27.—This afternoon an excursion party of about 300 men, women and children visited Fairview, about thirty miles east of here. A dozen or more men, who had been drinking on the boat, visited a saloon on their arrival at Fairport and soon succeeded in starting a quarrel which ended in all the windows of the saloon being broken by the excursionists.

A WEAPON AGAINST BOYCOTTERS.

Binghamton (N. Y.) dispatch: A new weapon against the boycott was brought out here to-day. John H. Dann, John Doyle, Edward Barnes and George Sauls, cigar makers, were arrested under the federal laws for boycotting Fred J. Hill, a cigar manufacturer. It is claimed that Hill, by paying his internal revenue tax thereby acquired the right, under the internal revenue laws, to manufacture cigars and that the right so acquired is a right secured by the laws of the United States within the intent and meaning of section 5508, under which the action is brought.

FLOWERS FOR SENATOR MANDERSON.

Washington special: A very large and magnificent floral offering occupied the desk of Senator Manderson on the floor of the senate to-day. It was in the form of scales, representing justice, and came from the employees of the government printing office, for whom he advocated gallantly a bill which recently passed the senate, giving a month's leave of absence every year with pay. Heretofore the printing office people have not been given an annual leave like other government servants.

THE MARKETS.

Table with market prices for various commodities like wheat, corn, and flour in different locations like Omaha, Chicago, and St. Louis.

CROCKER'S EYESORE.

The Fence Built by the Railroad Magnate About a Neighbor's Lot.

The stranger in San Francisco who goes about to view the dwellings of the rich is struck with wonder at a singular monument which rears its unsightly shape on Sacramento street, between Taylor and Jones. On all sides but one it looks like an overgrown icicle house, and as it stands within the broad shadow of the palatial home of Charles Crocker, the observer who does not look beyond appearances is disposed to view eternal admiration of a love for cooling beverages which manifests itself by the keeping of a sheltered iceberg so near to one's door.

About nine years ago a house stood there, the property of a wealthy undertaker named Yung. When Charles Crocker had secured the whole of the square plot which his residence occupies, except this parallelogram, he was willing to pay dearly for it. Mr. Yung knew that the lot was worth a great deal more to his affluent and powerful neighbor than to any one else.

Advertise Your Town.

In this busy, bustling age, when everything goes at lightning speed, the man who sits supinely down and waits for the procession to catch up, is apt to find, when he wakes and rubs his eyes, that the procession has gone by while he slept, and that he must do some pretty tall running to overtake it.

Tarred Floors.

Some months ago the floors of many Austrian garrisons were painted with tar, and the results have proved so uniformly advantageous that the method is becoming greatly extended in its application.

Recent rain-storm in Texas is described as having been "a regular root-soaker and gully-washer."
