

State Republican Convention.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties to meet in convention at Lincoln, Wednesday, September 29, 1886, at 7 P. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following state offices:

Table listing delegates from various counties including Adams, Antelope, Blaine, Boone, Brown, Buffalo, Butler, Burr, Cass, Chase, Cheyenne, Cherry, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Custer, Dakota, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge, Douglas, Dundy, Fillmore, Franklin, Frontier, Furnas, Gage, Gosper, Greeley, Hall, Hamilton, Harlan, Hitchcock, Holt, Kearney, Keith, Keya Paha, Lancaster, Lincoln, Logan, Loup, Madison, Merrick, Nemaha, Nuckolls, Osage, Pawnee, Pierce, Platte, Polk, Richardson, Rock, Saline, Sarpy, Saunders, Seward, Sioux, Sherman, Stanton, Thayer, Valley, Washington, Wayne, Webster, Wheeler, York.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which proxies are given.

There will be a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee at the Court House, Indianola, Neb., August 7th, 1886, at 1 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is urgently requested.

THE Democrats are making extensive preparations to get left this fall.

CONGRESSMAN LAIRD will return to the house with less opposition than ever.

SENATOR PAUL of Howard county seems to be the coming man for gubernatorial honors, with General Thayer and H. T. Clarke well in sight.

WE see it stated that Hon. E. K. Valentine will not be a candidate for governor, but that he is earnestly supporting Senator Paul for that position.

THE TRIBUNE is prepared to announce the Republican candidates for the various offices at the usual rate—$5 per announcement. Don't all rush in at once.

This issue contains the call for a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee at Indianola, August 7th. There should be a full attendance of the committee. Let every precinct be represented without fail.

THE TRIBUNE expresses the opinion of Congressman Laird's constituents, when it says that Buily Cobb received his just deserts. There is a limit to the amount of insult that any man should endure, and when that limit is over-reached, the punishment should come and with emphasis.

THERE are many candidates for State Senator now in the field from this district, and a warm fight is anticipated. Among the candidates is the present Senator, J. W. Dolan, of Indianola. Senator Dolan has a fair, clean record and is recognized as one of the best and most honest legislators from western Nebraska.—Gosper County Citizen.

THE prospects are becoming brighter for G. L. Laws to receive the nomination for Secretary of State. Mr. Laws is receiving the enthusiastic support of the whole Republican Valley, and will receive the votes of Lincoln county in addition. We hope Phelps county will give him a handsome indorsement and work for him in the convention.—Holdrege Republican.

A BINGING set of resolutions come wafted upon the western wind from McCook. Right in the shadow of the land office from which no rascal has yet been bounced the democrats assemble in solemn conclave and heartily endorse what the President has done, also his manner of doing it. This is indeed refreshing. If the democrats like the situation we see no reason why it may not be prolonged indefinitely.—Topics.

A JUDGE ON A TEAR.

A MEMBER OF THE NEBRASKA BENCH INCARNATES THE TOWN.

A well-known western judge has been in the city for the past day or two, having a good time. He has succeeded excellently in this and has "seen the elephant" from trunk to tail. To day he was staggering about the streets, high helplessly intoxicated. All the policemen happened to know who he was, and consequently he has so far avoided arrest. "Dammet, boy," he said to a reporter, "bin having sush-h gool' time—hic. Been paintin' zhisht town red—hic—an' don' you fer—hic—git it. Got plenny money, yes—hic—lesh go an' git er drink." At this he rattled the silver in his pocket, and made a desperate attempt to brace up an iron railing against which he was leaning.

The one unfortunate part of this spree is that the judge has, while here, lost a neighbor's boy, who came down with him to see the sights. His name is Frank Schaeffer; he is nine years old, and his parents live at Alma, Neb. The police are looking for the boy, but so far have discovered no trace of him. His drunken guardian seems to feel but little unconcerned about the matter. "Damme I'm goan back home till zhat boysh foun'," he declared to a reporter. "Zhe people might—hic—try'er mob law'n me. Ain' goan to—hic—run any risks, ye know."—Omaha Bee, July 27th.

THE Lincoln Daily Democrat, poor attenuated old cadaver, has been purchased by J. D. Calhoun, the versatile "Topics Man" of the Lincoln State Journal. If there is any man in the commonwealth that can resuscitate and breathe the breath of life into the ancient corpse, Calhoun is the man, but it will test his lung and brain capacity to the utmost; for verily it hath been mortuus est so long that it stinketh.

HON. LEANDER GERRARD of Columbus is placed in nomination for Governor by Moses Turner of the Columbus Journal, in the most eulogistic language. All this is very nice. We like to see Moses spread himself, so to speak metaphorically, but Leander can't reach the persimmons.

THE nation is safe. At the late meeting of the "great unwashed" in this city, we observe that resolutions were "unanimously" passed ratifying and commending Grover's administration.

The Fighting Congressmen. [From the New York Sun.] Give ear to a poor but honest little ditty of a fight that was fought in Washington city between two congressmen, more's the pity.

Says Laird, M. C., to Cobb, M. C., "You're everything that's rank, You crank, you!"

Says Cobb, M. C., right violently, "You're everything that's blank, Blank blank you!"

Says Laird, M. C., to Cobb, M. C., "I'm aching for to pulverize you!"

Says Cobb, M. C., "Come out with me, And I'll put erape over your eyes, you Sanguineous liar!"

So Laird, M. C., and Cobb, M. C., Those shrill and snorting foes, In martial manner Went into the lobby angrie, And Laird, M. C., let out on the nose Of Cobb of Injanner.

Cobb, M. C., weighs sixteen stone; He collapsed down into a chair, All gory,

And emitted a faint and hollow groan: "Oh, give me arnica, give me air!"—Gone was his glory.

PROSPECT PARK.

Miss Mary Wickwire has a fine organ.

Mrs. Doll had three lambs caught by wolves.

Mr. Allum is building a cyclone proof mansion.

Mr. Ihle is building a cottage of brick-pure Nebraska soil.

BIRTHS.

COLEMAN—Thursday afternoon, July 22d, 1886, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Coleman.

BETTER STILL.

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—On July 13th, I was on the farm of H. T. Church and visited his corn field, and while there I cut a stalk of corn from his patch and brought it to McCook, and it was noticed in THE TRIBUNE. It was not intended as a challenge for tall corn, but as my friend, Royal Buck, has accepted it as such, I return to him my compliments with the following report: Measurement taken of corn on the farm of H. T. Church, July 27th, 1886: First stalk measured gave a height of 12 feet 3 1/2 inches; second, 12 feet 4 1/2 inches; third, 12 feet 5 1/2 inches; fourth, 12 feet 7 1/2 inches; fifth, 13 feet 1 1/2 inches; sixth, 13 feet 8 1/2 inches; seventh, 13 feet 9 1/2 inches; eighth, 14 feet, with three ears, the top ear 9 feet 6 inches from the ground. One stalk measured 7 1/2 inches in circumference, three feet from the ground. I sat down in the shade of a tree and meditated, but could not comprehend how we could have gathered the corn, had the drouth not come to shorten the stalks, and also wondered what kind of a crop we could raise in a good season. WM. COLEMAN.
