BOX ELDER STRAWBERRIES.

Hello, Coward, have you and Miss L. found yourselves yet?

A. W. Campbell is building him a fine new frame house, so we hear.

Quite a nice time at Mattie Miller's taffy pulling, week before last.

We had quite a nice rain, the other night, which made the hearts of the farmers glad.

Mr. Bolles has been getting some new furniture. What does that mean? Can you tell us, Virn.

Bert, don't feel so bad because your oldest brother cut you out. Brace up, and don't be discouraged.

Morley Piper has returned to his home at Box Elder from a four or five weeks trip. We gladly welcome him back.

They are talking of having a picnic for the Box Elder Sunday School. We hope they will succeed in their undertaking.

Mrs. A. W. Campbell has returned from her visit down in Kansas. She leaves the folks getting better, but not well. Hope they will recover soon.

There was quite a laughable wish made, the other day, when Mr. Snort wished that his name was Mr. Cogger. Can't you change with Snort, Cogger?

The base ball club want to play against the Coon Creek boys, last Saturday, and the Coon Creekers beat them 25 scores. Poor boys, how we pity them, but hope they will live and learn.

One more railroader back again, Mahlon Campbell. He has a pet finger and says railroad work is too much for him. We are sorry for his pet, but we welcome him back in our neighborhood.

The Box Elder base ball club is fast improving and we all wish them good success. Mr. Bolles gave the boys quite a civil dance recently. Report was, a good time—if one or two had left their bottles at home.

Wm. Templin is having it real nice, this summer. He is in town every other day. Some think there is some one that takes him there. That is right, Will, go it while you have a chance, you may not always have one. Box Elder, August 24. SECRET.

VAILTON NOTES.

These are busy times for the farmers and ranchmen.

We met C. S. Ferris, last week. He reports that the corn in this section the best he has seen in the state.

Mr. McCroskie and Jesse Webb will visit friends in Colorado soon; we presume the antelope will suffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt of New York are visiting their son, James L., and of course both are well pleased with their trip.

Mr. Clemens has made arrangements to run a sorghum mill this season and we are assured that it will be a successful enterprise.

Mr. Spangler, who preached at Vailton during the summer, has returned to his studies at Oberlin, Ohio, very much to the regret of the community in general.

Miss Nettie Parks has made proof on her place. We notice quite a number in this section doing the same; in fact most of the land in the vicinity of Vailton is already decided.

Quite a number of our young people surprised Miss Jennie Spear on the 16th in the way of a birthday party. The evening passed quickly in games, music, etc., and will be a milestone in life long to be remembered.

We are sorry to learn of J. F. Megrue's disposing of his place near Vailton. We opine, however, that he will make the southwest his home in the near future. Mr. M. has a number of farms in Clay county which require his supervision. RALPH.

SOUTH-SIDE LOCALS.

Mrs. H. H. Pickens is on the sick list.

Fred Benjamin is putting the roof on his new house.

Ed Benjamin has gone to the Willow to look after his land.

It is reported that one of our neighbors is busted—financially speaking.

We were mistaken, Lloyd Hileman is building a sod house instead of a frame.

Ed Wheaton is down from the Willow with a fine span of brogan ponies for sale.

Boys, all take off your hats, H. H. Pickens is coming with that nobby new carriage of his.

Tim and Jack Hanan were up on the Driftwood, last week, helping to put up a house.

Reports from old Michigan say they are feeding their stock hay. Pastures all burnt up and crops almost a failure.

H. H. Pickens, Richard Johnston and Fred Benjamin were delegates to the county convention from Valley Grange precinct.

Perry Stone smiles all over his countenance. His wife and child returned home from their eastern visit, last Saturday night. Her father and father-in-law accompanied her.

W. T. Stone thinks he has the finest piece of corn in the country. He has some fine melons, as we can attest. We helped to eat one, last Sunday, that kicked the beam at 40 pounds. UNO.
