"IRELAND sober is Ireland free," are suggestive words of the late A. M. Sullivan.

SAM JONES says that he is a christian and a democrat. Sam does have the earmarks of a bourbon, but his christianity is distressingly sealy. Sam is given to making astonishingly contradictory statements, however.

THE Sioux City, Iowa, saloonists have taken a new tack. Not being able to vanquish the prohibitionists on the line of argument, reason or law, they have assumed the assassin's role. Rev. G. C. Haddock, pastor of the M. E. church of that city, is the first martyr to the cause, having on the evening of the 3d inst. been shot down in cold blood.

It is with pleasure that we note the hearty support that Hon. G. L. Laws, of McCook, is receiving from the press in the western part of the state. Mr. Laws has a reputation for sterling honesty and ability that is second to none. We hope to see him the choice of the Republican state convention, for secretary of state.—Holdrege Republican.

BELFAST finished up the week with a bigger shindy than any that have preceded it. Fifty heads were broken and several funerals will likely follow in due time. It is high time that the long promised martial law was proclaimed in the Orange stronghold. At this distance nothing looks more absurd than these daily attacks upon Catholics by the Protestant population.

THE postmaster general has amended the postal laws and regulations so as to permit the transmission through the mails within the United States and territories of liquids not liable to explosion or spontaneous combustion. He has also changed the rate for money orders, so as to enable a person to send a five dollar order for five cents. This is a reduction of three cents on that size money order.

GOV. DAWES has issued his proclamation submitting to a vote of the people of the State at the next election a proposed amendment to the Constitution relative to the term and salary of members of the Legislature. Under the Constitution as it now stands, members get $3 per day for a term of forty days, and no allowance where the term exceeds that limit. Under the new provision members would receive $5 a day for a term of sixty days at any one sitting, or not more than one hundred days during the entire term. The proposed amendment is a reasonable and sensible one, and should be adopted by a good, round majority.

AN exchange has it that Hastings is falling into disfavor with the gentlemanly (?) commercial tourist, because the Mayor of that city has closed up the gambling dens and bawdy houses, and compelled the gin shops to close on Sundays. Naturally, however, the city continues to grow more and more in favorable repute with its citizens. The genteel knight of the grip has nothing to fear from the Mayor of this city in the direction of the enforcement of our ordinances against gambling and the social evil. None whatever.
